Legislative Program To Be Discussed

Democratic Winners Meet For First Time Since Their Election

The Kennedy-Johnson talks beginning this evening and continuing through Thursday are expected to deal also with preliminary formulation of a congressional legislative program against the background of campaign promises on a wide range of domestic and international matters.

The Democratic winners will be meeting for the first time since their election last week over Republicans Richard M. Nixon and Henry Cabot Lodge.

Kennedy arranged to take off from his vacation headquarters in the late afternoon aboard a chartered jet airliner. From Palm Beach he flies to Bergstrom Air Force Base near Austin, Tex., and switches there to a small plane for about a 60-mile flight to the LBJ ranch at Johnson City.

Johnson, who moves to the vice presidency in January from his powerful post as Senate Democratic leader, arranged to meet Kennedy at Bergstrom and escort him to the ranch.

After a tour of the ranch and dinner, the president-elect and Johnson will get down to serious talking about the Kennedy program for moving America ahead in the 1960s.

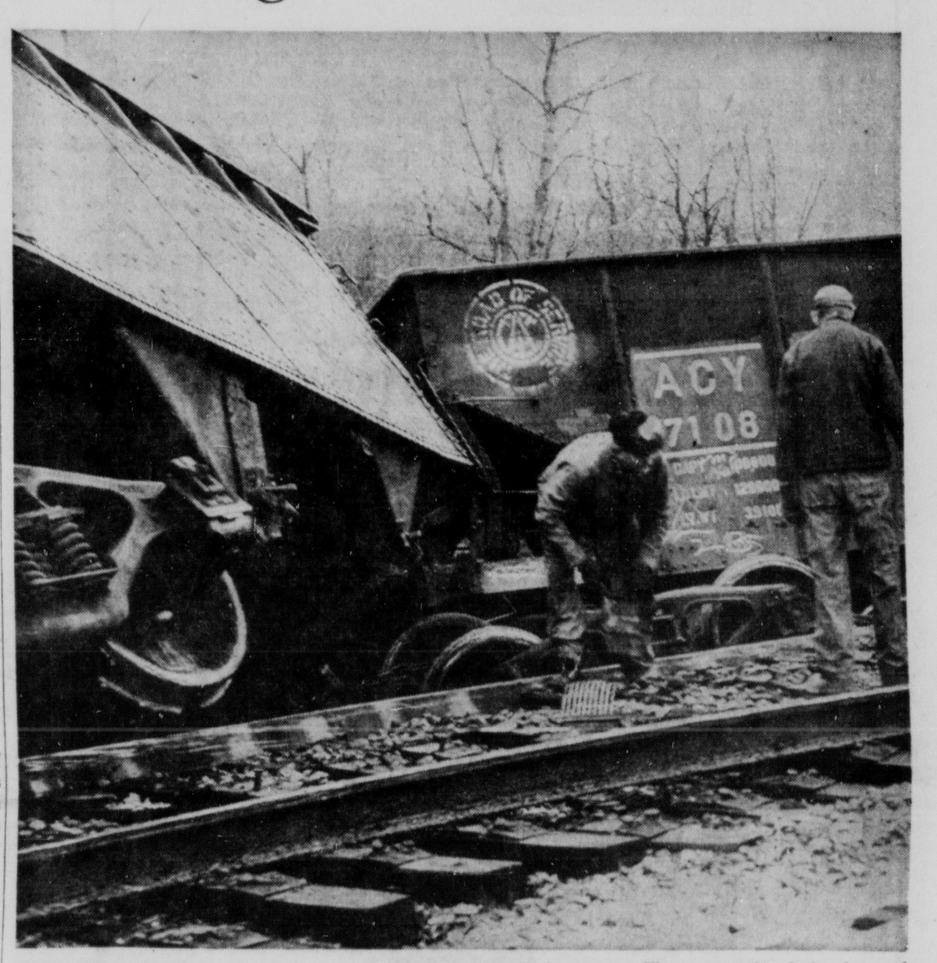
Scheduled Thursday is a full round of further conferences into the early evening but there may be some time out for recreation.

The Texas hunting season for white tail deer opens a few hours after Kennedy's arrival, and herds of these swift animals are a familiar sight on the LBJ ranch on the Pedernales River.

Kennedy plans to be back at Palm Beach, where since last Friday he has been staying at the home of his parents, by midnight Thursday.

The Florida stay has been a combination of work and relaxation. Tuesday afternoon the president-elect conferred for two hours with one of his earliest and staunchest supporters, Gov. Abraham Ribicoff of Connecticut. Then they played nine holes of golf—and Ribicoff reported Kennedy the winner, one-up in match play.

19 Freight Cars Derailed



Nineteen cars and a unit of a Diesel locomotive of a 78-car Pennsylvania Railroad Co. freight train were derailed at Salineville early today shortly after the train pulled out from a halt.

Railroad authorities said no one was injured and there was no extensive track damage because the train, headed east, was moving slowly after the stop.

A wreck crew from Mongo Junction was at the site and a crew from Canton was en route to clear away the damaged cars which blocked the eastbound tracks and "fouled," or kept traffic from the westbound tracks.

The train, with four Diesel units in front and two in the rear as a "pusher," derailed about 4:20 a. m.

The rear unit of the forward locomotive section went off the rails, along with 19 cars, 5 of them going some distance from the tracks.

Grand Jurors To Set Charge For Wounding

Bond For Salsberry Continued Pending Action On Gun Case

The Columbiana County Grand Jury will have the prerogative of determining whether an assault charge against Robert Salsberry, 34, of 208 W. 7th St. is a misdemeanor or felony, Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff commented Tuesday when binding the local man over to Common Pleas Court in connection with the wounding of a Travelers Hotel clerk last May 8.

The judge heard nearly two hours' testimony before binding over Salsberry on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon as an aftermath of the incident which wounded both the defendant and Albert Barnes, 65, of 506 Sugar St., the hotel clerk.

Barnes, last to testify for the prosecution, walked to the witness stand slowly, leaning on a cane. He testified he has not worked since the night over six months ago when he was shot and beaten.

Judge Chertoff conducted a preliminary hearing to determine whether to hold Salsberry to the higher court or dismiss the charge. When the prosecution rested shortly before noon yesterday, the judge said he found enough evidence to warrant holding Salsberry for Grand Jury action.

He explained the lower court's duty was to determine if "the crime alleged has been committed" and if there was "reasonable and probable cause" to bind over the defendant.

Then the judge commented that the Grand Jury, if it indicts Salsberry, will have the right to determine whether the alleged crime was a felony or a misdemeanor. He ordered Salsberry's $1,500 bond continued.

Barnes testified the incident was touched off when Salsberry entered the hotel in the company of a young woman and the couple went together to the woman's room on the second floor. He said he telephoned the room shortly afterward and told the woman entertaining was not permitted in the hotel's rooms.

Burglars Obtain $400 In Calcutta Firm's Safe

Burglars forced open a safe at Hitt Builders Co., Inc., at Calcutta Tuesday night or early today and escaped with approximately $400.

The burglary was discovered at 7 this morning. Deputy Sheriff Robert Beresford is investigating.

Dan Hitt, manager, said entry was gained by forcing open garage doors. The intruder then kicked the panel out of an interior door to reach the office where the small safe is located. Several other exterior doors showed signs that the intruders first sought to open them unsuccessfully.

The burglars pried open the safe door, using a wrecking bar taken from the store's tool display. Some checks were left behind. Hitt said it has not been determined if any merchandise was taken. The store is located on the Calcutta-Smiths Ferry Rd.

At Integrated School

Silent Reception Greets 3 Negroes

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP)—A silent reception greeted three Negro first graders today when they arrived at school as the New Orleans public school integration entered its third day.

Unlike the first two days of the integration dispute, only a few of spectators turned out at McDonogh No. 19, one of the two all-white schools integrated by federal court order.

There were no boos, yells or taunts.

The number of white school children attending McDonogh fell off. Only two were seen entering the school — its normal enrollment 467—when the bell rang.

But one mile away from the silent school 50 cars filled with truant teen-agers carrying signs paraded along streets near the industrial canal.

Police cut off the caravan at the canal.

Some signs bore the insignia "KKK." Youths clung to the sides of the cars. Car horns sounded a nearly constant blare of noise.

At William Frantz school, the one Negro girl showed up late, nearly at 9:30 a.m. The crowd that watched four U.S. marshals escort her into the school was smaller, probably under 200.

Two white children carried an effigy of a little Negro girl through the crowd. There were cheers.

Police escorted the two children a block away from the school before the Negro first-grader arrived.

There were cheers for a mother withdrawing her white child from the school, jeers and taunts of "nigger-lover" for parents who brought their child to school.

Impeachment of a federal judge who ordered the integration was reported under discussion as the lawmakers ended a 12-day special session at Baton Rouge in early morning hours.

A rare closed session was called today to start a new special 30-day meeting called by Gov. Jimmie H. Davis.

Both houses approved a resolution urging a boycott of the integrated schools. The House approved it 93-2 and it passed the Senate 34-0.

An estimated 10,000 white pupils stayed away from city schools Tuesday, the second day of efforts to integrate two local schools. Many absentees took part in rowdy demonstrations that brought 11 arrests.

Louisiana's U.S. senators and congressmen were asked to attend the closed session and help halt federal intervention.

The resolution calling for their appearance was aimed at U.S. Dist. Judge J. Skelly Wright, who issued the integration order and thwarted segregation acts of legislators with restraining orders.

An informant who asked not to be identified, said the question of asking Louisiana's congressional delegation to institute impeachment proceedings against Wright is one of the moves under consideration.

Segregation leader John Garrett called for Wright's arrest at a meeting of the Citizens Council Tuesday night. Garrett, chairman of the joint legislative committee on segregation, also called for the arrest of U.S. marshals who escorted four Negro girls to school Tuesday.

Garrett recommended full interposition, a legal maneuver through which the legislature would put state sovereignty between the federal government and the people to block integration.

Some 6,000 persons attending the meeting of the council, a segregationist group, shouted approval.

Mounted police held shouting demonstrators in check as four 6-year-old Negro girls entered the two white elementary schools Tuesday. Three of the girls spent the day at McDonogh 19 school, which was ringed with 125 patrolmen and mounted officers. School officials reported only 20 of the 467 students enrolled were in school.

Jury Verdict Near In 'Car Assault' Case

Panel Deliberates In Hancock Court After Overnight Recess

A jury of eight men and four women deliberating the case of a Wellsburg man accused of pinning a Waterford Park guard against a steel fence was expected to return a verdict sometime this afternoon in Hancock County Circuit Court in New Cumberland.

The panel, with David Dalton foreman, deliberated for nearly an hour Tuesday afternoon before being dismissed for the night by Judge J. Harold Brennan. The panel resumed dliberations this morning at 10.

The defendant is Donald Eugene Saunders, 31, charged with felonious assault and attempted murder of Steve Yurka, 48, of New Cumberland, after an argument over an auto sticker issued by the track June 26.

Saunders is charged with ramming his auto into Yurka, the track's sergeant of the guard, and pinning him against a 4-foot-high steel storm fence.

Yurka, owner of the Club Daily Double near New Cumberland, was badly injured and was hospitalized.

The defense claims that Saunders was rendered senseless by blows from Yurka's nightstick during the argument and the Wellsburg father of four testified yesterday that he was unable to remember portions of the incident that occurred near the track's stable gate.

After calling a rebuttal witness to the stand, Prosecutor Frank A. Pietranton rested the state's case at 2:30 yesterday afternoon.

Judge Brennan then charged the jurors that they were authorized to return one of three possible verdicts—guilty of malicious assault as charged, guilty of unlawful assault but not malicious assault, or innocent.

Conviction of the malicious assault charge carries a prison term of 2 to 10 years, while conviction of unlawful assault would result in a possible term of 2 to 5 years.

Edward Choinier, an agent of the Thoroughbred Racing Protective Bureau, was called by the prosecutor as a rebuttal witness yesterday afternoon.

The TRPB official testified that Yurka was authorized to take the defendant's track sticker as it was not pasted on the windshield of his auto as required.

It was brought out in previous testimony that Yurka and Saunders had a "heated argument" after the guard took the Wellsburg man's pass.

Wellsville Man, 72, Injured In Car Wreck

A 72-year-old Wellsville man was injured when his car veered out of control on Route 30 near Clinton, skidded twice across the opposite traffic lane, and struck a utility pole Tuesday afternoon about 4.

Calvin C. Campbell, 525 Main St., was treated at City Hospital for a fractured right arm and a hip injury received in the mishap.

A retired Pittsburgh school teacher, Campbell was en route home from an errand to Pittsburgh. The impact—which wrecked the 1948 coupe—hurled him against the car door, causing the arm injury.

During Wellsville Council Meeting

Action Hiking Refuse Rate Advanced By 4-To-3 Vote

Wellsville City Council, during a 3½-hour session Tuesday night, passed on first reading legislation calling for an increase in refuse collection rates after Mrs. Mary Rahter, president, broke a 3-3 tie vote. It must pass two more readings to go into effect.

Council, at its last session, had turned down the legislation to increase the rates. The city is faced with the threat of having to discontinue the service if operating money is not found.

The legislation calls for a 25-cent-a-month increase, from $3.75 to $4.50 per quarter, for residential customers and a proportionate increase for commercial and business establishments.

If adopted, the rates will provide an additional $5,800 annually for the department. The system now brings in about $29,000 but at least $35,000 is needed to meet expenses.

Councilman Paul Nelson, refuse chairman, was absent when the question came up last night, being at work. He presented the proposal originally. He said then the system works on a deficit of about $500 per month.

The matter came to light again last night when Councilman Donald Miller, finance chairman, reported $1,000 was needed by the end of the week for the refuse department to meet the payroll and expenses.

This was later transferred from the contingency fund of the general fund. Miller also said that between $2,500 and $3,000 will be

Record Voting To Bring New Polling Places

Columbiana County may gain additional precincts as a result of top-heavy votes cast in 28 of the 152 polling places at the Nov. 8 general election, Frank R. O'Hanlon, clerk of the County Election Board, said today.

The board already has launched a survey with the idea of dividing some of the precincts or realigning the boundaries, O'Hanlon explained.

The study covers the 28 precincts which cast 400 or more votes in the general election. The vote in some of the polling places was over 500, he explained.

Soviet Cites Ike As Arms 'Bargainer'

Will Do Business Only With Kennedy Now On Disarming

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP) —The Soviet Union wrote off the Eisenhower administration as a disarmament bargainer Tuesday night and made clear she will only do business with the incoming Kennedy government.

Valerian Zorin, Soviet deputy foreign minister, sparked an angry retort from the U. S. ambassador who called Moscow's position an unjustified interference in the internal affairs of the United States.

The exchange made clear to delegates that the current General Assembly's attempt to resolve the arms deadlock faces a dead end.

Zorin and U. S. Ambassador James J. Wadsworth clashed in the political committee after the Soviet delegate threw his support behind a compromise resolution submitted by India and co-sponsored by a group of uncommitted nations.

Zorin said the resolution presented by India's V. K. Krishna Menon had its faults, but that it presented the best hope for solution of the disarmament deadlock.

Wadsworth countered that the Indian proposal was unacceptable unless it was changed to make it clearer and give it more balance.

Woman Killed In Car Mishap

Victim From Koppel Thrown To Roadway

DARLINGTON — A 64-year-old Koppel woman was killed when thrown from her husband's car after it hit the railroad tracks on the Cannelton-Darlington Rd. about 2 miles west Tuesday at 6:15 p. m.

Mrs. Minnie Heaton was dead on arrival at Providence Hospital at Beaver Falls, where her husband, Barthlomew Heaton, 64, the driver, was treated.

He suffered a laceration of his eyebrow, contusions of the chest and possible rib fractures.

The Rochester barracks of the Pennsylvania State Police said Heaton was going east and went off to the right of the road and hit the tracks.

The right wheel of the car came off and Heaton lost control and went across the highway backwards into a bank. As the car careened, Mrs. Heaton was thrown out and received the fatal injuries.

Rotary Hears Chertoff

Judge Reiterates Warning Against Numbers' Invasion

Municipal Court Judge Samuel M. Chertoff reiterated his warning that "East Liverpool will not become a battleground for numbers writers" in reviewing his 10½ months on the bench Tuesday to the Rotary Club.

"The only way I find to stop numbers writers is to impose jail sentences — no fines will do it—a jail term is the best deterrent," Judge Chertoff declared at the club's luncheon in the Travelers Hotel.

"If any writers are brought before me and found guilty — someone will go to jail. East Liverpool will not become a battleground for numbers," Judge Chertoff added.

"The numbers business in the city has been pretty clean so far, although I can't say there are no writers operating, they still are writing in the city," Judge Chertoff explained.

He told the club that "You have no idea of how much money the writers make, it's not a penny-ante business, but a big, big business and ruthless from what I gather," the judge continued.

Judge Chertoff's warning followed the arrest Monday afternoon of Willard Davidson, 628 Jackson St., on a charge of possessing numbers slips and is now scheduled for a hearing Tuesday.

In addition to discussing a clampdown on the numbers writing — which he termed a "pet project," Judge Chertoff also asked the

Democratic Winners Meet For First Time Since Their Election

The Kennedy-Johnson talks beginning this evening and continuing through Thursday are expected to deal also with preliminary formulation of a congressional legislative program against the background of campaign promises on a wide range of domestic and international matters.

Grand Jurors To Set Charge For Wounding

The Columbiana County Grand Jury will have the prerogative of determining whether an assault charge against Robert Salsberry, 34, of 208 W. 7th St. is a misdemeanor or felony, Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff commented Tuesday when binding the local man over to Common Pleas Court in connection with the wounding of a Travelers Hotel clerk last May 8.

The judge heard nearly two hours' testimony before binding over Salsberry on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon as an aftermath of the incident which wounded both the defendant and Albert Barnes, 65, of 506 Sugar St., the hotel clerk.

Barnes, last to testify for the prosecution, walked to the witness stand slowly, leaning on a cane. He testified he has not worked since the night over six months ago when he was shot and beaten.

Judge Chertoff conducted a preliminary hearing to determine whether to hold Salsberry to the higher court or dismiss the charge. When the prosecution rested shortly before noon yesterday, the judge said he found enough evidence to warrant holding Salsberry for Grand Jury action.

Record Voting To Bring New Polling Places

Columbiana County may gain additional precincts as a result of top-heavy votes cast in 28 of the 152 polling places at the Nov. 8 general election, Frank R. O'Hanlon, clerk of the County Election Board, said today.

The board already has launched a survey with the idea of dividing some of the precincts or realigning the boundaries, O'Hanlon explained.

The study covers the 28 precincts which cast 400 or more votes in the general election. The vote in some of the polling places was over 500, he explained.

"Inevitably, there will be some

Will Do Business Only With Kennedy Now On Disarming

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP) —The Soviet Union wrote off the Eisenhower administration as a disarmament bargainer Tuesday night and made clear she will only do business with the incoming Kennedy government.

Valerian Zorin, Soviet deputy foreign minister, sparked an angry retort from the U. S. ambassador who called Moscow's position an unjustified interference in the internal affairs of the United States.

The exchange made clear to delegates that the current General Assembly's attempt to resolve the arms deadlock faces a dead end.

Zorin and U. S. Ambassador James J. Wadsworth clashed in the political committee after the Soviet delegate threw his support behind a compromise resolution submitted by India and co-sponsored by a group of uncommitted nations.

Zorin said the resolution presented by India's V. K. Krishna Menon had its faults, but that it presented the best hope for solution of the disarmament deadlock.

Wadsworth countered that the Indian proposal was unacceptable unless it was changed to make it clearer and give it more balance.

Woman Killed In Car Mishap

Victim From Koppel Thrown To Roadway

DARLINGTON — A 64-year-old Koppel woman was killed when thrown from her husband's car after it hit the railroad tracks on the Cannelton-Darlington Rd. about 2 miles west Tuesday at 6:15 p. m.

Mrs. Minnie Heaton was dead on arrival at Providence Hospital at Beaver Falls, where her husband, Barthlomew Heaton, 64, the driver, was treated.

He suffered a laceration of his eyebrow, contusions of the chest and possible rib fractures.

The Rochester barracks of the Pennsylvania State Police said Heaton was going east and went off to the right of the road and hit the tracks.

The right wheel of the car came off and Heaton lost control and went across the highway backwards into a bank. As the car careened, Mrs. Heaton was thrown out and received the fatal injuries.

Rotary Hears Chertoff

Judge Reiterates Warning Against Numbers' Invasion

Municipal Court Judge Samuel M. Chertoff reiterated his warning that "East Liverpool will not become a battleground for numbers writers" in reviewing his 10½ months on the bench Tuesday to the Rotary Club.

"The only way I find to stop numbers writers is to impose jail sentences — no fines will do it—a jail term is the best deterrent," Judge Chertoff declared at the club's luncheon in the Travelers Hotel.

"If any writers are brought before me and found guilty — someone will go to jail. East Liverpool will not become a battleground for numbers," Judge Chertoff added.

"The numbers business in the city has been pretty clean so far, although I can't say there are no writers operating, they still are writing in the city," Judge Chertoff explained.

He told the club that "You have no idea of how much money the writers make, it's not a penny-ante business, but a big, big business and ruthless from what I gather," the judge continued.

Judge Chertoff's warning followed the arrest Monday afternoon of Willard Davidson, 628 Jackson St., on a charge of possessing numbers slips and is now scheduled for a hearing Tuesday.

In addition to discussing a clamp-down on the numbers writing — which he termed a "pet project," Judge Chertoff also asked the club's support in promoting two of his proposals which he believes would help curtail traffic accidents.

Convinced of the need for more stringent traffic laws since his term on the bench began in January, Judge Chertoff said he is pressing for the State Legislature to enact laws requiring that autos be inspected at least once each year, and that all drivers be subjected to annual physical examinations.

Judge Chertoff said he has spoken to a number of legislators and senators in attempting to have the two proposals introduced into Ohio's traffic laws.

The proposal to have vehicles inspected at least once each year is expected to meet some opposition — particularly from farmers who appear bitterly opposed to it, the judge said.

"You have no idea of the number of junkers on our roads today," the judge said concerning his first proposal. "Only the mechanical ingenuity of young Americans keep these cars rolling," he added.

In discussing his proposal for physical examinations for drivers each year as a safety measure, Judge Chertoff cited the case in Municipal Court Tuesday morning where an accident might have been prevented if the law had been in effect.

The defendant suffered a stiff left hand as the result of an accident several years ago. He pleaded guilty to a charge of drunk driving.

Judge Chertoff pointed out that the driver was getting state aid for rehabilitation for the injured hand —"using our money for rehabilitation" — then gets drunk and has an accident. "He would not have been on the road if there had been an examination," the judge declared.

He pointed out that motorists now receive only one physical examination when they first receive their license — then the license is renewed every three years upon application. "Thousands driving today have no business holding an operator's license," the judge said. "Some become partly blind, or subject to convulsions long after they receive their initial license. A driver arrested in Southeastern Ohio was even found to be receiving aid from the blind," he added.

The federal government has realized the problem and has enacted a bill whereby the name of every person cited for drunk driving is placed on a master list in Washington. The name of a driver arrested for a future traffic violation is checked against the master list.

Judge Chertoff also discussed the new set of court rules he adopted after taking office and emphasized that all fines must be paid upon conviction. "Municipal Court is not here for profit, but for justice," he said.

Court revenue this year in fines totals $42,598.82, which is $21,000 more than the cost of operating Municipal Court in 1960, as the process of collecting fines and costs is tightened.

Though "kidded" about wearing a robe when he first became judge, Judge Chertoff said "this makes for a good impression and I find that most Ohio judges are also doing it."

After tightening the rules of trusteeships, which were a "lax proposition" before he took office, the court has sent out $8,000 in checks this year—more than in the last 10 years, Atty. Chertoff said.

Judge Chertoff was introduced by Frank A. Dawson, program chairman. Guests included Wilbur Harmon, clerk, and Wilbur Taylor, bailiff, of Municipal Court. George Hargraves, president, presided.

Palestine Man Cited For Car-Truck Mishap

Angus Gillis, 64, of 78 French St., East Palestine, was cited after his car collided with an oncoming truck on Route 165 just east of East Palestine at 12:20 a. m. today.

Man Receives Burns In Laundromat Blaze

An elderly man was slightly burned Tuesday evening when heat from a washer at the Speedy Wash, a self-service laundromat in Midland, caused a plastic clothes basket to catch fire.

About 15 volunteer firemen of Company 1 answered the call at 5:12 p. m. The fire was put out with extinguishers. There was much smoke but no damage.

Corrective measures will be taken to prevent such a fire again, D'Itri said.

Council Seeks Rail Crossing Safety Probe

Prompted by a car-train crash early Monday morning that cost the life of one Pennsylvania man and injured another, City Council Tuesday night called for a full-scale investigation into the lack of a night-shift guard at the Walnut St. railroad crossing.

The councilmen, acting unanimously at a special meeting, asked Safety-Service Director Lee Copenhaver and Solicitor Joseph W. Cooper to "make an investigation and report fully" at the next regular session Monday night.

Reporting for the street committee, Councilman John Kelly, chairman, pointed out there is no crossing guard on duty at Walnut St. between 11 p. m. and 7 a. m. The fatal accident Monday occurred about 20 minutes before the crossing guard was to go on duty.

"We are dissatisfied with the safety measures at that crossing," Kelly asserted. "There are no flasher lights—nothing—from 11 at night until 7 in the morning. It definitely is a death trap. Several cars have been hit at this crossing, but I believe the fatality Monday was one of the first."

Kelly also declared that a motorist southbound on Walnut St. and headed for the River Rd. has a limited field of vision up the tracks because of a curve. He estimated that a driver can see the tracks to the eastward only about 300 feet.

"We don't have signals at the Walnut St. crossing — only at Broadway and Mulberry St.," Councilman John Melvin said. "There are gates at the Walnut St. crossing, but no one is on duty to operate them at night."

"I firmly believe the Pennsylvania Railroad should be forced to initiate safety precautions on all its crossings within the city," Melvin added. When the Walnut St. guard is off duty, the only warning motorists received of a train's approach is a bell which rings at the adjoining Broadway crossing, he said.

"If the railroad thinks more of a dollar than a human life, they can expect trouble from me," Councilman Donald Hancock said.

Councilman Clifford Cooper declared that trains go through East End "at a high rate of speed."

"I know they exceed the speed limit," he added.

Councilmen Robert Laughlin and Donald Smith remarked that they concurred with the remarks of the other members asking an investigation.

Inquest Launched Over Crossing Death

Columbiana County Coroner Dr. William Kolozsi was conducting an inquest today at City Hospital concerning the death of Gerald Murray, 37, of Rockwood, Pa., fatally injured Monday morning when a car in which he was a passenger was struck at the Pennsylvania Railroad Co. crossing at Walnut St.

Mr. Murray died Monday afternoon, about 6 hours after the 1950 sedan was struck at the crossing, injuring the driver, Paul Clevenger, 23, of Markleton, Pa., who is in "fair" condition at City Hospital with head, arm and leg injuries.

Some 1,000 feet of track was damaged, but only about 100 feet received heavy damage, it was reported.

The derailment occurred just east of the E. Main St. crossing extending further east to the Saline Oil Co. bulk plant.

The long train blocked the E. Main St. crossing for a while, but it was then uncoupled into sections and the rear cars and locomotive units took the sections back toward Canton.

The three forward locomotive units were moved on to Mingo.

B. F. Dean of Mingo Junction was the engineer of the forward unit, and R. M. Warnock of Mingo was engineer of the rear unit.

H. F. Carter of Canton, trainmaster, said the cause of the derailment is unknown.

Traffic was being re-routed or held up pending the clearing of the tracks.

The train had just stopped to cut out a car, and was pulling out again when the derailment took place. Had the train been moving at regular speed, damage would have been greater, a spokesman said.

Tax Valuation Airing Will Be Held Monday

LISBON — Complaints or opinions concerning real estate valuations or matters in Columbiana County will be aired at a public meeting of the County Board of Revision Monday morning at 10 at the Courthouse.

County Auditor Kenneth Bell said tax returns for 1960, to be collected in 1961, have been revised and the valuation computed and may be inspected at his office.

The hearing Monday is not related to the anticipated valuations which will result from the current reappraisal, but is a routine hearing required by law, along with a public notice each year.

The board includes Bell, Treasurer Vincent Judge and Prosecutor William Brokaw.

The three forward locomotive units were moved on to Mingo.

B. F. Dean of Mingo Junction was the engineer of the forward unit, and R. M. Warnock of Mingo was engineer of the rear unit.

H. F. Carter of Canton, trainmaster, said the cause of the derailment is unknown.

Traffic was being re-routed or held up pending the clearing of the tracks.

The train had just stopped to cut out a car, and was pulling out again when the derailment took place. Had the train been moving at regular speed, damage would have been greater, a spokesman said.

Tax Valuation Airing Will Be Held Monday

LISBON — Complaints or opinions concerning real estate valuations or matters in Columbiana County will be aired at a public meeting of the County Board of Revision Monday morning at 10 at the Courthouse.

County Auditor Kenneth Bell said tax returns for 1960, to be collected in 1961, have been revised and the valuation computed and may be inspected at his office.

The hearing Monday is not related to the anticipated valuations which will result from the current reappraisal, but is a routine hearing required by law, along with a public notice each year.

The board includes Bell, Treasurer Vincent Judge and Prosecutor William Brokaw.

Something To Choose Between

As leader of the Republican party, Vice President Nixon can take no part in the presidential administration of his friend John Kennedy.

He would cease to be Republican leader if he did so. The No. 1 spokesman for the "loyal opposition" cannot put on another political hat and be Spokesman No. 39 for the party in power. That isn't the two-party system.

"Unity" achieved in the past, as when Henry L. Stimson and Frank Knox served in the wartime Cabinet under Franklin D. Rooservelt, was engaged in by men who held no party positions.

In the absence of a strong Republican leader in the Senate, Mr. Nixon must be "Mister Republican" for the next four years. Sen. Dirksen, the Republican leader in the upper house, and Rep. Halleck in the lower house are legislators, not policy-makers.

THESE THINGS are obvious to the vice president. They are obvious to people who try to understand the two-party system. They never can be obvious to people who don't like the two-party system, and there are too many of these for America's good.

They see no merit in opposition.

To them, "loyal opposition" sounds like a contradiction in terms.

When the late Sen. Robert A. Taft performed so ably as leader of the Republican opposition that he overshadowed the presidential candidates of his own party and ultimately loomed larger than Harry Truman, after Roosevelt's death loosened the bonds of the Democratic coalition, he was castigated and abused as an "obstructionist" by these people.

They are angry again. They will be even angrier in the months ahead when a "loyal opposition" forms against the incoming Kennedy administration.

They will make Mr. Nixon their target if he clashes with Mr. Kennedy. They will accuse him of impending progress. There will be an empty-headed hue and cry for "national unity."

It will be overlooked that the Soviet Union has "national unity," that Hitler's Germany, Mussolini's Italy and Tojo's Japan all had "national unity."

Cuba has "national unity." Red China has it. There is no merit in "national unity," it is just a polite name for the end of national freedom.

Republicans now are the minority party in the executive branch of the federal government as well as the legislative branch. Their point of view will be held by a minority of the Supreme Court before Mr. Kennedy leaves the White House.

Never was there greater need for a "loyal opposition."

Adlai E. Stevenson never had this kind of prestige as the defeated presidential candidate. Thomas E. Dewey didn't have it, nor Wendell Willkie, nor Alfred M. Landon, nor Herbert Hoover.

Vice President Nixon will not become involved in the presidency of Sen. Kennedy. He has more important work to do — to lead the opposition — to protect U.S. freedom.

George Washington Is On Duty

Those Americans who were worried during the recent presidential campaign about the so-called missile gap can breathe a little easier as of this date.

The submarine USS George Washington, packing 16 Polaris missiles, went on duty today.

The technical term is "on station," and the fact that its "on station" position cannot be pinpointed by anyone but the men who are running it is the great strength of the George Washington.

It probably is not by any means the "ultimate weapon" that military men have been seeking since war was first waged, but it is the closest thing to the ultimate weapon now available.

Powered by the latest in practical nuclear reactors, embodying the most maneuverable hull design, designed to be completely self-sufficient for months "on station," it is a roving base poised to launch at a moment's notice more destructive power than was rained upon the earth in all the bombs dropped during World War II.

The Russian who might be tempted to release his entire stock of missiles on the fixed bases and industrial centers of the United States must now stop to wonder where in the world the George Washington is.

And next month he will have two such bases to wonder about, for the USS Patrick Henry is scheduled to go "on station" then. Within a year the Russian triggerman will have five of these amazing submarines to consider.

The presence at sea today of the George Washington is a tribute to the ingenuity, the know-how and the hard labor of the United States. It is evidence that, despite its detractors at home and aboard, the United States is not ready to take a back seat to any nation.

It should make all Americans feel not only safer but prouder.

Heat Remains On

As promised some time ago, the police are continuing to put the heat on the numbers racket here.

The latest arrest Monday indicated that there will be no letup in the campaign to curb the activities of those with pencil and pad. The warning to tavern owners against harboring the writers fits in well with the cleanup.

The only way the racket can be curbed is by constant vigilance on the part of law enforcement agencies. The local police are applying the pressure which can do the job.

The Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

The oddest proposal of the recent campaign was that Ike, Harry Truman and Herbert Hoover be named to go to the satellite countries as a group to boost the U.S. prestige, high, low or medium. It must have taken a few years off the life span of all three. The mere suggestion may have sent Ike to the Gettysberg cellar with a cry of "oh, no!" and caused Herbert to order the elevator man to carry him by his Waldorf Towers floor up through the roof.

What it did to Harry is anybody's guess, since he isn't easily floored by the idea of being a human firecracker, nationally or overseas.

All three men deserve better from the American people. They rate peaceful restful periods in their careers, although you might bring on a war by suggesting to Mr. Truman that he needed any relaxation whatever.

It would be hard getting this trip off the ground in one unit, even if all were willing.

MONEY TOTALING $44,000 was stolen from safe on liner United States. Maybe somebody wanted to go all out to win the ship's pool. Or perhaps somebody said, "I hate these calm passages. I love a heavy roll."

RHYME FOR TEACHER-STRIKES

Mary had a little lamb,
It followed everywhere;
But when it reached the red schoolhouse,
There was nobody there.

The electronics calculators on election night could set back mechanical computers for years. They were so wrong at times that we thought electric brains would be needed to find out what was the matter.

Betty Furness, we see, has quit opening and closing iceboxes. Always an election night feature, she has been doing it for many years and now wishes to enter a new field on TV. She has done a great job and deserves a field where there is warmth rather than ice cubes.

VOLLMANN—26 nov 15 lbylyx . . . . . .
PHILLIPS NO. 4 . . .ed pg —15 EMS . . . . .

Our man for secretary of the treasury is Joe Kennedy, the president-elect's dad. He could make up all the deficits, keep the budget balanced and fight dollar depreciation as few men in the country could. With him on the job we could shake off the fear that Europe would get too much of our gold.

The country had better go easy on those election recounts. America will really have a war on its hands if it takes the victory away from Jack Kennedy.

The street riots in Tokyo, the Congo and Algeria would be minor league in comparison. There are always charges of election frauds and in a race as close as this one everybody tries to get into the act.

If by an outside chance an electric-eye camera should be revealed as a necessity in the electoral college, it would be better for national peace if we let Kennedy occupy the White House Monday through Wednesday and shoulder all the blame for world troubles, and allow Nixon to live there and take the hard knocks through Saturday. Jacqueline and Pat could take over on Sunday.

In naming Allan Dulles to stay on the job as head of the Central Intelligence Agency, Jack Kennedy indicated he wanted to be kept up to date on Russian plans to butter him up by using greeting cards and congratulations notes as secret weapons.

In keeping J. Edgar Hoover at the post he may have indicated that, because of youthfulness of the new administration, he warmly supports Hoover's constant attention to juvenile problems.

Kennedy will be America's first "From Palm Beach to White House" president. He is a chief executive not afraid of being photographed in bathing trunks. And he will have the best suntan ever to figure in an inaugural.

HENRY FORD I must be turning over in his grave at the news that the new president of his company is a great reader of history books. Henry once got world headlines when he said studying history was the bunk and a waste of time.

The history he was talking about went out with Lizzie.

There's so much history being made these days that it's coming off production lines just like autos, and in more shapes, sizes and colors.

The Kennedy-Nixon vote was closer than the Maris-Mantle player vote. Amazing thing is that Jack Kennedy, with his bushy head, should win only by a hair. The year 1960 will go down as a great one for the Kennedys, the Pittsburgh Pirates and leprechauns.

The yak is an extremely useful animal to the natives of Tibet. Looking rather like a huge, untidy bisson with its shaggy, dark brown coat which is often long enough to trail on the ground, the yak is used as a work animal, for milk, butter, meat, and leather.

Heavy Saddlebags

Labor Looks For Kennedy Aid

By Victor Riesel

Long before Hyannis Port there was McKeesport. In that old steel town, two young fellows did a double before a small audience.

Victor Riesel

It was the first in a series of debates. There were to be four others. But not for another 13 years.

Things were said by the two fellows — Jack Kennedy and Dick Nixon — that April 21, 1947, which will make history next year.

The profundities of that vintage year will answer the questions raised at two high level labor conferences — rather private ones — in Washington and New York some 48 and 72 hours after the polls closed.

Mostly those questions rolled into the big one: "We delivered to Jack Kennedy; what do we want him to deliver to us — and will he?"

The McKeesport debate resulted from a quest by forum directors there for two young congressmen who "had the brightest political future."

The local folk wanted a two-sided discussion of Fred Hartley's labor bill, later part of the Taft-Hartley Act.

KENNEDY AND NIXON came, for, as members of the House Labor Committee, they differed.

The 34-year-old Republican said, in effect, that recent laws had been hitting business and that the unions were growing powerful.

The 29-year-old Hyannis Port hopeful retorted, "This bill would strike down the union shop and eliminate industrywide bargaining and collective bargaining . . . (and it would) fire the first shot in the war to end labor peace."

Those words, if I can borrow a phrase, were prophetic. As President, Kennedy's initial move on the labor front will be the creation of a special national labor-conference. This was first suggested by George Meany and special AFL-CIO counsel Arthur Goldberg (who may yet become attorney general).

Industry can hardly be described as passionate over the thought. But President-elect Kennedy will create such a peacetime labor-management board and expect it to head off strike crises, especially on the auto front.

That would take the heat off the White House. If it failed, Kennedy would then ask Congress for the right to seize industries paralyzed by walkouts and run them under the American flag until the boys came marching in again voluntarily.

INDUSTRIALISTS are preparing to say loudly that such a board will simply be running interference for the White House, which will be carrying the ball for the big unions.

On the legislative front, labor will tell Kennedy's liaison men that it believes in a two-package, two-step installment strategy.

In 1960, labor wants the "easy to get" social laws from the "unified" Democratic administration and Congress.

This means, somewhat in this order, government help to the jobless in areas hard hit by automation, foreign competition and the recession, which will deepen; then heavy government spending on mass construction projects across the land in a latter day WPA.

Along with this will be the drive for the medical aid to the aged bill; a new division somewhere on sub-Cabinet level devoted to all the problems of the elderly; extension of the minimum wage to millions more and a new goal of $1.50 an hour; special government grants for relocation of breadwinners' families hit by automation and the appointment of labor men to many departments including the Federal Reserve Board.

NEXT YEAR, labor will fight for — and expect the President's help in the campaign for — revision of the Taft-Hartley law to permit the closed shop, the ending of the right-to-work laws and the weakening of the enforcement powers of the secretary of labor under the Landrum-Griffin Act. Also, for the right to picket where they wish.

The guess is the labor leaders will have President Kennedy's support. Long before Hyannis Port, he was their friend.

They did not turn their backs on him. He will not be one of whom it will be said a friend in power is a friend lost.

Final Nails In Coffin

By William L. Ryan

Underground sources report the Communists are just about ready for a try at driving the final nails into the coffin of what once was free Cuba.

As the Cubans begin to lose their enthusiasm for government by mass meeting, the Communists are moving on two important fronts to consolidate their grip and substitute government by fear and suspicion.

First, the Communists are the inspiration for the organization by the Fidel Castro regime of what appears to be a secret police system closely fashioned on the lines of the Soviet MVD of Stalin's day.

This police setup is reported to go under the name of "0-24" for reasons known best to its organizers. A Czechoslovak Communist who himself is a veteran of the Soviet MVD service is reported to be in complete charge of whipping the network together, so that control eventually will be complete over every aspect of Cuban daily life.

When this organization is in final shape, the Communists can hope Cuba will be as much a satellite of the Soviet Union as Hungary, no matter what label the Castro regime chooses to pin upon itself.

Second, the Communists are quickly enveloping the leadership of the labor unions and taking steps to insure domination in that field. A new set of regulations, either already adopted or about to be adopted for the control of labor, has been drawn up by the executive of the Cuban Labor Confederation, which more and more is coming under Communist domination.

"Every labor center will become a garrison in which the working class will wage a battle for production," says one of the new regulations, foreshadowing a barracks-like existence for many a Cuban working man.

"In every plant and firm, vigilance must be increased to reduce the danger of acts of sabotage by the enemies of the revolution," says another, in an echo of the ever-wary leaders of the Communist world.

All these things have the ominous sound which has been heard many times before as other Democratic regimes in Europe and Asia were slowly suffocated.

Cuba today apparently swarms with agents of Communist nations. Their first objective appears to be what Cuban Communist chief Blas Roca has just demanded: "Solidifying the revolution." This means taking the revolution away from Fidel Castro, making him a figurehead for as long as his presence on the scene may be necessary, and running the country to suit the policies of Moscow.

Once the Communists rivet their totalitarian controls into place, the United States can expect a steady stream of trouble in many areas of Central and South America.

Through The Years

THIRTY YEARS AGO — About $25,000 was sought by the Community welfare Association to provide winter relief for needy persons in the East Liverpool district.

TWENTY YEARS AGO—The Lisbon Junior Chamber of Commerce sponsored a cleanup of papers and magazines and turned over the proceeds to the county betterment fund.

Alfred Wedgewood American Legion Post made plans to repair discarded toys for the annual Christmas "treats" for underprivileged East End children.

TEN YEARS AGO — Bobby Sullivan, right half back for two seasons, was elected honorary captain of the East Liverpool High School football team.

The work of Columbiana County's Welfare Department was described for the Kiwanis Club by Matthew A. Curry of East Liverpool, welfare director.

Public Notice

Much has been made in this series of little chats on public notice, or legal advertising, of the fact that the 50 states have thousands of such requirements. But so does Uncle Sam, too, in a great variety of ways. This is particularly true of government contracts.

Some time ago, for example, a Boston newspaper carried a notice advertising that sealed bids would be received by the "Engineering and Construction Director, Panama Canal Company Balboa Heights, Canal Zone." This was for the "excavation in the dry of approximately 250,000 of L. F. of material, and the drilling of approximately 200,000 of L. F. of blast holes, and the use of approximately 400,000 pounds of explosives to break up material which will be excavated and disposed of by the Panama Canal Co."

The Panama Canal Co., of course, is not the U. S. government. But the canal and the company that operates it are under government control and the canal, in effect, is government property.

Here, in short, was an advertisement appearing five times in a newspaper several thousand miles from the scene of the large scale excavation project for an arm of the federal government.

The Big Question

By David Lawrence

Kennedy's Age Brings Up Two Viewpoints

All over the world people are wondering what kind of president of the United States the 43-year-old senator from Massachusetts —John F. Kennedy — is going to make.

David Lawrence

The newspapers abroad refer to his youth as both an advantage and a disadvantage.

They argue that a young man has flexibility, rather than rigidity and that there is an inclination not to hesitate but to be bold and assertive.

There is wonder, on the other hand, how the new president will get along with the older and more experienced men in world affairs who head the governments of Great Britain, France, Italy, West Germany and the Soviet Union.

The truth is that John F. Kennedy is today a mystery to the leaders of the other countries of the world — an unknown quantity.

The comments of the European newspapers on the whole reflect also their unfamiliarity with public opinion in America. Indeed some of the so-called liberal newspapers are already expressing the hope that Red China will be recognized and that some of the firm positions taken by the Eisenhower administration will be abandoned.

It is natural for some Britishers to worry about keeping their colony in Hong Kong, with their big investments there. And this is perhaps one of the reasons why Britain has from the start recognized the Communist regime in Peiping.

But the recognition of Red China by the United States could mean the collapse of the whole allied position in Japan, Formosa, the Philippines and Southeast Asia, and could bring on the very war in the Far East that nobody in the West wants to see happen.

THE SPOKESMEN of the "left wing" in Britain, moreover, are already expecting President-elect Kennedy to take a softer line toward Russia and to pour out more American billions than ever before to all parts of the world. They are in for a surprise.

What most of the editorial writers in other countries do not realize is that in the United States there is a substantial agreement on the fundamental principles of our foreign policy and that, while there may be a change in method coming and an attempt to set forth American ideals more vigorously, the end result will not be any real shift in the direction of American policies abroad.

The mere fact that the heads of governments and the newspapers overseas are in such an inquiring mood about the new president of the United States proves how important America is to them all.

Some newspapers and officials abroad speak of America as having elected not only a new president but "a new leader of the free world." Certainly it doesn't look as if the "prestige" of the United States is so low, after all, despite the disparaging speeches made on this point during the recent campaign.

Perhaps the most important aftermath of the election is that there are so many pressures for a change in American foreign policy being built up abroad. Nor is the gravity of the whole situation entirely confined to the diplomatic policy aspects.

THE GUARDIAN, an independent daily in Manchester, England, says:

"Looking the facts full in the face, one cannot avoid a fear that Sen. Kennedy, when he takes office on Jan. 20, may well have a major currency crisis on his hands even before the next Berlin hurricane blows up.

"If the confidence crisis which is not quickly stopped, it can produce the most disruptive crisis which the West has experienced since the last war."

This impression, of course, is due to the costly programs on the social welfare side which Sen. Kennedy promised in his campaign speeches.

The British have been reading that there was a singular lack of demagoguery in the American campaign. Someday they will have to be told the truth — that there was considerable demagoguery, after all, and that Mr. Kennedy isn't going to carry out a good many of the promises he made to spend money for social welfare which could upset the national budget and the position of the dollar or the price of gold.

A financial columnist in the Financial Times of London thinks a currency crisis may be coming but believes it can be averted. He says:

"It is not difficult to see that, if the decline in world confidence in the dollar were to continue during this phase, Washington might find itself coming under strong pressure to take quick decisions . . . . however, the fact that Sen. Kennedy has stressed that he has no thoughts about devaluing the dollar may itself help to avert a flight from it by private and central-bank holders in the period before he takes office. . . ."

ONE THING is clear — there is urgent need for immediate contact by President-elect Kennedy with President Eisenhower and Secretary of the Treasury Anderson.

Early meetings and decisions are necessary if a real crisis in the dollar abroad is to be avoided. There are many things to be discussed between the outgoing and incoming administrations that concern the flow of gold, the unfavorable balance of payments between the United States and other countries, and the over-all effect on the price of the dollar in the currency exchanges of the world.

Battle Of The Ballots

By Truman Twill

My eyes bug out and my ears flap at the prescience of people who can look inside voters' heads, see their tickers and foretell the outcome of elections.

Their trick is no better than that of experts who look backward when the election is over and tell you what made voters do what they did. They are telling us women were heavy for Richard Nixon. How would they know that?

During the campaign, word was around that the female breath was coming in short pants for John Kennedy. Observers who traveled with both candidates noted an emotional wallop on women in Kennedy crowds that would have done credit to an old-time matinee idol, or a new-time disk dervish.

The popular analysis of the 1960 voting will be that women went heavy for Nixon. There being more women to vote than men, that could account for his huge popular vote, because there is no question about it that Kennedy did fine. He won.

Personally, I think the issue as women may have thought of it wasn't between men but between two potential conditions—status quo ante bellum and status quo post bellum.

Nixon became the campaign symbol of things as they never had been before trouble began and Kennedy became the symbol of things as they never would be afterward. Nixon stood for a return to old-time perfection and Kennedy stood for a quest in search of perfection.

Women have an eye to security. This is intrinsic in their psychology. If anything upsets their world, women look forward to danger and grief. Everything they do is conditioned by fear of change for the worse.

They tend to be conservative. At the very least, they tend to be moderate. Women think about schools. Men think about building freeways. Women talk about cleaning up the slums. Men talk about bulldozing them. Men and women do not see eye-to-eye.

The funniest Election Day story I know is about a working associate who got up on the morning of Nov. 8 feeling lousy. He dragged himself to work only because he was determined to prove he was strong enough to leave the nest to cast a vote for John F. Kennedy and that famed Texas legislator, Lyndon Baines Johnson.

The effort was too much. He languished on the job and was forced to return home to his bed, where he still lay in pain when his missus said it was time, hup-hup, to go exercise the old franchise and she would deliver the body.

He was too sick to make it, and his malaise was redoubled by the knowledge that his roommate was hell-bent on voting for Richard Nixon and that most handsome of the dying breed of rugged individualists—Henry Cabot Lodge.

When she returned and announced she had carried out her intentions and chortled over the way fate had kept the old man from canceling her vote, the fellow was inconsolable.

All over the United States, husbands and wives split their votes in the 1960 presidential election. It's a growing practice. It's talked about far oftener than it was when women proverbially voted the way their husbands told them to, or didn't vote at all.

Me, I'd divide voters the way they're inclined to divide naturally, between men and women. The boys vs. the girls. The Battle of the Sexes at the ballot box. It's a natural.

There are eight national forests in Arizona — Apache, Coconino, Coronado, Gila, Kaibab, Prescott, Sitgreaves and Tonto.

In the absence of a strong Republican leader in the Senate, Mr. Nixon must be "Mister Republican" for the next four years. Sen. Dirksen, the Republican leader in the upper house, and Rep. Halleck in the lower house are legislators, not policy-makers.

THESE THINGS are obvious to the vice president. They are obvious to people who try to understand the two-party system. They never can be obvious to people who don't like the two-party system, and there are too many of these for America's good.

They see no merit in opposition.

To them, "loyal opposition" sounds like a contradiction in terms.

When the late Sen. Robert A. Taft performed so ably as leader of the Republican opposition that he overshadowed the presidential candidates of his own party and ultimately loomed larger than Harry Truman, after Roosevelt's death loosened the bonds of the Democratic coalition, he was castigated and abused as an "obstructionist" by these people.

They are angry again. They will be even angrier in the months ahead when a "loyal opposition" forms against the incoming Kennedy administration.

They will make Mr. Nixon their target if he clashes with Mr. Kennedy. They will accuse him of impending progress. There will be an empty-headed hue and cry for "national unity."

It will be overlooked that the Soviet Union has "national unity," that Hitler's Germany, Mussolini's Italy and Tojo's Japan all had "national unity."

Cuba has "national unity." Red China has it. There is no merit in "national unity," it is just a polite name for the end of national freedom.

Republicans now are the minority party in the executive branch of the federal government as well as the legislative branch. Their point of view will be held by a minority of the Supreme Court before Mr. Kennedy leaves the White House.

Never was there greater need for a "loyal opposition."

He is the second most important figure in the U.S. government by virtue of his tremendous vote on Nov. 8.

Adlai E. Stevenson never had this kind of prestige as the defeated presidential candidate. Thomas E. Dewey didn't have it, nor Wendell Willkie, nor Alfred M. Landon, nor Herbert Hoover.

Vice President Nixon will not become involved in the presidency of Sen. Kennedy. He has more important work to do — to lead the opposition — to protect U.S. freedom.

George Washington Is On Duty

Those Americans who were worried during the recent presidential campaign about the so-called missile gap can breathe a little easier as of this date.

The submarine USS George Washington, packing 16 Polaris missiles, went on duty today.

The technical term is "on station," and the fact that its "on station" position cannot be pinpointed by anyone but the men who are running it is the great strength of the George Washington.

It probably is not by any means the "ultimate weapon" that military men have been seeking since war was first waged, but it is the closest thing to the ultimate weapon now available.

Powered by the latest in practical nuclear reactors, embodying the most maneuverable hull design, designed to be completely self-sufficient for months "on station," it is a roving base poised to launch at a moment's notice more destructive power than was rained upon the earth in all the bombs dropped during World War II.

The Russian who might be tempted to release his entire stock of missiles on the fixed bases and industrial centers of the United States must now stop to wonder where in the world the George Washington is.

And next month he will have two such bases to wonder about, for the USS Patrick Henry is scheduled to go "on station" then. Within a year the Russian triggerman will have five of these amazing submarines to consider.

The presence at sea today of the George Washington is a tribute to the ingenuity, the know-how and the hard labor of the United States. It is evidence that, despite its detractors at home and aboard, the United States is not ready to take a back seat to any nation.

It should make all Americans feel not only safer but prouder.

Heat Remains On

As promised some time ago, the police are continuing to put the heat on the numbers racket here.

The latest arrest Monday indicated that there will be no letup in the campaign to curb the activities of those with pencil and pad. The warning to tavern owners against harboring the writers fits in well with the cleanup.

The only way the racket can be curbed is by constant vigilance on the part of law enforcement agencies. The local police are applying the pressure which can do the job.

The Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

The oddest proposal of the recent campaign was that Ike, Harry Truman and Herbert Hoover be named to go to the satellite countries as a group to boost the U.S. prestige, high, low or medium. It must have taken a few years off the life span of all three. The mere suggestion may have sent Ike to the Gettysberg cellar with a cry of "oh, no!" and caused Herbert to order the elevator man to carry him by his Waldorf Towers floor up through the roof.

What it did to Harry is anybody's guess, since he isn't easily floored by the idea of being a human firecracker, nationally or overseas.

All three men deserve better from the American people. They rate peaceful restful periods in their careers, although you might bring on a war by suggesting to Mr. Truman that he needed any relaxation whatever.

It would be hard getting this trip off the ground in one unit, even if all were willing.

MONEY TOTALING $44,000 was stolen from safe on liner United States. Maybe somebody wanted to go all out to win the ship's pool. Or perhaps somebody said, "I hate these calm passages. I love a heavy roll."

It followed everywhere;
But when it reached the red schoolhouse,
There was nobody there.

The electronics calculators on election night could set back mechanical computers for years. They were so wrong at times that we thought electric brains would be needed to find out what was the matter.

Betty Furness, we see, has quit opening and closing iceboxes. Always an election night feature, she has been doing it for many years and now wishes to enter a new field on TV. She has done a great job and deserves a field where there is warmth rather than ice cubes.

VOLLMANN—26 nov 15 lbylyx .. .. PHILLIPS NO. 4 ...ed pg —15 EMS .. .. ..

Our man for secretary of the treasury is Joe Kennedy, the president-elect's dad. He could make up all the deficits, keep the budget balanced and fight dollar depreciation as few men in the country could. With him on the job we could shake off the fear that Europe would get too much of our gold.

The country had better go easy on those election recounts. America will really have a war on its hands if it takes the victory away from Jack Kennedy.

The street riots in Tokyo, the Congo and Algeria would be minor league in comparison. There are always charges of election frauds and in a race as close as this one everybody tries to get into the act.

If by an outside chance an electric-eye camera should be revealed as a necessity in the electoral college, it would be better for national peace if we let Kennedy occupy the White House Monday through Wednesday and shoulder all the blame for world troubles, and allow Nixon to live there and take the hard knocks through Saturday. Jacqueline and Pat could take over on Sunday.

In naming Allan Dulles to stay on the job as head of the Central Intelligence Agency, Jack Kennedy indicated he wanted to be kept up to date on Russian plans to butter him up by using greeting cards and congratulations notes as secret weapons.

In keeping J. Edgar Hoover at the post he may have indicated that, because of youthfulness of the new administration, he warmly supports Hoover's constant attention to juvenile problems.

Kennedy will be America's first "From Palm Beach to White House" president. He is a chief executive not afraid of being photographed in bathing trunks. And he will have the best suntan ever to figure in an inaugural.

HENRY FORD I must be turning over in his grave at the news that the new president of his company is a great reader of history books. Henry once got world headlines when he said studying history was the bunk and a waste of time.

The history he was talking about went out with Lizzie.

There's so much history being made these days that it's coming off production lines just like autos, and in more shapes, sizes and colors.

The Kennedy-Nixon vote was closer than the Maris-Mantle player vote. Amazing thing is that Jack Kennedy, with his bushy head, should win only by a hair. The year 1960 will go down as a great one for the Kennedys, the Pittsburgh Pirates and leprechauns.

The yak is an extremely useful animal to the natives of Tibet. Looking rather like a huge, untidy bisson with its shaggy, dark brown coat which is often long enough to trail on the ground, the yak is used as a work animal, for milk, butter, meat, and leather.

Labor Looks For Kennedy Aid

By Victor Riesel

Long before Hyannis Port there was McKeesport. In that old steel town, two young fellows did a double before a small audience.

Victor Riesel

It was the first in a series of debates. There were to be four others. But not for another 13 years.

Things were said by the two fellows — Jack Kennedy and Dick Nixon — that April 21, 1947, which will make history next year.

The profundities of that vintage year will answer the questions raised at two high level labor conferences — rather private ones — in Washington and New York some 48 and 72 hours after the polls closed.

Mostly those questions rolled into the big one: "We delivered to Jack Kennedy; what do we want him to deliver to us — and will he?"

The McKeesport debate resulted from a quest by forum directors there for two young congressmen who "had the brightest political future."

The local folk wanted a two-sided discussion of Fred Hartley's labor bill, later part of the Taft-Hartley Act.

KENNEDY AND NIXON came, for, as members of the House Labor Committee, they differed.

The 34-year-old Republican said, in effect, that recent laws had been hitting business and that the unions were growing powerful.

The 29-year-old Hyannis Port hopeful retorted, "This bill would strike down the union shop and eliminate industrywide bargaining and collective bargaining . . . (and it would) fire the first shot in the war to end labor peace."

Those words, if I can borrow a phrase, were prophetic. As President, Kennedy's initial move on the labor front will be the creation of a special national labor-conference. This was first suggested by George Meany and special AFL-CIO counsel Arthur Goldberg (who may yet become attorney general).

Industry can hardly be described as passionate over the thought. But President-elect Kennedy will create such a peacetime labor-management board and expect it to head off strike crises, especially on the auto front.

That would take the heat off the White House. If it failed, Kennedy would then ask Congress for the right to seize industries paralyzed by walkouts and run them under the American flag until the boys came marching in again voluntarily.

INDUSTRIALISTS are preparing to say loudly that such a board will simply be running interference for the White House, which will be carrying the ball for the big unions.

On the legislative front, labor will tell Kennedy's liaison men that it believes in a two-package, two-step installment strategy.

In 1960, labor wants the "easy to get" social laws from the "unified" Democratic administration and Congress.

This means, somewhat in this order, government help to the jobless in areas hard hit by automation, foreign competition and the recession, which will deepen; then heavy government spending on mass construction projects across the land in a latter day WPA.

Along with this will be the drive for the medical aid to the aged bill; a new division somewhere on sub-Cabinet level devoted to all the problems of the elderly; extension of the minimum wage to millions more and a new goal of $1.50 an hour; special government grants for relocation of breadwinners' families hit by automation and the appointment of labor men to many departments including the Federal Reserve Board.

NEXT YEAR, labor will fight for — and expect the President's help in the campaign for — revision of the Taft-Hartley law to permit the closed shop, the ending of the right-to-work laws and the weakening of the enforcement powers of the secretary of labor under the Landrum-Griffin Act. Also, for the right to picket where they wish.

The guess is the labor leaders will have President Kennedy's support. Long before Hyannis Port, he was their friend.

They did not turn their backs on him. He will not be one of whom it will be said a friend in power is a friend lost.

Final Nails In Coffin

By William L. Ryan

Underground sources report the Communists are just about ready for a try at driving the final nails into the coffin of what once was free Cuba.

As the Cubans begin to lose their enthusiasm for government by mass meeting, the Communists are moving on two important fronts to consolidate their grip and substitute government by fear and suspicion.

First, the Communists are the inspiration for the organization by the Fidel Castro regime of what appears to be a secret police system closely fashioned on the lines of the Soviet MVD of Stalin's day.

This police setup is reported to go under the name of "0-24" for reasons known best to its organizers. A Czechoslovak Communist who himself is a veteran of the Soviet MVD service is reported to be in complete charge of whipping the network together, so that control eventually will be complete over every aspect of Cuban daily life.

When this organization is in final shape, the Communists can hope Cuba will be as much a satellite of the Soviet Union as Hungary, no matter what label the Castro regime chooses to pin upon itself.

Second, the Communists are quickly enveloping the leadership of the labor unions and taking steps to insure domination in that field. A new set of regulations, either already adopted or about to be adopted for the control of labor, has been drawn up by the executive of the Cuban Labor Confederation, which more and more is coming under Communist domination.

"Every labor center will become a garrison in which the working class will wage a battle for production," says one of the new regulations, foreshadowing a barracks-like existence for many a Cuban working man.

"In every plant and firm, vigilance must be increased to reduce the danger of acts of sabotage by the enemies of the revolution," says another, in an echo of the ever-wary leaders of the Communist world.

All these things have the ominous sound which has been heard many times before as other Democratic regimes in Europe and Asia were slowly suffocated.

Cuba today apparently swarms with agents of Communist nations. Their first objective appears to be what Cuban Communist chief Blas Roca has just demanded: "Solidifying the revolution." This means taking the revolution away from Fidel Castro, making him a figurehead for as long as his presence on the scene may be necessary, and running the country to suit the policies of Moscow.

Once the Communists rivet their totalitarian controls into place, the United States can expect a steady stream of trouble in many areas of Central and South America.

Through The Years

THIRTY YEARS AGO — About $25,000 was sought by the Community welfare Association to provide winter relief for needy persons in the East Liverpool district.

TWENTY YEARS AGO—The Lisbon Junior Chamber of Commerce sponsored a cleanup of papers and magazines and turned over the proceeds to the county betterment fund.

Alfred Wedgewood American Legion Post made plans to repair discarded toys for the annual Christmas "treats" for underprivileged East End children.

TEN YEARS AGO — Bobby Sullivan, right half back for two seasons, was elected honorary captain of the East Liverpool High School football team.

The work of Columbiana County's Welfare Department was described for the Kiwanis Club by Matthew A. Curry of East Liverpool, welfare director.

Public Notice

Much has been made in this series of little chats on public notice, or legal advertising, of the fact that the 50 states have thousands of such requirements. But so does Uncle Sam, too, in a great variety of ways. This is particularly true of government contracts.

Some time ago, for example, a Boston newspaper carried a notice advertising that sealed bids would be received by the "Engineering and Construction Director, Panama Canal Company Balboa Heights, Canal Zone." This was for the "excavation in the dry of approximately 250,000 of L. F. of material, and the drilling of approximately 200,000 of L. F. of blast holes, and the use of approximately 400,000 pounds of explosives to break up material which will be excavated and disposed of by the Panama Canal Co."

The Panama Canal Co., of course, is not the U. S. government. But the canal and the company that operates it are under government control and the canal, in effect, is government property.

Here, in short, was an advertisement appearing five times in a newspaper several thousand miles from the scene of the large scale excavation project for an arm of the federal government.

The Big Question

By David Lawrence

Kennedy's Age Brings Up Two Viewpoints

All over the world people are wondering what kind of president of the United States the 43-year-old senator from Massachusetts —John F. Kennedy — is going to make.

David Lawrence

The newspapers abroad refer to his youth as both an advantage and a disadvantage.

They argue that a young man has flexibility, rather than rigidity and that there is an inclination not to hesitate but to be bold and assertive.

There is wonder, on the other hand, how the new president will get along with the older and more experienced men in world affairs who head the governments of Great Britain, France, Italy, West Germany and the Soviet Union.

The truth is that John F. Kennedy is today a mystery to the leaders of the other countries of the world — an unknown quantity.

The comments of the European newspapers on the whole reflect also their unfamiliarity with public opinion in America. Indeed some of the so-called liberal newspapers are already expressing the hope that Red China will be recognized and that some of the firm positions taken by the Eisenhower administration will be abandoned.

It is natural for some Britishers to worry about keeping their colony in Hong Kong, with their big investments there. And this is perhaps one of the reasons why Britain has from the start recognized the Communist regime in Peiping.

But the recognition of Red China by the United States could mean the collapse of the whole allied position in Japan, Formosa, the Philippines and Southeast Asia, and could bring on the very war in the Far East that nobody in the West wants to see happen.

THE SPOKESMEN of the "left wing" in Britain, moreover, are already expecting President-elect Kennedy to take a softer line toward Russia and to pour out more American billions than ever before to all parts of the world. They are in for a surprise.

What most of the editorial writers in other countries do not realize is that in the United States there is a substantial agreement on the fundamental principles of our foreign policy and that, while there may be a change in method coming and an attempt to set forth American ideals more vigorously, the end result will not be any real shift in the direction of American policies abroad.

The mere fact that the heads of governments and the newspapers overseas are in such an inquiring mood about the new president of the United States proves how important America is to them all.

Some newspapers and officials abroad speak of America as having elected not only a new president but "a new leader of the free world." Certainly it doesn't look as if the "prestige" of the United States is so low, after all, despite the disparaging speeches made on this point during the recent campaign.

Perhaps the most important aftermath of the election is that there are so many pressures for a change in American foreign policy being built up abroad. Nor is the gravity of the whole situation entirely confined to the diplomatic policy aspects.

THE GUARDIAN, an independent daily in Manchester, England, says:

"Looking the facts full in the face, one cannot avoid a fear that Sen. Kennedy, when he takes office on Jan. 20, may well have a major currency crisis on his hands even before the next Berlin hurricane blows up.

"If the confidence crisis which is not quickly stopped, it can produce the most disruptive crisis which the West has experienced since the last war."

This impression, of course, is due to the costly programs on the social welfare side which Sen. Kennedy promised in his campaign speeches.

The British have been reading that there was a singular lack of demagoguery in the American campaign. Someday they will have to be told the truth — that there was considerable demagoguery, after all, and that Mr. Kennedy isn't going to carry out a good many of the promises he made to spend money for social welfare which could upset the national budget and the position of the dollar or the price of gold.

A financial columnist in the Financial Times of London thinks a currency crisis may be coming but believes it can be averted. He says:

"It is not difficult to see that, if the decline in world confidence in the dollar were to continue during this phase, Washington might find itself coming under strong pressure to take quick decisions .... however, the fact that Sen. Kennedy has stressed that he has no thoughts about devaluing the dollar may itself help to avert a flight from it by private and central-bank holders in the period before he takes office...."

ONE THING is clear — there is urgent need for immediate contact by President-elect Kennedy with President Eisenhower and Secretary of the Treasury Anderson.

Early meetings and decisions are necessary if a real crisis in the dollar abroad is to be avoided. There are many things to be discussed between the outgoing and incoming administrations that concern the flow of gold, the unfavorable balance of payments between the United States and other countries, and the over-all effect on the price of the dollar in the currency exchanges of the world.

Battle Of The Ballots

By Truman Twill

My eyes bug out and my ears flap at the prescience of people who can look inside voters' heads, see their tickers and foretell the outcome of elections.

Their trick is no better than that of experts who look backward when the election is over and tell you what made voters do what they did. They are telling us women were heavy for Richard Nixon. How would they know that?

During the campaign, word was around that the female breath was coming in short pants for John Kennedy. Observers who traveled with both candidates noted an emotional wallop on women in Kennedy crowds that would have done credit to an old-time matinee idol, or a new-time disk dervish.

The popular analysis of the 1960 voting will be that women went heavy for Nixon. There being more women to vote than men, that could account for his huge popular vote, because there is no question about it that Kennedy did fine. He won.

Personally, I think the issue as women may have thought of it wasn't between men but between two potential conditions—status quo ante bellum and status quo post bellum.

Nixon became the campaign symbol of things as they never had been before trouble began and Kennedy became the symbol of things as they never would be afterward. Nixon stood for a return to old-time perfection and Kennedy stood for a quest in search of perfection.

Women have an eye to security. This is intrinsic in their psychology. If anything upsets their world, women look forward to danger and grief. Everything they do is conditioned by fear of change for the worse.

They tend to be conservative. At the very least, they tend to be moderate. Women think about schools. Men think about building freeways. Women talk about cleaning up the slums. Men talk about bulldozing them. Men and women do not see eye-to-eye.

The funniest Election Day story I know is about a working associate who got up on the morning of Nov. 8 feeling lousy. He dragged himself to work only because he was determined to prove he was strong enough to leave the nest to cast a vote for John F. Kennedy and that famed Texas legislator, Lyndon Baines Johnson.

The effort was too much. He languished on the job and was forced to return home to his bed, where he still lay in pain when his missus said it was time, hup-hup, to go exercise the old franchise and she would deliver the body.

He was too sick to make it, and his malaise was redoubled by the knowledge that his roommate was hell-bent on voting for Richard Nixon and that most handsome of the dying breed of rugged individualists—Henry Cabot Lodge.

When she returned and announced she had carried out her intentions and chortled over the way fate had kept the old man from canceling her vote, the fellow was inconsolable.

All over the United States, husbands and wives split their votes in the 1960 presidential election. It's a growing practice. It's talked about far oftener than it was when women proverbially voted the way their husbands told them to, or didn't vote at all.

Me, I'd divide voters the way they're inclined to divide naturally, between men and women. The boys vs. the girls. The Battle of the Sexes at the ballot box. It's a natural.

There are eight national forests in Arizona — Apache, Coconino, Coronado, Gila, Kaibab, Prescott, Sitgreaves and Tonto.

Program To Be Sunday

Metropolitan Contralto To Open Concert Series

Jean Madeira, leading contralto of the Metropolitan Opera House in New York City and the Vienna State Opera in Austria, will appear for the first concert of the season of the Civic Music Association Sunday afternoon at 3 at the Westgate School auditorium.

JEAN MADEIRA
First Of Civic Music Artists.

A graduate of the Julliard School of Music in New York, she was Jean Browning, daughter of an Illinois-born coal miner. Her husband, Francis Madeira, whom she met at the school, is the conductor of the Rhode Island Philharmonic and a professor of music at Brown University at Providence, R. I.

Miss Madeira's mother was a music teacher and she started to play the piano as soon as she could reach the keyboard. At 12, she was soloist with the St. Louis Symphony Orchestra in Beethoven's C Minor Concerto. She went to New York some years later, with $100 saved from piano lessons, and took a teacher's advice to study singing. She studied on a scholarship in St. Louis and received another for the Julliard School.

Her fame rocketed in September 1955 in Vienna when she sang the title role of "Carmen." Among her favorite operas beside Carmen, are Aida, Il Travatore, Samson and Delilah and Wagner's "Ring" operas.

She made her television debut in New York on an Ed Sullivan Show. She claims concert singing is the greatest challenge an artist faces and at the same time, it offers the most exciting rewards. "In opera you have all the glamour, scenery, costumes and other performers to play to, but in concert, things are reduced to the musical fundamentals."

She is internationally known for her beautiful clothes, most of which are made in the Austrian capital. Many of her off-stage costumes are accented with earrings and bracelets of antique gold coins. She chooses large handbags and small headhugging hats.

Her annual American schedule includes over 50 recitals, concerts and opera engagements in the winter and early spring months.

Highway Need Study Filed

Work has been completed by Division 11 forces of the State Highway Department on gathering data for the highway needs study in the 7 counties making up the Division.

In a report to the State Highway Director Everett S. Preston on division progress of the needs study, Division Deputy Director, William P. McKenna said a total of 8,676 miles of highways, roads and streets were covered, inspected and analyzed by division personnel.

This total included 1,410 miles of state highways, 6,566 miles of county and township roads and about 700 miles of municipal streets.

McKenna said that excellent cooperation had been received from county, township and municipal officials in compiling the data. Officials in 77 villages, 11 cities and 113 townships in the 7-county area were contacted in connection with the program.

The data has been sent to a central processing office at the Highway Department's Columbus office. This information will be processed by electronic computers and the statistical data obtained will be presented to the next legislature. The legislature will use this information to determine the needs of the various governmental subdivisions for highways, roads and streets. This information will also be used to determine the financing necessary to improve these facilities to a satisfactory condition in order to handle traffic for the next 20 years.

In addition to analyzing the requirements for construction, the needs study covered necessary equipment, personnel, and financing to maintain the highways and streets over the next 20-year period.

Settlement Averts Television, Radio Performers Strike

NEW YORK (AP) — A settlement offer today averted a performers' strike—at least temporarily—against the four major television and radio networks. Terms were not disclosed.

Formal negotiations between the networks and the American Federation of Television and Radio Artists (AFTRA) ended 3½ hours after a midnight strike deadline.

AFTRA had sought a 10 per cent increase in performer fees and higher payments to performers for re-runs of commercials.

No formal contract extension or settlement announcement was made. But a union spokesman said members would continue working until the national boards had studied the proposals.

AFTRA has about 16,000 members who work for the American Broadcasting System, the Mutual Broadcasting System and the National Broadcasting Co. Mutual is a radio network only.

Goodrich Firm Plans $1.5 Million Expansion

CLEVELAND (AP)—The B. F. Goodrich Co. is planning a $1.5 million expansion at its suburban Brecksville research center, Brecksville City Council was told Tuesday night.

Robert B. Morris, plant manager, said the company wanted to build another laboratory on its 300-acre parcel. Morris asked council to vacate the easement of a road which runs through the Goodrich property. The road, which has not been built, would run through the projected building, he said.

Goodrich also is considering other developments in Brecksville, Morris said. He mentioned a figure of $4 million, but didn't indicate what would be built.

The request was referred to the planning commission, a customary procedure.

new precincts created" as a result of the heavy turnout last week, O'Hanlon commented. The total vote set a new record of over 48,000.

Meanwhile, the board has reminded all Courthouse officials-elect that they must obtain commissions signed by Gov. Michael V. DiSalle before they can qualify for office.

The board ordinarily serves as "go between" in obtaining the commissions. It receives the $5 fees from the officials-elect and passes the cash on to Secretary of State Ted W. Brown at Columbus, who issues the commissions.

However, the officials-elect also must file a sworn statement of their campaign expenditures before a certificate of election will be issued, O'Hanlon pointed out. The certificates of election are sent to Brown as authority for issuance of the commissions.

The board has certified the official count of all Nov. 8 election results except for the five-county 18th Congressional District and the four-county 20th-22nd State Senatorial District, O'Hanlon said. Returns from both districts are complete except for the Jefferson County figures, he said.

As the "most populous" county in both districts, the board in East Liverpool collects returns from the other counties and then certifies the figures to the secretary of state.

Michael Arthur, 2, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Arthur of Kelly Ave., Glenmoor, suffered an injury to the left elbow in a fall while climbing on a couch at home.

John W. Kelly, 10, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Kelly of New Cumberland R. D. 1, was treated for a fracture of the right wrist.

'Neigh,' Remarks Crime Group On Horse Witness

The West Virginia Crime Commission has branded as false a report that it issued a summons for a horse named Clara Sable.

F. Dean Nichols, chief counsel, insists that a summons that was to have been served by Hancock County sheriff Clayton H. Hobbs was for a man named Clare Lee Strable—not a Waterford Park filly.

The summons was among about six the sheriff could not serve because those persons named could not be located when the commission was seeking witnesses during hearings in Wheeling in September.

Hobbs said he sent the summons back to the commission in Charleston, reporting it carried the name Clara Sable, and the only Clara Sable he could find was a filly running at Waterford Park.

Nichols said the man was an employe of a night spot near Chester. The commission is investigating the apparent mixup of names.

Any decisions which are made now on such a long-range undertaking would have to be carried out by the next administration. Secretary of State Christian A. Drivers Penalized In Patrol Cases

Two drivers were fined $10 and costs each today in Municipal Court when they pleaded guilty to charges filed by the State Highway Patrol.

Donald R. Shaw, 1004 May St., was cited Tuesday on Route 30 for operating a 1949 model truck with defective brakes. Judge Samuel M. Chertoff suspended the fine on payment of the $6 costs and Shaw's promise to have the brakes repaired. An unemployed potter, Shaw said he has been working part-time as a trucker.

James McDowell of Wellsville R. D. 1 drew a penalty of $10 and costs on a charge of speeding 70 miles an hour in a 50-mile zone on the East Liverpool-Wellsville Rd. He was cited Sunday at 7:30 p.m.

Shaw told the judge he was hurrying to a church service after he was delayed by a flat tire.

FALSE TEETH That Loosen Need Not Embarrass

Many wearers of false teeth have suffered real embarrassment because their plate dropped, slipped or wobbled at just the wrong time. Do not live in fear of this happening to you. Just sprinkle a little FASTEETH, the alkaline (non-acid) powder, on your plates. Hold false teeth more firmly, so they feel more comfortable. Does not sour. Checks "plate odor breath". Get FASTEETH at drug counters everywhere.

A NOTE OF THANKS:

There are no words to fully describe my gratefulness to the people who supported me in our victory over the very fine and worthy opponent, Ed Suplee.

I will do, to the best of my ability, the job of Assessor as efficiently as I can, strictly for the betterment of Hancock County.

THANK YOU

Voting

new precincts created" as a result of the heavy turnout last week, O'Hanlon commented. The total vote set a new record of over 48,000.

Meanwhile, the board has reminded all Courthouse officials-elect that they must obtain commissions signed by Gov. Michael V. DiSalle before they can qualify for office.

The board ordinarily serves as "go between" in obtaining the commissions. It receives the $5 fees from the officials-elect and passes the cash on to Secretary of State Ted W. Brown at Columbus, who issues the commissions.

However, the officials-elect also must file a sworn statement of their campaign expenditures before a certificate of election will be issued, O'Hanlon pointed out. The certificates of election are sent to Brown as authority for issuance of the commissions.

The board has certified the official count of all Nov. 8 election results except for the five-county 18th Congressional District and the four-county 20th-22nd State Senatorial District, O'Hanlon said. Returns from both districts are complete except for the Jefferson County figures, he said.

As the "most populous" county in both districts, the board in East Liverpool collects returns from the other counties and then certifies the figures to the secretary of state.

'Neigh,' Remarks Crime Group On Horse Witness

The West Virginia Crime Commission has branded as false a report that it issued a summons for a horse named Clara Sable.

F. Dean Nichols, chief counsel, insists that a summons that was to have been served by Hancock County sheriff Clayton H. Hobbs was for a man named Clare Lee Strable—not a Waterford Park filly.

The summons was among about six the sheriff could not serve because those persons named could not be located when the commission was seeking witnesses during hearings in Wheeling in September.

Hobbs said he sent the summons back to the commission in Charleston, reporting it carried the name Clara Sable, and the only Clara Sable he could find was a filly running at Waterford Park.

Nichols said the man was an employe of a night spot near Chester. The commission is investigating the apparent mixup of names.

at a ministerial meeting of the NATO Council in Paris next month.

Any decisions which are made now on such a long-range undertaking would have to be carried out by the next administration. Secretary of State Christian A. Herter and others here therefore are waiting for some indication of views from President-elect John F. Kennedy before determining finally the line they will take at the council meeting.

Drivers Penalized In Patrol Cases

Two drivers were fined $10 and costs each today in Municipal Court when they pleaded guilty to charges filed by the State Highway Patrol.

Donald R. Shaw, 1004 May St., was cited Tuesday on Route 30 for operating a 1949 model truck with defective brakes. Judge Samuel M. Chertoff suspended the fine on payment of the $6 costs and Shaw's promise to have the brakes repaired. An unemployed potter, Shaw said he has been working part-time as a trucker.

James McDowell of Wellsville R. D. 1 drew a penalty of $10 and costs on a charge of speeding 70 miles an hour in a 50-mile zone on the East Liverpool-Wellsville Rd. He was cited Sunday at 7:30 p.m.

Shaw told the judge he was hurrying to a church service after he was delayed by a flat tire.

FALSE TEETH That Loosen Need Not Embarrass

Many wearers of false teeth have suffered real embarrassment because their plate dropped, slipped or wobbled at just the wrong time. Do not live in fear of this happening to you. Just sprinkle a little FASTEETH, the alkaline (non-acid) powder, on your plates. Hold false teeth more firmly, so they feel more comfortable. Does not sour. Checks "plate odor breath". Get FASTEETH at drug counters everywhere.

A NOTE OF THANKS:

There are no words to fully describe my gratefulness to the people who supported me in our victory over the very fine and worthy opponent, Ed Suplee.

I will do, to the best of my ability, the job of Assessor as efficiently as I can, strictly for the betterment of Hancock County.

THANK YOU

Council Action Sets Bids For Culvert Work

Council enacted legislation at a special meeting Tuesday night authorizing the administration to seek bids and sign a contract on construction of a new storm sewer culvert near Ralstons Crossing on the River Rd., a $50,000 project for which the city will be reimbursed entirely in federal funds.

The new sewer will replace an existing line which will be inadequate when completion of the Stratton dam raises the Ohio River's pool stage off East Liverpool.

First plans for the work were announced in August. At that time, Mayor Bert H. Goodballet pointed out that the city would let the contract, supervise the construction and pay for the work, but would be reimbursed for the entire cost of the job by the Army Corps of Engineers.

The new culvert will be constructed from an existing manhole in the River Rd. to the river. At present, water flows through the East End Run along State St. and then goes underground near the railroad underpass, flowing through a 7-foot arched culvert to the river.

The resolution cleared by Council contains an emergency clause, which means it will go into effect immediately. Without an emergency clause, there is a 30-day period before an ordinance or resolution becomes effective.

Safety-Service Director Lee Copenhaver, who attended the specia session, said he expects to issue the call for contractors' bids about Dec. 5.

Councilman Donald Hancock, president pro tem, conducted the session since President Charles Edwards is acting mayor while Mayor Goodballet is in Columbus on business. Councilman Norman Bucher was excused. The meeting opened with invocation by Edwards.

Snively sued for $100,000 for injuries to his son and $2,000 for expenses. The boy was struck by the defendant's auto.

The trial began Monday before Common Pleas Judge Joel H. Sharp and testimony was being taken when the agreement was reached.

Magnetic Storm Hits Short-Wave Communications

WASHINGTON (AP)—A worldwide magnetic storm — the most severe in at least 10 years—has disrupted short-wave radio communications for several days and is still continuing, a government scientist said today.

Such storms are caused by disturbances on the surface of the sun, commonly called sunspots.

James Weldon, head of the world warning agency of the National Bureau of Standards, said the storm has been particularly intense on the north Atlantic path of radio communications, the one linking New York, London, Washington and Paris.

But it also has affected radio transmissions across the Pacific, he said.

Weldon said the storm reached a peak of 268 on "a scale" used to rate severity. Anything over 50 on this scale is considered a major magnetic storm. The 268 figure was measured at a government magnetic observatory near Washington, and occurred on Nov. 13.

Weldon said the storm died down considerably after that, but surged up again Tuesday night.

Council Action Sets Bids For Culvert Work

Council enacted legislation at a special meeting Tuesday night authorizing the administration to seek bids and sign a contract on construction of a new storm sewer culvert near Ralstons Crossing on the River Rd., a $50,000 project for which the city will be reimbursed entirely in federal funds.

The new sewer will replace an existing line which will be inadequate when completion of the Stratton dam raises the Ohio River's pool stage off East Liverpool.

First plans for the work were announced in August. At that time, Mayor Bert H. Goodballet pointed out that the city would let the contract, supervise the construction and pay for the work, but would be reimbursed for the entire cost of the job by the Army Corps of Engineers.

The new culvert will be constructed from an existing manhole in the River Rd. to the river. At present, water flows through the East End Run along State St. and then goes underground near the railroad underpass, flowing through a 7-foot arched culvert to the river.

The resolution cleared by Council contains an emergency clause, which means it will go into effect immediately. Without an emergency clause, there is a 30-day period before an ordinance or resolution becomes effective.

Safety-Service Director Lee Copenhaver, who attended the specia session, said he expects to issue the call for contractors' bids about Dec. 5.

Action For $102,000 Settled Out Of Court

LISBON — An out-of-court settlement was reached Tuesday in the $102,000 suit filed by Ross Snively of Lisbon R. D. in behalf of his son, James Snively, 8, against Joseph Zehentbaurer of Hanoverton R. D.

Snively sued for $100,000 for injuries to his son and $2,000 for expenses. The boy was struck by the defendant's auto.

The trial began Monday before Common Pleas Judge Joel H. Sharp and testimony was being taken when the agreement was reached.

Magnetic Storm Hits Short-Wave Communications

WASHINGTON (AP)—A worldwide magnetic storm — the most severe in at least 10 years—has disrupted short-wave radio communications for several days and is still continuing, a government scientist said today.

Such storms are caused by disturbances on the surface of the sun, commonly called sunspots.

James Weldon, head of the world warning agency of the National Bureau of Standards, said the storm has been particularly intense on the north Atlantic path of radio communications, the one linking New York, London, Washington and Paris.

But it also has affected radio transmissions across the Pacific, he said.

Weldon said the storm reached a peak of 268 on "a scale" used to rate severity. Anything over 50 on this scale is considered a major magnetic storm. The 268 figure was measured at a government magnetic observatory near Washington, and occurred on Nov. 13.

Weldon said the storm died down considerably after that, but surged up again Tuesday night.

Financial Problems Are Discussed

Wellsville Council Sifts Many Items

Money problems occupied Wellsville City Council at its meeting Tuesday night.

Councilman Donald Miller, finance chairman, reported that Council will have to find some way to pay for additional police officers or pay overtime to those presently on the force because of the 40-hour police work week initiative ordinance adopted by the voters at the Nov. 8 election.

Miller said most of the councilmen have expressed a wish in the past that two patrolmen be in the cruiser virtually at all times. There are seven men on the force at present and this will be impossible unless we pay them overtime or hire more officers, he said.

Safety - Service Director William S. Robinson spoke from the audience and said Council has two alternatives — employ more men or offer less service.

COUNCILMAN Paul Nelson said the firemen and other city employes also probably will request a 40-hour week.

It was pointed out that any money derived from parking meters is earmarked for street improvement only.

Robinson said the parking meters were delivered Monday afternoon and will be installed Thursday. On his recommendation, Council ordered in legislation to pay a man $20 to collect the money from the meters and keep them in repair.

Councilman Clarence Cartwright left the meeting about 10 p. m. and Miller raised an objection.

He said "Mr. Cartwright has got up and left these meetings time and time again without the others knowing what is going on." Mrs. Mary Rahter, president, said Cartwright asked to be excused, but stated that "if the man can't fulfill his duties, he shouldn't run for office. He is not that busy that he can't stay."

Miller raised the question of voting on various issues. He said Cartwright should stay if everybody else can.

—:—

MRS. RAHTER said "he isn't living in Wellsville, but he says he is fulfilling his legal obligation by maintaining a mailing address."

Councilmen informally agreed to discuss the matter further when Cartwright was present.

Councilman Robert Taggart raised an objection to the city maintaining an old police cruiser instead of trading it in on a new one which is on order.

Robinson reported the cruiser will be used by himself and Mayor William J. Shoub for city business and will be kept by the safety department. Robinson said he does not intend to continue using his own car for city business as he has in the past.

Taggart said he doesn't want any service director or policeman using his own car, but also doesn't want to see another car "parked" and not being moved.

Robinson said he is not reimbursed any mileage for his car, but only receives some gasoline. Councilman William Stroble said the extra car will mean additional bills on repairs and upkeep.

The city was offered a top price of only $300 on a trade-in of the 1958 sedan. One firm offered $245 and the other about $125. Councilman Wilmer Ralston said he feels it would be better to keep the car because it would cost the city more to reimburse the director.

MRS. RAHTER said it just means more money spent. She asked Robinson why city trucks aren't sufficient for him to travel in. He asked if she would climb into a dirty truck with a good suit on. Miller said he wouldn't ride in any of the trucks because they are "deplorable." "The safety - service director has to meet people from all walks of life and should present a good appearance," he said.

At one period, Mrs. Rahter hit at Miller for speaking so sharply. Miller then accused her of talking too much during a meeting and not keeping control. He later apologized for hurting anyone's feelings, but said he planned to have his say.

Council also discussed the possibility of having a white center line painted on city streets. Stroble, street and light chairman, said the center line is needed badly.

Robinson objected to the move, claiming the paint will not stick to the streets in cold, damp weather.

Mrs. Rahter said she was told the job would cost $100. Robinson said the total would probably be closer to $400, figuring $125 for the state - owned machine and workers, costs for city workers, and cost of paint.

Stroble moved the work be done, but the motion died for lack of a second.

Council also gave second reading to legislation creating four-way stops at the intersections of Chester Ave. and Henry Ave., 17th St. and 18th St. Second reading also was given legislation prohibiting parking on the east side of 18th St. between Clark and Chester Aves.

It approved a request from the Pennsylvania Railroad to break 15 feet of curbing at 15th and Main Sts. to make a new entrance into the yards. The railroad said it plans to close the 13th St. entrance. There is a traffic light at 15th St. to aid workers moving out into traffic.

COUNCIL included in its motion that the permission does not indicate the city is relinquishing any claim it has to land along Main St. The city is attempting to regain title to a strip of land along Main which was used by the railroad for years. The deed says the land reverts back to the city when passenger service is discontinued, which was many years ago.

Council ordered legislation to create a three-way stop intersection at Buckeye Ave. and 15th St.

Stroble said repairs are needed to a board covering over a culvert at Chester Ave. and 20th St. Taggart suggest a galvanized pipe be installed and covered. Robinson is to investigate.

Cartwright raised the question of who is responsible for damages that might occur once a complaint on a hazardous condition has been received by the city. Solicitor William Bush said the city would be responsible if proven negligent.

Taggart reported that sewage was seeping through the cellar walls of a home on Arthur Ave. Robinson said that the sewer in the area was too deep for it to be leaking into the cellar and suggested that perhaps it is coming from a private sewer.

Nellie Echols of Township Line Rd. submitted a claim for $43.91 for damages to her car when a wheel dropped into a sewer catch basin. It was referred to the claims committee.

Legislation was ordered to rescind present legislation prohibiting parking in Cherry Alley. Councilman Aguin Bowling said it is the only alley in town where parking is prohibited and said that it affects him personally.

Robinson objected and suggested that if parking is permitted, that parking meters be installed.

Reports from Treasurer Charles W. Stewart and Auditor Edgar S. Davidson showed Oct. 31 balances of $129,636.31 and $129,848.40, respectively.

needed to operate the department next month.

"We are robbing Peter to pay Paul," he said in reference to transferring funds. "Many say the employes need a raise, but how can we do it when we have a department operating in the red."

Miller then threw the problem open for suggestions. Mrs. Rahter said she had no suggestion other than adopting the legislation which had been turned down previously. Miller said the contingency fund totaled $7,200 at the beginning of the year and now only totals $3,680. This was lowered when the transfer was made.

Councilman Aguin Bowling said the contingency fund should be saved for emergencies, such as snow removal or floods. "The refuse collection is a service and I don't believe people will discontinue it if the rates are increased," he commented.

Auditor Edgar S. Davidson said he could not meet the payroll if there wasn't enough money. He said more money probably will be needed for the cemetery fund by the end of the year.

Miller pointed out that $2,400 was appropriated at the beginning of the year to pay the costs of covering the city dump and that $2,300 has been spent to date. He said that the $6,000 appropriated for motors (gasoline, repairs, etc.) also has been depleted.

Councilman William Stroble said that more facts should be presented to the people. "It's a shame the papers don't carry more facts. The people think all we do is raise taxes and increase rates and throw parking meters at them."

Councilman Robert Taggart remarked that he wouldn't haul away his own garbage for $10 a month, but opposed the move.

Miller moved, seconded by Bowling, that the legislation again be considered. Councilmen Taggart, Clarence Cartwright and Stroble opposed the move and Councilmen Bowling, Miller and Wilmer Ralston voted for it. Mrs. Rahter broke the tie vote to have it reconsidered.

Mrs. Margaret Baldwin, clerk, then read the legislation. Further discussion followed. Miller suggested the refuse committee give more study to the proposal on the possibility of putting the charges on the tax duplicate whether or not the legislation passed.

Miller moved and Bowling seconded that the legislation be adopted on first reading. The voting went the same, with Mrs. Rahter again casting the vote to break the tie.

Bernard Ference of Clark Ave. spoke from the audience and said he hadn't heard anyone in the lower end of town complain about the move to increase the rates. Stroble said that was his ward and that he had received 10 telephone calls from persons objecting.

County Auditor Kenneth Bell was in the audience and was questioned on how much millage would be required to handle the department's expense. He said it probably would take about 4 mills, which would raise about $36,000 on full collection.

needed to operate the department next month.

"We are robbing Peter to pay Paul," he said in reference to transferring funds. "Many say the employes need a raise, but how can we do it when we have a department operating in the red."

Miller then threw the problem open for suggestions. Mrs. Rahter said she had no suggestion other than adopting the legislation which had been turned down previously. Miller said the contingency fund totaled $7,200 at the beginning of the year and now only totals $3,680. This was lowered when the transfer was made.

Councilman Aguin Bowling said the contingency fund should be saved for emergencies, such as snow removal or floods. "The refuse collection is a service and I don't believe people will discontinue it if the rates are increased," he commented.

Auditor Edgar S. Davidson said he could not meet the payroll if there wasn't enough money. He said more money probably will be needed for the cemetery fund by the end of the year.

Miller pointed out that $2,400 was appropriated at the beginning of the year to pay the costs of covering the city dump and that $2,300 has been spent to date. He said that the $6,000 appropriated for motors (gasoline, repairs, etc.) also has been depleted.

Councilman William Stroble said that more facts should be presented to the people. "It's a shame the papers don't carry more facts. The people think all we do is raise taxes and increase rates and throw parking meters at them."

Councilman Robert Taggart remarked that he wouldn't haul away his own garbage for $10 a month, but opposed the move.

Miller moved, seconded by Bowling, that the legislation again be considered. Councilmen Taggart, Clarence Cartwright and Stroble opposed the move and Councilmen Bowling, Miller and Wilmer Ralston voted for it. Mrs. Rahter broke the tie vote to have it reconsidered.

Mrs. Margaret Baldwin, clerk, then read the legislation. Further discussion followed. Miller suggested the refuse committee give more study to the proposal on the possibility of putting the charges on the tax duplicate whether or not the legislation passed.

Miller moved and Bowling seconded that the legislation be adopted on first reading. The voting went the same, with Mrs. Rahter again casting the vote to break the tie.

Bernard Ference of Clark Ave. spoke from the audience and said he hadn't heard anyone in the lower end of town complain about the move to increase the rates. Stroble said that was his ward and that he had received 10 telephone calls from persons objecting.

County Auditor Kenneth Bell was in the audience and was questioned on how much millage would be required to handle the department's expense. He said it probably would take about 4 mills, which would raise about $36,000 on full collection.

County Session Held

Orderly Growth Seen In Planning

LISBON — "Regional, county or municipal planning is merely an orderly comprehensive plan for growth," Walter L. Myers Jr., executive manager of the Upper Ohio Development Council of Steubenville, told a public meeting in St. George's Parish Hall Monday evening.

Regional planning provides the mechanism between municipalities and the townships for a sound land-use program, he said. To illustrate the need for planning, he pointed out that in the last 15 years on both sides of the Ohio River from East Liverpool to Bellaire, 35 new industries had come in and 38 others expanded.

THE MEETING was sponsored by the public affairs committee of the County Agricultural Council to discuss regional planning. Some 85 persons representing 30 organizations and agencies from Columbiana County attended.

Galen Greenisen of Salem, committee chairman, presided and emphasized the point that the meeting was not held to promote planning but rather to explain what it is and how it operates in order that citizens can decide the issue more intelligently.

Nicholas G. Kaschak, chief planner of the Ohio Department of Industrial and Economic Development of Columbus, was principal speaker.

HE EXPLAINED how planning commissions are organized and how they operate. He said planning is not a "doing" activity but rather a "recommended" activity. After a plan has been set up, zoning and other instrumentalities may be used to implement it. However, the plan in itself is only provision for guidance in community building.

Kaschak listed the following essential elements in a comprehensive plan:

1—A land-use plan, a proposal for future land uses.

2—A transportation plan, maps of a system of major streets and roads.

3—A community facilities plan, location and type of existing an needed facilities.

4—A long-range financial plan, how to pay for future needed facilities.

5—A regulatory measure, land subdivision regulations.

KASCHAK also pointed out that planning precedes zoning and that zoning need not be undertaken even though a plan is established. However, the benefits of planning would not be made available without zoning, he said.

A planning commission is a legal body set up to implement a plan. In regional planning, the municipalities, townships and county co-operate in the work.

"The point is that planning must have citizen participation or it will not work. People must help the leadership chosen for the work," he declared.

Jefferson County is now setting up a regional planning commission, Myers said. Most of the counties north of Columbiana County have planning commissions as do some of the municipalities.

A REQUEST has gone to the county commissioners by interested citizens for a planning commission in Columbiana County. The various municipalities and rural areas of the county were also represented at the meeting.

children, testified in his own behalf Tuesday and related a story that he went fishing with a Negro companion near the track prior to the incident.

Saunders said he remembered driving to the stable gate on Yurka's orders, but testified that as he was getting out of his car, the guard struck him in the stomach with a nightstick. As he was catching his breath, he was struck in the head, Saunders testified. The next thing he remembered was lying dazed beside his auto, he testified.

Saunders spent 32 days in jail following the incident. Mrs. Anthony Krukowski, a nurse at Weirton General Hospital, testified last for the defense, stating that Saunders was incoherent and dizzy when he was treated for a cut head after the mishap.

Succeeds City Doctor

Physician At Columbiana To Head Medical Society

Dr. Leonard Pritchard of Columbiana was elevated to the presidency of the Columbiana County Medical Society at a meeting Tuesday night at the Hotel Wick at Lisbon. He succeeds Dr. William Horger of East Liverpool.

Dr. Fred Banfield of East Liverpool was named president-elect, and Dr. Virgil Hart of Salem was named secretary-treasurer.

Elected to the Board of Censors were Dr. R. C. Costello of East Liverpool, Dr. F. R. Crowgey of Salem and Dr. Paul Beaver of Leetonia.

Dr. John Fraser of East Liverpool was named county delegate to the Ohio State Medical Society, and Dr. Beaver was appointed alternate.

About 41 attended the meeting at which announcement of a 50-year pin and citation for Dr. John Atchison of East Palestine was made by Dr. R. G. Tschantz of Akron, 6th Medical District councilor. Dr. Horger will present the award to Dr. Atchison, who was absent.

Dr. Atchison, who retired about 12 years ago, was graduated from Ohio State University Medical School and began practice at East Palestine in 1911. A World War I veteran, he is married to the former Carrie Smith and is a member of the Methodist Church.

Dr. Tschantz reported on a post-graduate conference at Youngstown in October.

Dr. F. D. Irwin, East Liverpool dentist, spoke on the use of hypnosis and gave a demonstration.

The society and women's auxiliary will have a joint Christmas dinner meeting, set tentatively Dec. 11 at the Country Club.

School Groups Pick Delegates For State Education Meeting

Delegates to the second State House Conference on Education Jan. 26 at Columbus were elected Tuesday at local conferences in East Liverpool and Wellsville.

Twenty-two attended the East Liverpool session Tuesday night at Westgate School library.

Elected to attend the state session were Harry McConville, Daniel Payne, Robert Brooks, Edwin Maloney, Don Eckert, Mrs. Beulah Franklin, Mrs. Donald Baxter, H. Judson English, John Ward, Mrs. Richard Jones, Fred Stevens and Mrs. Ray Diddle. Supt. Ralph Betts also will attend.

Those attending were asked to determine how to secure what they want from the schools. Questionnaires were given each person to express individual opinions on various phases of operations, financing and other matters.

A general discussion was held, then the group divided into smaller groups to discuss various points further.

Maloney and English were co-chairmen of the steering committee. Members include Eckert, McConville, Brooks and Payne. Forty-two attended the first conference in October.

Earl Bake, Board of Education president, reported on the Ohio School Boards Association meeting at Columbus last week during the second public discussion on Wellsville school district problems at the high school cafeteria.

The session was a prelude to the State House Conference.

Bake outlined some of the issues and questions facing the state. Bake said he feels the meeting was successful, even though only eight attended.

Donald L. Stoll, Wellsville chairman, will attend the Columbus session as a delegate. Board of Education members and school administrators also may attend, but not as delegates.

Stoll screened a film on the condition of schools in Ohio.

Furniture, Appliances Taken In City Burglary

Walter Starkey, 318 Garfield St., told police early today furniture and appliances were stolen from his home in a burglary.

After ransacking the house, the intruder took two end tables, an electric coffee percolator, an electric mixer, two lamps, a throw rug and a couch cover, Starkey reported.

Entrance apparently was gained by breaking a pane of glass in a cellar door and then forcing the lock, he said. A pane of glass also was broken in an upstairs window, he said. Starkey filed the burglary report at 6:53 a. m.

Meanwhile, Ben Feldman, 3285 St. Clair Ave., told police Tuesday afternoon at 1 that a tape recorder was stolen from his auto between Sept. 30 and Oct. 1.

Shooting

Barnes testified he was beaten and kicked by Salsberry. In the climax, he went to a small room about 15 feet from the desk and obtained a revolver in an attempt to cow Salsberry and induce him to leave, he testified.

Explaining the manner in which Salsberry was shot, Barnes testified he was standing in the lobby with the gun muzzle pointed downward. Salsberry shoved him, his arm raised and the gun discharged, he said. The bullet hit Salsberry in the groin. Barnes said if he had fired deliberately, he would have aimed at Salsberry's foot or lower leg.

After the wounding of Salsberry, there was a struggle over the gun which ended with the two wrestling on the floor. Barnes was shot through the hand in the latter struggle as both he and Salsberry grasped the gun.

Barnes testified under cross-examination by Atty. Hugo Alexander, defense counsel, that he fired only one shot. He said Salsberry fired two—one striking the ceiling of the lobby and the other passing through Barnes' hand while the two men struggled on the floor.

Police had testified earlier that the revolver showed four expended cartridges after the incident, but Barnes said he was unable to explain the fourth shot.

"I know I fired only one," he reiterated.

Earlier, the court heard testimony from Patrolman E. R. Furgason, first officer to arrive on the scene, and Lt. Mike A. Winters Jr., who filed the charge. The two told of separating the men and taking the gun out of Salsberry's hand.

The prosecution, conducted by Asst. Solicitor Richard J. Clark, rested at 11:35 a. m. Then the judge delivered the brief finding holding Salsberry to the Grand Jury.

Talks Politics In Cleveland

Sen. Young Cites Possible Appointments To Cabinet

CLEVELAND (AP)—Sen. Stephen M. Young, Ohio's outspoken junior senator, was in town Tuesday and talking politics—possible Cabinet appointment in the Kennedy administration and why the Democrats lost in Ohio.

Young said both Sen. Stuart Symington, D-Mo., and Sen. Henry M. Jackson, D-Wash., are experts on national defense and either could get the post of secretary of defense.

Young said Gov. Abraham Ribicoff of Connecticut, who met with President-elect John F. Kennedy in Palm Beach, Fla., Tuesday "might be attorney general if he wants, but he's more likely to prefer waiting to be a justice of the Supreme Court."

Young said he will meet with Ray T. Miller, Cuyahoga County Democratic chairman, and Ben C. Green, party treasurer, next week. They will hash over the patronage problem and why Kennedy lost Ohio, Young said.

The senator agreed he had "a voice—I wouldn't say a big voice" in deciding who may get the smaller plums of patronage in Ohio. As to the election outcome, Young said:

"I have my own views of the result in Ohio. But I want to hear the views of Democrats all around Ohio, and we'll get together later for conferences, probably in Columbus early in December.

"In Cuyahoga County we did very well. Better than in '58.

"As for the rest of Ohio, Gov. (Michael V.) DiSalle manfully took the blame, and some said it was the 'tremendously effective Ray Bliss (Republican) organization.'

"Others say it was President Eisenhower's coming to Cleveland. That was a pitiful spectacle, to call him in the twilight of his career. It diminished the prestige, the nobility of his office.

"But no man—not Mike or Ray Bliss or President Eisenhower—caused our defeat.

"I was alarmed over the hate campaign when I went to Indiana, a notoriously Ku Klux State. That anti-Catholic campaign was very strong there, and in Ohio, too. . .

"Eisenhower's speech took away many thousands of votes that were still teetering back and forth a few days before the election.

"I don't buy that about Bliss' machine. Only the section of that argument that for every $1,000 we had to spend, he had $20,000. Money is very helpful."

Hunter Shot In Leg

FREMONT, Ohio (AP)—Arthur Hudson, 49, of Cleveland was shot in the leg by a farmer while hunting northeast of here Tuesday. Deputy Sheriff Robert Williams said the farmer, Porter Wright, told him he had fired at a rabbit and missed. Williams quoted Wright as saying he had warned Hudson and two companions to leave his property but that this had nothing to do with the shooting a short time later.

Southwest Ohio Regional Airport Called Necessity

HAMILTON, Ohio (AP)—Establishment of a Southwestern Ohio regional airport to serve Cincinnati, Hamilton, Middletown, Dayton and surrounding territory was described here Tuesday as an economic necessity for development of the area.

The statement was made by Norvell Clarkson of the Dayton Chamber of Commerce as representatives of the four cities met to hear a preliminary report on a survey by a New York engineering firm on feasibility of the project.

The idea of such an airport was advanced last January by Major R. William Patterson of Dayton.

The four cities then put up $5,000 for the preliminary survey.

The civic and government officials decided to hold another and expanding meeting in January to hear the full report on the survey.

Business and government leaders from 11 counties which would be affected by such an airport will be invited to the January meeting. It is expected to be held in either Middletown or Dayton.

H. C. Lamberton Jr., representative of the engineering firm that made the survey, told the group Tuesday that the area has "tremendous potential for development . . . a tremendous future."

All groups attending the January meeting will be asked to support a more extensive study of the airport proposal.

Found Usually In Children

Elizabeth Taylor's Illness Diagnosed As Meningism

LONDON (AP)—Elizabeth Taylor's multimillion-dollar illness finally has been diagnosed by doctors as a comparatively minor irritation of the membranes covering the brain. It is called meningism and usually is found only in children.

Fears were expressed Sunday when the actress, weeping and clutching her head, was rushed to the London Clinic that she might be suffering from meningitis. Tuesday night, after 48 hours of suspense, the diagnosis ruling out meningitis was announced.

A spokesman for Dr. Carl Goldman, physician for Miss Taylor, explained that "meningitis is caused by a bacteria which is inside the brain. Meningism is caused by an infection outside the brain and its effects are ephemeral."

He was unable to say what the treatment for meningism would be or how long Miss Taylor would have to stay in the clinic. He said it was possible she would return to the United States for further treatment to complete her recovery.

Miss Taylor awoke "considerably refreshed" today after a peaceful night's sleep, the clinic reported.

Dr. Goldman said the meningism may have been caused by an abscessed tooth or teeth and it would be up to a dentist to decide if extractions were necessary.

During the two months the 28-year-old beauty has been sick causing costly delay in the movie "Cleopatra", doctors have been baffled more often than not. Finally they discovered she had an abscessed tooth, whose removal seemed to restore her to health.

Hunt Goes On For Man Who Killed Girl, 14

PAULDING, Ohio (AP)—Paulding County officials today continued the search for the man who criminally assaulted and fatally shot a 14-year-old Paulding girl.

Sheriff John Keeler said a few new leads were uncovered Tuesday, but he said he could not divulge them.

Officials Tuesday checked out a number of known sex offenders in northwestern Ohio in their attempts to find the killer of Nancy Eagleson, who was dragged into a car Sunday night.

She was found by two hunters Monday morning near Junction, eight miles northeast of here. Her body was fully clothed except for her undergarments, which were lying close by.

Talks Politics In Cleveland

Sen. Young Cites Possible Appointments To Cabinet

CLEVELAND (AP)—Sen. Stephen M. Young, Ohio's outspoken junior senator, was in town Tuesday and talking politics—possible Cabinet appointment in the Kennedy administration and why the Democrats lost in Ohio.

Young said both Sen. Stuart Symington, D-Mo., and Sen. Henry M. Jackson, D-Wash., are experts on national defense and either could get the post of secretary of defense.

Young said Gov. Abraham Ribicoff of Connecticut, who met with President-elect John F. Kennedy in Palm Beach, Fla., Tuesday "might be attorney general if he wants, but he's more likely to prefer waiting to be a justice of the Supreme Court."

Young said he will meet with Ray T. Miller, Cuyahoga County Democratic chairman, and Ben C. Green, party treasurer, next week. They will hash over the patronage problem and why Kennedy lost Ohio, Young said.

The senator agreed he had "a voice—I wouldn't say a big voice" in deciding who may get the smaller plums of patronage in Ohio. As to the election outcome, Young said:

"I have my own views of the result in Ohio. But I want to hear the views of Democrats all around Ohio, and we'll get together later for conferences, probably in Columbus early in December.

"In Cuyahoga County we did very well. Better than in '58.

"As for the rest of Ohio, Gov. (Michael V.) DiSalle manfully took the blame, and some said it was the 'tremendously effective Ray Bliss (Republican) organization.'

"Others say it was President Eisenhower's coming to Cleveland. That was a pitiful spectacle, to call him in the twilight of his career. It diminished the prestige, the nobility of his office.

"But no man—not Mike or Ray Bliss or President Eisenhower—caused our defeat.

"I was alarmed over the hate campaign when I went to Indiana, a notoriously Ku Klux State. That anti-Catholic campaign was very strong there, and in Ohio, too. . .

"Eisenhower's speech took away many thousands of votes that were still teetering back and forth a few days before the election.

"I don't buy that about Bliss' machine. Only the section of that argument that for every $1,000 we had to spend, he had $20,000. Money is very helpful."

Hunter Shot In Leg

FREMONT, Ohio (AP)—Arthur Hudson, 49, of Cleveland was shot in the leg by a farmer while hunting northeast of here Tuesday. Deputy Sheriff Robert Williams said the farmer, Porter Wright, told him he had fired at a rabbit and missed. Williams quoted Wright as saying he had warned Hudson and two companions to leave his property but that this had nothing to do with the shooting a short time later.

Southwest Ohio Regional Airport Called Necessity

HAMILTON, Ohio (AP)—Establishment of a Southwestern Ohio regional airport to serve Cincinnati, Hamilton, Middletown, Dayton and surrounding territory was described here Tuesday as an economic necessity for development of the area.

The statement was made by Norvell Clarkson of the Dayton Chamber of Commerce as representatives of the four cities met to hear a preliminary report on a survey by a New York engineering firm on feasibility of the project.

The idea of such an airport was advanced last January by Major R. William Patterson of Dayton.

The four cities then put up $5,000 for the preliminary survey.

The civic and government officials decided to hold another and expanding meeting in January to hear the full report on the survey.

Business and government leaders from 11 counties which would be affected by such an airport will be invited to the January meeting. It is expected to be held in either Middletown or Dayton.

H. C. Lamberton Jr., representative of the engineering firm that made the survey, told the group Tuesday that the area has "tremendous potential for development . . . a tremendous future."

All groups attending the January meeting will be asked to support a more extensive study of the airport proposal.

Found Usually In Children

Elizabeth Taylor's Illness Diagnosed As Meningism

LONDON (AP)—Elizabeth Taylor's multimillion-dollar illness finally has been diagnosed by doctors as a comparatively minor irritation of the membranes covering the brain. It is called meningism and usually is found only in children.

Fears were expressed Sunday when the actress, weeping and clutching her head, was rushed to the London Clinic that she might be suffering from meningitis. Tuesday night, after 48 hours of suspense, the diagnosis ruling out meningitis was announced.

A spokesman for Dr. Carl Goldman, physician for Miss Taylor, explained that "meningitis is caused by a bacteria which is inside the brain. Meningism is caused by an infection outside the brain and its effects are ephemeral."

He was unable to say what the treatment for meningism would be or how long Miss Taylor would have to stay in the clinic. He said it was possible she would return to the United States for further treatment to complete her recovery.

Miss Taylor awoke "considerably refreshed" today after a peaceful night's sleep, the clinic reported.

Dr. Goldman said the meningism may have been caused by an abscessed tooth or teeth and it would be up to a dentist to decide if extractions were necessary.

During the two months the 28-year-old beauty has been sick causing costly delay in the movie "Cleopatra", doctors have been baffled more often than not. Finally they discovered she had an abscessed tooth, whose removal seemed to restore her to health.

PAULDING, Ohio (AP)—Paulding County officials today continued the search for the man who criminally assaulted and fatally shot a 14-year-old Paulding girl.

Sheriff John Keeler said a few new leads were uncovered Tuesday, but he said he could not divulge them.

Officials Tuesday checked out a number of known sex offenders in northwestern Ohio in their attempts to find the killer of Nancy Eagleson, who was dragged into a car Sunday night.

She was found by two hunters Monday morning near Junction, eight miles northeast of here. Her body was fully clothed except for her undergarments, which were lying close by.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: My boy friend and I were at a movie the other night and we sat behind a couple of women who kept talking and laughing. They were not paying any attention to the picture and everyone around them was giving them dirty looks, which they ignored.

After 15 minutes, my boy friend tapped one of them on the shoulder and said very politely, "If you two blabber-mouths don't shut up I'm going to throw you out."

One of the women answered, "We paid our money, the same as you—and if you don't like it you can move."

My boy friend lost his temper and slammed her over the head with a box of caramel corn. She yelled bloody murder and the manager came running. He took our names and made the four of us leave the theater. (He refunded our money).

Today my boy friend got a notice in the mail saying he must appear in court. The charge is assault and battery. The woman was not injured. What can we do?—NEED ADVICE.

Dear Need: Get a lawyer. A person need not be rendered unconscious in order to sue for assault and battery.

Noisy people in a theater should be reported to an usher. When a patron takes matters into his own hands as your fiance did, the fight becomes personal.

A theater patron has the right to expect peace and quiet. When he doesn't get it, it's the responsibility of the management to take steps.

More Than Platonic

Dear Ann: You may decide this problem stems from pure jealousy and maybe you're right.

Our closest friends in this rather small community are a couple who have a great deal of charm and intellecutal appeal. I'm sure the woman's interest in us, however, is my husband.

Things have reached the point where every casual hello or goodbye is a kiss on the lips. In between, she manages many hugs, pats, winks and pecks on the cheek. She also likes to sit on his lap.

I'd like to make it clear that she is the aggressive one. My husband, like most attractive men, is none too adroit at dodging her attentions, however.

A rift would be awkward as we are a "set foursome." What can I do to get her to keep her lips and hands off my husband? — H. L. C.

Dear H.L.C.: Don't demean yourself by asking her to "keep away" from your man. You'll sound like a scared wife and she'll be greatly complimented at your display of insecurity.

Tell your husband you wouldn't dream of letting another man become so familiar with you because you belong to him. Let him know you'd appreciate equal consideration.

Super Salesman

Dear Ann: My father is a very nice guy but he embarrasses me. He's a barber, and a good one, but every guy who comes into this house gets a sales talk and a business card.

The pitch goes like this: "My Lord, who cut your hair? You look like the barber was trying to get even with you for something. If you want a good haircut . . ." and then out comes his business card.

I've asked him to stop it but he says "it pays to advertise." I told him I was going to write for your opinion. He said "okay" but he made me enclose this card — for your husband. Thank you. — EMMA.

Dear Emma: A commercial pitch to guests in your home is in extremely bad taste. Thanks for the card but we live in Chicago and it would be inconvenient for my husband to go to Little Rock for his haircuts.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

DiSalle Would Call Special Legislature To Extend SUB

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Gov. Michael V. DiSalle says he would call a special session of the legislature promptly to consider legislation for immediate extension of jobless benefit payments.

But, the governor declared, he would call it only if there is a reasonable chance that the legislation would be passed.

And that means, the Democratic DiSalle said, he has to be assured of enough Republican support before he would call the session.

"I am not going to waste the taxpayers' money," DiSalle said.

The governor told newsmen Tuesday he had written to sound out the views of Senate and House Republican leaders before receiving a request from the Ohio AFL-CIO for action to extend the 26-week benefit payment period to 39 weeks because of high unemployment in the state.

Although Democrats now hold majorities in both houses of the legislature, DiSalle explained, their number is insufficient for passage of immediately effective emergency measures without Republican help. He said regular legislation passed in special session would not be effective for 90 days, and by then the new Republican-controlled General Assembly would be in operation. The new legislature convenes Jan. 2.

DiSalle said he would be glad to see temporary or permanent extension of benefit payments by the legislature or have a "trigger clause" in the law to cut off the extension whenever employment reaches a specified level.

Commission Ends Meeting

Crime Unit Sets Proposals To Present To Legislature

CHARLESTON (AP) — The 10 lawmakers who make up the State Crime Commission will return to Charleston next month to put finishing touches on bills they plan to present to the 1961 legislature.

Winding up a 1½-day meeting, the commission Tuesday gave its approval to at least seven proposals.

As drafted, the major measures would:

Provide state policemen with the right to have charges of misconduct against them filed in writing and to have a hearing before a board of inquiry.

Revise the entire gambling statute, specifically outlawing the possession of any slot machine or pinball machine offering free games as a prize.

Prohibit an individual from holding more than one Class A retail beer license, such as that issued to taverns and require the fingerprinting of all applicants for beer licenses.

Provide for a statewide prosecuting attorney with jurisdiction to move against any public official for alleged malfeasance or misconduct in office.

Permit the padlocking of gambling establishments by injunctive process, whereas such action now is permitted with respect to liquor establishments and houses of prostitution.

Two veteran State Police sergeants, Robert L. Bonar of Moundsville and W. K. McMorrow of South Charleston, were asked if they had any solutions to what Del. Ward M. Dawson, R-Morgan, termed the growing problems of liquor and gambling.

Both siad they favored legalizing sale of liquor by the drink and tougher penalties for gambling law violators.

Once again, the commission returned to its investigation of alleged gambling activities in Green brier County by recalling two employes of the Colonial Club in White Sulphur Springs.

Homer Neal, a dice table man, and Donald Rusling, a blackjack dealer, said they had been paid $150 a week but had been out of work since state and county officers raided the Colonial Club Oct. 23.

Commission co-chairman Clarence E. Martin Jr., D-Berkeley, told the two evidence had been produced that State Police removed a magnet from the leg of the operator of one of two roulette wheels during the raid.

Rusling said he would "disbelieve" that report, adding that he would "bet most anything that couldn't happen." Neal said he knew nothing of such a magnet.

Gov.-elect W. W. Barron will be invited to the next meeting of the commission, set tentatively for mid-December, to discuss proposed State Police legislation.

Plane Accidents Cited

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The plane crash at Toledo Airport in which 22 persons were killed made October the worst month so far this year in number of persons killed or hurt in aircraft accidents in Ohio, the Highway Patrol says. Besides the dead in the Toledo crash, 30 persons were hurt in that and eight other accidents. Another fatality occurred in the crash of an Ohio Air National Guard plane killing Col. James Kidd of Lancaster.

Seeks Special Election

CONNEAUT, Ohio (AP) — The Conneaut school board filed a request with the Ashtabula County Board of Elections Tuesday for a special election Dec. 13 on the three-mill school tax levy defeated Nov. 8 by 29 votes. Approval of 60 per cent of the voters is needed for passage.

New Gas Turbine

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: My boy friend and I were at a movie the other night and we sat behind a couple of women who kept talking and laughing. They were not paying any attention to the picture and everyone around them was giving them dirty looks, which they ignored.

After 15 minutes, my boy friend tapped one of them on the shoulder and said very politely, "If you two blabber-mouths don't shut up I'm going to throw you out."

One of the women answered, "We paid our money, the same as you—and if you don't like it you can move."

My boy friend lost his temper and slammed her over the head with a box of caramel corn. She yelled bloody murder and the manager came running. He took our names and made the four of us leave the theater. (He refunded our money).

Today my boy friend got a notice in the mail saying he must appear in court. The charge is assault and battery. The woman was not injured. What can we do?—NEED ADVICE.

Dear Need: Get a lawyer. A person need not be rendered unconscious in order to sue for assault and battery.

Noisy people in a theater should be reported to an usher. When a patron takes matters into his own hands as your fiance did, the fight becomes personal.

A theater patron has the right to expect peace and quiet. When he doesn't get it, it's the responsibility of the management to take steps.

More Than Platonic

Dear Ann: You may decide this problem stems from pure jealousy and maybe you're right.

Our closest friends in this rather small community are a couple who have a great deal of charm and intellecutal appeal. I'm sure the woman's interest in us, however, is my husband.

Things have reached the point where every casual hello or goodbye is a kiss on the lips. In between, she manages many hugs, pats, winks and pecks on the cheek. She also likes to sit on his lap.

I'd like to make it clear that she is the aggressive one. My husband, like most attractive men, is none too adroit at dodging her attentions, however.

A rift would be awkward as we are a "set foursome." What can I do to get her to keep her lips and hands off my husband? — H. L. C.

Dear H.L.C.: Don't demean yourself by asking her to "keep away" from your man. You'll sound like a scared wife and she'll be greatly complimented at your display of insecurity.

Tell your husband you wouldn't dream of letting another man become so familiar with you because you belong to him. Let him know you'd appreciate equal consideration.

Super Salesman

Dear Ann: My father is a very nice guy but he embarrasses me. He's a barber, and a good one, but every guy who comes into this house gets a sales talk and a business card.

The pitch goes like this: "My Lord, who cut your hair? You look like the barber was trying to get even with you for something. If you want a good haircut . . ." and then out comes his business card.

I've asked him to stop it but he says "it pays to advertise." I told him I was going to write for your opinion. He said "okay" but he made me enclose this card — for your husband. Thank you. — EMMA.

Dear Emma: A commercial pitch to guests in your home is in extremely bad taste. Thanks for the card but we live in Chicago and it would be inconvenient for my husband to go to Little Rock for his haircuts.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

DiSalle Would Call Special Legislature To Extend SUB

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Gov. Michael V. DiSalle says he would call a special session of the legislature promptly to consider legislation for immediate extension of jobless benefit payments.

But, the governor declared, he would call it only if there is a reasonable chance that the legislation would be passed.

And that means, the Democratic DiSalle said, he has to be assured of enough Republican support before he would call the session.

"I am not going to waste the taxpayers' money," DiSalle said.

The governor told newsmen Tuesday he had written to sound out the views of Senate and House Republican leaders before receiving a request from the Ohio AFL-CIO for action to extend the 26-week benefit payment period to 39 weeks because of high unemployment in the state.

Although Democrats now hold majorities in both houses of the legislature, DiSalle explained, their number is insufficient for passage of immediately effective emergency measures without Republican help. He said regular legislation passed in special session would not be effective for 90 days, and by then the new Republican-controlled General Assembly would be in operation. The new legislature convenes Jan. 2.

DiSalle said he would be glad to see temporary or permanent extension of benefit payments by the legislature or have a "trigger clause" in the law to cut off the extension whenever employment reaches a specified level.

Commission Ends Meeting

Crime Unit Sets Proposals To Present To Legislature

CHARLESTON (AP) — The 10 lawmakers who make up the State Crime Commission will return to Charleston next month to put finishing touches on bills they plan to present to the 1961 legislature.

Winding up a 1½-day meeting, the commission Tuesday gave its approval to at least seven proposals.

As drafted, the major measures would:

Provide state policemen with the right to have charges of misconduct against them filed in writing and to have a hearing before a board of inquiry.

Revise the entire gambling statute, specifically outlawing the possession of any slot machine or pinball machine offering free games as a prize.

Prohibit an individual from holding more than one Class A retail beer license, such as that issued to taverns and require the fingerprinting of all applicants for beer licenses.

Provide for a statewide prosecuting attorney with jurisdiction to move against any public official for alleged malfeasance or misconduct in office.

Permit the padlocking of gambling establishments by injunctive process, whereas such action now is permitted with respect to liquor establishments and houses of prostitution.

Two veteran State Police sergeants, Robert L. Bonar of Moundsville and W. K. McMorrow of South Charleston, were asked if they had any solutions to what Del. Ward M. Dawson, R-Morgan, termed the growing problems of liquor and gambling.

Both siad they favored legalizing sale of liquor by the drink and tougher penalties for gambling law violators.

Once again, the commission returned to its investigation of alleged gambling activities in Green brier County by recalling two employes of the Colonial Club in White Sulphur Springs.

Homer Neal, a dice table man, and Donald Rusling, a blackjack dealer, said they had been paid $150 a week but had been out of work since state and county officers raided the Colonial Club Oct. 23.

Commission co-chairman Clarence E. Martin Jr., D-Berkeley, told the two evidence had been produced that State Police removed a magnet from the leg of the operator of one of two roulette wheels during the raid.

Rusling said he would "disbelieve" that report, adding that he would "bet most anything that couldn't happen." Neal said he knew nothing of such a magnet.

Gov.-elect W. W. Barron will be invited to the next meeting of the commission, set tentatively for mid-December, to discuss proposed State Police legislation.

Plane Accidents Cited

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The plane crash at Toledo Airport in which 22 persons were killed made October the worst month so far this year in number of persons killed or hurt in aircraft accidents in Ohio, the Highway Patrol says. Besides the dead in the Toledo crash, 30 persons were hurt in that and eight other accidents. Another fatality occurred in the crash of an Ohio Air National Guard plane killing Col. James Kidd of Lancaster.

Eligible For Parole

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—A 74-year - old Clevelander who has served nearly 24 years for murder has become eligible for parole. Gov. Michael V. DiSalle commuted the penalty of Robert Stewart from first to second-degree murder in the 1936 fatal shooting of Herbert Parrell. The governor's action was taken on recommendation of the Pardon and Parole Commission.

$600,000 Budget Request Next Step In Parks Plan

By PHIL GUNBY

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The next step in the "Hocking Plan" for consolidating five parks in the Hocking State Forest area will be a $600,000 budget request to the 1961 legislature.

Officials of the Ohio Department of Natural Resources said today that the $600,000 request would be for the July 1, 1961 to June 30, 1963 biennium.. The State Finance Department must approve the request before it can be submitted to the legislature.

As envisioned by department director Herbert B. Eagon and others, the 10-year, $2.2 million plan would turn Ash Cave (80 acres), Cantwell Cliffs (386), Cedar Falls and Old Man's Cave (468 together) and Rock House (165) into a single recreation area.

Purchase of about 18,000 acres is involved, and Conkle's Hollow, a 58-acre area of the state forest, would be included in the consolidation.

Until June 30, the department will be working with about $340,000 okayed by the 1959 legislature. The Athens, Ohio, engineering firm of Clark and Sheeter is working on designs for sewerage and water supply systems as part of the $230,000 camp ground development.

Another $50,450 is being used for miscellaneous repairs and maintenance, $40,400 to acquire 808 acres to begin linking the sites together, and $20,000 for a centrally located operations and maintenance headquarters.

Department officials have encountered some opposition from persons with cottages in the area and from farmers whose land is affected.

"It's been our policy never to use our power of condemnation to get land unless the parcel is absolutely essential to the project and there is no other way to get it." John W. Ferguson, assistant department director, explained, adding: "We'd much rather keep talking it over until we can work out an agreement."

Ferguson said the enlarged Hocking park site is expected to draw more than two million visitors a season when plans have been carried out. The assistant director calls it one of the two most outstanding natural beauty spots in Ohio, and Director Eagon thinks it will rival many national scenic spots.

About 200 acres will be set aside under the plan to create eight fishing lakes up to 15 acres in size.

If the two-year $600,000 request gets the approval of the Finance Department, the governor and the legislature, the plans call for these expenditures:

Camp area development $85,000, land acquisition $390,000, concession building at Old Man's Cave $50,000, parking lots $50,000 and a residence for the park manager $25,000.

The Hocking plan is part of a master plan for land acquisition by the department which Eagon is expected to submit to the governor next month. The idea is to acquire land now before prices go up or improvements are made on it. One possibility being considered is borrowing money from state retirement systems, such as the State Highway Department has sought to do to acquire right-of-way.

Buses, Trolleys Halt As Mechanics Strike

LOS ANGELES (AP)--Public transportation for 750,000 daily riders in a vast four-county area ground to a halt today.

Nine hundred mechanics struck the Metropolitan Transit Authority at 12:01 a.m. paralyzing local and interurban bus and trolley service.

Police envisaged a monumental traffic problem as hundreds of thousands of workers were left to their own devices—walking, sharing auto rides or driving their own cars to jobs in the downtown area, where parking conditions are critical even under normal circumstances.

The walkout, in defiance of a fresh court order Tuesday night, was called by the Amalgamated Transportation Union after 18 months of fruitless contract negotiations.

97 Ohio Polio Cases

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—So far this year, 97 polio cases have been reported in Ohio, with 12 noted in the last two weeks, the Health Department says. The total is far below that of last year, when more than 200 cases had been noted at this time. In 1954, the last year before Salk vaccine became generally available, Ohio had 2,399 cases. Health Department officials hope this will be the first year since 1938 that fewer than 100 polio cases would be reported.

'No Taxis In Texas?'

4 Realtors Startle Dallas With Jaunt On Horseback

Why take a taxi in Texas when the Lone Star State is noted for its horses, four East Liverpool realtors reasoned when they clomped down the main street of Dallas last weekend on steeds that caused a couple of minor traffic jams and many raised eyebrows.

Although they were far from the open range, C. W. Hendershot, George Bright, Leo Capehart and W. F. McWhorter — each making his first visit to Texas — decided to rent horses for the trip from the Hotel Adolphus to the convention session in the Statler-Hilton.

So, on steeds rented from a riding stable in the suburbs, they set off through the center of the Texas metropolis, careful to rein up for all the traffic lights. The stunt gained them widespread publicity in the Sunday newspapers, including a photo of the four as they halted their steeds in front of the convention hotel. They promptly were dubbed "The Four Horsemen of the Adolphus."

Bright was the only member to offer an explanation to questioning reporters.

"We thought it might be too hard to get a taxi," he was quoted.

They rode through the heart of downtown Dallas, along Commerce St. and then via Main, two of the busiest streets in "Big D."

Hendershot wore a natty gray tweed suit and a red tie for the jaunt. The newspaper in Dallas said he sat his saddle "straight-backed, like a Spanish - American War general," even though he admitted he had not been on a horse for nearly 60 years. But, the account said he swung into the saddle "like a rusty gate with the grass grown high below."

A passing motorist shouted: "I thought this was a one-horse town, but I was wrong."

After the ride, the rented horses went back to the El Rancho Stables, whose proprietor said they were placid steeds which could be trusted to get the businessmen through traffic safely.

The four realtors are among an estimated 6,000 attending a national convention in Dallas. They are expected to return Saturday or Sunday. Each operates his own agency in East Liverpool.

Democratic Club To Pick Officers

Preparing for the annual election of officers Dec. 20, the East Liverpool Democratic Club appointed a nominating committee at a meeting Tuesday night in the Washington Building.

It is comprised of Don Smith, William Drane and Leo Payne. James Flasco is incumbent president. The club will elect a president, vice president, secretary, treasurer and four trustees.

The club discussed the Nov. 8 election, particularly the campaign work which its members performed. Flasco reported the East Liverpool returns showed the narrowest margin in years between the two Presidential candidates.

Flasco also reported on plans for a youth center, which have been discussed with Council and the administration. He said letters explaining plans for a citywide meeting on the youth center have been sent to interested persons and organizations. However, no invitation is necessary to attend the meeting, he added. Flasco said no date has been set for the discussion.

But, the account said he swung into the saddle "like a rusty gate with the grass grown high below."

A passing motorist shouted: "I thought this was a one-horse town, but I was wrong."

After the ride, the rented horses went back to the El Rancho Stables, whose proprietor said they were placid steeds which could be trusted to get the businessmen through traffic safely.

The four realtors are among an estimated 6,000 attending a national convention in Dallas. They are expected to return Saturday or Sunday. Each operates his own agency in East Liverpool.

Democratic Club To Pick Officers

Preparing for the annual election of officers Dec. 20, the East Liverpool Democratic Club appointed a nominating committee at a meeting Tuesday night in the Washington Building.

It is comprised of Don Smith, William Drane and Leo Payne. James Flasco is incumbent president. The club will elect a president, vice president, secretary, treasurer and four trustees.

The club discussed the Nov. 8 election, particularly the campaign work which its members performed. Flasco reported the East Liverpool returns showed the narrowest margin in years between the two Presidential candidates.

Flasco also reported on plans for a youth center, which have been discussed with Council and the administration. He said letters explaining plans for a citywide meeting on the youth center have been sent to interested persons and organizations. However, no invitation is necessary to attend the meeting, he added. Flasco said no date has been set for the discussion.

New Techniques In Barbering To Be Shown At Local Dinner

New techniques in the tonsorial art will be demonstrated at a dinner meeting of Barbers Local 343, expected to attract a crowd of 75 members and their wives tonight at 6:30 at Tice's Restaurant.

The local also will present a 50-year service pin to Loren R. Clark, who retired a few months ago. For many years, he operated a shop on St. Clair Ave. near the Diamond. As 1960 also marks the golden wedding anniversary of Clark and his wife, Olive, the local will pay tribute to the couple.

Al Rose of Akron and Audley Elliott of East Liverpool will present demonstrations of new techniques in the barbering trade. Working with a model, Rose will demonstrate tinting of men's hair to eliminate gray streaks. He also will show a razor cut — performing the entire hair cutting operation with a razor.

Elliott, using a little girl for a model, will demonstrate the method of giving a hair cut that never appears tousled or in disarray.

Guests are expected from Salem, Leetonia, Salineville, Wellsville, East Palestine, Youngstown and Steubenville.

Ernest Lowe will present vocal solos, accompanied on the piano by his wife. He also will lead group singing.

Emerson Hadley, local administrator, will present information on health and welfare insurance available to barbers. Charles Edwards, president of the local, will preside.

Clarence Wright, president of the State Barbers Association, will present out-of-town guests, including Tom Smith of Warren, a state vice president; E. M. Sanders of Akron, state secretary-treasurer; Calvin Menser, president of the Warren local, and Pete Dellatorre, secretary of the Steubenville local.

The diningroom and the tables will be decorated in a barbershop motif, with large "barber poles" centering the tables and miniatures at each place setting.

Manhunt Begins For Publisher In 2 Bank Robberies

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP)—Pictures drawn from descriptions by hold-up victims led to a manhunt today for a mild-looking newspaper publisher accused of two bank robberies.

State and federal authorities named Lawrence C. Pope, 42, a church-going former bank executive, as the camera-carrying bandit who coolly staged the holdups on successive Saturdays.

In each instance the robber tied up his victims, collected all the money in sight and took time to snap pictures of women bank workers before fleeing unnoticed by outsiders.

Last weekend he made off with $4,783 from the Farmers State Bank in Schulenburg, 100 miles east of San Antonio in south Texas. Investigators said the same individual got $1,744 Nov. 5 from the First State Bank at Thornton, 120 miles north of Schulenburg.

Pope is publisher of the Giddings (Tex.) Star in the next county north from Schulenburg and also owns another small newspaper at Lexington, in the same county. He formerly was a federal bank examiner and has worked for banks in four Texas cities.

Lisbon City Hall Office Completed

LISBON — The water, sewer and cemetery departments are expected to move into their new office in the City Hall this week, according to Deane Beck, member of the Board of Public Affairs.

The 20-x-20-foot office was started in September, estimated to cost $4,400. Now ready for occupancy, it is just north of the present office which is now the volunteer firemen's room.

The department's office formerly was upstairs but due to walking the steps, Council decided to move it down stairs with the firemen about eight years ago.

The cost will be paid from water and sewer funds, and not from the village's general fund. It had to be approved by Council before the Board of Public Affairs could go ahead, Beck said.

Bull Run Battles 'Re-Fought' At Civil War Group Session

About 35 attended a meeting of the Tri-State Civil War Roundtable Tuesday night at the Memorial Auditorium at which the first and second battles of Bull Run were compared.

Utilizing a large terrain map upon the floor, John Markanton of Apples Corners described the military operations of the two battles of 1861-62, assisted by Joseph Robbins of East Liverpool.

Robbins spoke on the characteristics of the soldiers, James Pelley of East Liverpool discussed the leaders and personalities, and Judge Louis Tobin reviewed the military organization and supply systems.

The development of the Union and Confederate armies from raw recruits to seasoned fighters in the one-year period, and the development of a war organization by the two governments were outlined.

Glenn Waight, program chairman, pointed out that although both battles were Union defeats, the strength and resources of the Union had already begun to point to the ultimate victory in 1865.

Paul Ward of East Liverpool screened slides of some of the leaders. The battlefield map was prepared by Markanton and Robbins, and the slides by Ward.

Judge Tobin, president, welcomed some 10 new members, and discussed the objectives of the roundtable. The next meeting is Dec. 14.

Bids To Open On $17 Million In Road Plans

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Contractors' bids for eight highway projects, including a key multi-million dollar interchange on the Cincinnati expressway system, will be opened next Tuesday in Columbus, the Ohio Highway Department announced today.

The Highway Department estimates the cost of the eight projects, counting all right-of-way and engineering expenses, at nearly $17 million. This total will bring to more than $240 million the value of all contracts awarded since Jan. 1, the department says.

Largest project on the slate, with an ultimate cost estimated at $13.8 million, is the interchange of the Millcreek Expressway with the future Sixth Street Expressway in Cincinnati. The area involved is north of Fourth Street and west of Central Avenue. An adjacent project will be started later to provide connection with the Third Street distributor and the future Ohio River bridge, the department said.

Next in size is a 4.6-mile bypass project at Roseville (Perry and Muskingum counties) on Ohio 75. Passing west of the city, the two-lane, limited access highway will cost an estimated $2 million, counting right-of-way and engineering.

In Vinton County on U.S. 50 some 2½ miles east of McArthur, the existing underpass at the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad tracks will be replaced at an estimated cost of $375,000, including right-of-way and engineering. The project will entail building an additional structure at Elk Fork on County Road 24 and rechanneling the stream.

At three points on Ohio 775 in eastern Lawrence County, where landslides are threatening the existing road, a relocation project provides for building new sections of highway and reshaping the unstable hillsides. Work totals one-half mile, with an estimated cost of $140,000, including right-of-way and engineering.

Under another project, approximately one mile of Ohio 93 in West Lafayette will be widened and resurfaced at an estimated cost of $85,000.

On Ohio 221 in Brown County 1½ miles south of Georgetown, a new bridge will be constructed at Oppossum Run to replace the structure which collapsed last summer. Estimated cost is $51,000.

New Lincoln Continental Displayed

Styled in the classical clean-lined tradition of its predecessors, the completely changed Continental has smaller dimensions in height, width and length.

Exceptional mechanical reliability has been built into the car through a series of engineering techniques, including numerous exclusive features.

"For several years we have been searching for a new interpretation of a luxury automobile that would meet all the practical requirements of the fine car buyer," says Ben D. Mills, Ford Motor Company vice president and general manager of the Lincoln - Mercury Division. "We believe we have anticipated correctly these needs in the 1961 Lincoln Continental.

"Through a carefully - planned engineering program, we have developed a functional luxury car which has the most thoroughly tested parts of any car we ever have designed," he said.

The car is 212.4 inches long, 78.6 inches wide and 53.5 inches high with a 123-inch wheelbase.

Engineers have developed a car with improved materials, closer tolerances, precision fittings and a stronger body with more and better sound-deadening materials.

Noted Businessman Dies

GLENWOOD SPRINGS, Colo. (AP)—Frank E. Kistler, 78, one of the West's most prominent businessmen and investment leaders, died Tuesday of a heart attack. His oil and gas field discoveries a few years ago were valued at a billion dollars.

For the first eight months of 1960, retail sales in the U. S. totaled $142.5 billion, an increase of 2.1 per cent over the same period in 1959.

Average U.S. City Described 'Starved' For Fire Fighters

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The average city in this country is starved for fire fighters, an authority on fire department operations asserted here today.

Warren S. Kimball, manager of the National Fire Protection Association's Fire Service Department, said that "ghost" firemen — men who ought to be but are not on every engine when it leaves the firehouse—are an important part of the reason why fire losses in the United States reached an all-time high of $1.4 billion last year.

Speaking at the closing session of the association's three - day meeting, Kimball said, "undermanned fire companies mean that what ought to be small fires very probably grow into big losses.

Kimball urged private citizens to check whether the fire departments in their communities have adequate manpower to protect lives and property.

He said a good rule of thumb is: "What the engines go by on the way to a fire. If on each one there are six men aboard, including the driver, your department is well-manned. Five means you are in reasonably good shape. Four is a bare minimum. Three or less spells danger, and a driver alone is an open invitation to disaster."

Another speaker told the meeting today that only when fire safety in schools gets as much attention as oversize gymnasiums, pastel colors and other "new look" trimmings can people expect to escape another Chicago school tragedy.

Chester I. Babcock, manager of the association's Fire Record Department, was referring to the Chicago elementary school fire two years ago in which 95 persons were killed.

Babcock said that conditions responsible for the Chicago disaster can be found in thousands of schools throughout the country.

Woman Sues Power Firm For $200,000

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—A Lorain County woman has filed suit against the Ohio Edison Co., asking $200,000 damages for injuries she says were received by her son when he touched an electric high tension wire. In the suit filed Tuesday in Common Pleas Court here, Mrs. Wilmetta Rose Bloomingdale of Columbia Station claimed the accident left her boy David 11, with permanent scars and injuries, including amputation of two fingers from the left hand.

The petition said David came in contact with a wire carrying 12,500 volts while playing in a tree in Columbia Station Aug. 20, 1959. The boy allegedly was burned and was thrown 30 feet by the jolt.

24th Anniversary Marked By Choir

More than 200 attended the concert Sunday in the Midland Steelworkers Hall marking the 24th anniversary of the Dr. Laza Kostich Choir of the St. George Serbian Orthodox Church.

Choirs participating included the Mita Topalovich Choir of the St. George Serbian Orthodox Church of Joliet, Ill., the Njegosh Serbian Choir of Cleveland and the St. George Serbian Orthodox Junior Church Choir of Midland.

Mrs. Nick Tepavich was in charge of the Saturday lunch and evening dinner at the Serbian National home, the scene of a dinner and dance following the concert Sunday.

Music for dancing was furnished by the Dunov Tamburitzan Orchestra of Aliquippa. Mrs. Grover Epley was in charge of the Sunday dinner.

Fr. Milorad Dobrota, pastor of the Midland church, is director of its choirs. Mrs. Michael Meriage is president of the choir.

Findlay Paper, Radio Acclaimed By Editors Group

WILLIAMSBURG, Va. (AP) — Cooperation of the Findlay Republican-Courier and its radio affiliate WFIN, in helping tell the news and picture story of an American pilot downed in East Germany won the acclaim of the Associated Press Managing Editors' Association today.

The national citation came during the association's annual convention here.

The citation for the Findlay newspaper and radio station, both Associated Press members, read:

The Republican-Courier is a morning newspaper which does not publish on Sunday. The story of the pilot broke Saturday, May 20, 1960. But publisher Heminger and Mrs. Dennis, disregarding the fact that they would be unable to publish the story and the local angles until Monday, worked along with Meekins to make the picture and interview with relatives of the pilot immediately available to The Associated Press.

Midland District Girl Scouts Will Assist In Meeting

Midland area Girl Scout delegates, leaders and assistant leaders will attend a Council meeting Nov. 21 at 8 p. m. at the First Presbyterian Church in Beaver.

During a recent meeting of leaders at the home of Mrs. Richard Graham of Ohio Township, Mrs. Elmer Gifford was appointed day camp director.

Contest rules and prizes for naming the new Girl Scout camp site on the Fombell farm near Zelienople were discussed. Each girl in each troop or Brownie Troop may submit one name. Leaders will be responsible for sending names to the Girl Scout office at Beaver.

Mrs. Richard Carr, field director, announced that Feb. 4 will be "Adventures In The Arts Day" at the Grace Evangelical Lutheran Church in Rochester. Miss Nancy DeMarco of Cleveland will conduct the program in story form involving crafts in the theme.

Chicago Police Seeking To Link Girl Abductions

CHICAGO (AP) — Police today sought to determine if Chicago's second girl abduction in three days is connected with the first, which ended in the child's death.

Peggy McCarthy, 7, was pulled into an old car Tuesday, near her home on the northwest side by a man who drove up and asked her for directions. She was returning to school from lunch.

She was taken to Robinson Woods Forest Preserve on the far northwest side where her assailant forced her to remove her clothing.

Gloria Kowalewicz, 9, was abducted Saturday morning on her way to Mass at a southside church Her body was found in suburban Palos Hills Forest Preserve with two bullets in the head.

Peggy's abductor was described as being about 5 feet 10, weighing 140 pounds, 35 years old, wearing a tan jacket and blue denim pants, horn rimmed glasses, and smoking a pipe.

The two points in the United States farthest apart are Attu Island, Alaska, and Key Largo, Fla. There is 5,509 miles between them.

Bids To Open On $17 Million In Road Plans

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Contractors' bids for eight highway projects, including a key multi-million dollar interchange on the Cincinnati expressway system, will be opened next Tuesday in Columbus, the Ohio Highway Department announced today.

The Highway Department estimates the cost of the eight projects, counting all right-of-way and engineering expenses; at nearly $17 million. This total will bring to more than $240 million the value of all contracts awarded since Jan. 1, the department says.

Largest project on the slate, with an ultimate cost estimated at $13.8 million, is the interchange of the Millcreek Expressway with the future Sixth Street Expressway in Cincinnati. The area involved is north of Fourth Street and west of Central Avenue. An adjacent project will be started later to provide connection with the Third Street distributor and the future Ohio River bridge, the department said.

Next in size is a 4.6-mile bypass project at Roseville (Perry and Muskingum counties) on Ohio 75. Passing west of the city, the two-lane, limited access highway will cost an estimated $2 million, counting right-of-way and engineering.

In Vinton County on U.S. 50 some 2½ miles east of McArthur, the existing underpass at the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad tracks will be replaced at an estimated cost of $375,000, including right-of-way and engineering. The project will entail building an additional structure at Elk Fork on County Road 24 and rechanneling the stream.

At three points on Ohio 775 in eastern Lawrence County, where landslides are threatening the existing road, a relocation project provides for building new sections of highway and reshaping the unstable hillsides. Work totals one-half mile, with an estimated cost of $140,000, including right-of-way and engineering.

Under another project, approximately one mile of Ohio 93 in West Lafayette will be widened and resurfaced at an estimated cost of $85,000.

On Ohio 221 in Brown County 1½ miles south of Georgetown, a new bridge will be constructed at Oppossum Run to replace the structure which collapsed last summer. Estimated cost is $51,000.

New Lincoln Continental Displayed

Styled in the classical clean-lined tradition of its predecessors, the completely changed Continental has smaller dimensions in height, width and length.

Exceptional mechanical reliability has been built into the car through a series of engineering techniques, including numerous exclusive features.

"For several years we have been searching for a new interpretation of a luxury automobile that would meet all the practical requirements of the fine car buyer," says Ben D. Mills, Ford Motor Company vice president and general manager of the Lincoln - Mercury Division. "We believe we have anticipated correctly these needs in the 1961 Lincoln Continental.

"Through a carefully - planned engineering program, we have developed a functional luxury car which has the most thoroughly tested parts of any car we ever have designed," he said.

The Lincoln Continental is produced in two models, a four-door sedan and a four-door soft top convertible, with a completely automatic top. This is the first four-door soft top convertible, with a completely automatic top. This is the first four - door soft top convertible built in America in many years.

The car is 212.4 inches long, 78.6 inches wide and 53.5 inches high with a 123-inch wheelbase.

Engineers have developed a car with improved materials, closer tolerances, precision fittings and a stronger body with more and better sound-deadening materials.

Noted Businessman Dies

GLENWOOD SPRINGS, Colo. (AP)—Frank E. Kistler, 78, one of the West's most prominent businessmen and investment leaders, died Tuesday of a heart attack. His oil and gas field discoveries a few years ago were valued at a billion dollars.

For the first eight months of 1960, retail sales in the U. S. totaled $142.5 billion, an increase of 2.1 per cent over the same period in 1959.

Average U.S. City Described 'Starved' For Fire Fighters

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The average city in this country is starved for fire fighters, an authority on fire department operations asserted here today.

Warren S. Kimball, manager of the National Fire Protection Association's Fire Service Department, said that "ghost" firemcn — men who ought to be but are not on every engine when it leaves the firehouse—are an important part of the reason why fire losses in the United States reached an all-time high of $1.4 billion last year.

Speaking at the closing session of the association's three - day meeting, Kimball said, "undermanned fire companies mean that what ought to be small fires very probably grow into big losses.

Kimball urged private citizens to check whether the fire departments in their communities have adequate manpower to protect lives and property.

He said a good rule of thumb is: "What the engines go by on the way to a fire. If on each one there are six men aboard, including the driver, your department is well-manned. Five means you are in reasonably good shape. Four is a bare minimum. Three or less spells danger, and a driver alone is an open invitation to disaster."

Another speaker told the meeting today that only when fire safety in schools gets as much attention as oversize gymnasiums, pastel colors and other "new look" trimmings can people expect to escape another Chicago school tragedy.

Chester I. Babcock, manager of the association's Fire Record Department, was referring to the Chicago elementary school fire two years ago in which 95 persons were killed.

Babcock said that conditions responsible for the Chicago disaster can be found in thousands of schools throughout the country.

Woman Sues Power Firm For $200,000

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—A Lorain County woman has filed suit against the Ohio Edison Co., asking $200,000 damages for injuries she says were received by her son when he touched an electric high tension wire. In the suit filed Tuesday in Common Pleas Court here, Mrs. Wilmetta Rose Bloomingdale of Columbia Station claimed the accident left her boy David 11, with permanent scars and injuries, including amputation of two fingers from the left hand.

The petition said David came in contact with a wire carrying 12,500 volts while playing in a tree in Columbia Station Aug. 20, 1959. The boy allegedly was burned and was thrown 30 feet by the jolt.

24th Anniversary Marked By Choir

More than 200 attended the concert Sunday in the Midland Steelworkers Hall marking the 24th anniversary of the Dr. Laza Kostich Choir of the St. George Serbian Orthodox Church.

Choirs participating included the Mita Topalovich Choir of the St. George Serbian Orthodox Church of Joliet, Ill., the Njegosh Serbian Choir of Cleveland and the St. George Serbian Orthodox Junior Church Choir of Midland.

Mrs. Nick Tepavich was in charge of the Saturday lunch and evening dinner at the Serbian National home, the scene of a dinner and dance following the concert Sunday.

Music for dancing was furnished by the Dunov Tamburitzan Orchestra of Aliquippa. Mrs. Grover Epley was in charge of the Sunday dinner.

Fr. Milorad Dobrota, pastor of the Midland church, is director of its choirs. Mrs. Michael Meriage is president of the choir.

Findlay Paper, Radio Acclaimed By Editors Group

WILLIAMSBURG, Va. (AP) — Cooperation of the Findlay Republican-Courier and its radio affiliate WFIN, in helping tell the news and picture story of an American pilot downed in East Germany won the acclaim of the Associated Press Managing Editors' Association today.

The national citation came during the association's annual convention here.

The citation for the Findlay newspaper and radio station, both Associated Press members, read:

The Republican-Courier is a morning newspaper which does not publish on Sunday. The story of the pilot broke Saturday, May 20, 1960. But publisher Heminger and Mrs. Dennis, disregarding the fact that they would be unable to publish the story and the local angles until Monday, worked along with Meekins to make the picture and interview with relatives of the pilot immediately available to The Associated Press.

Midland District Girl Scouts Will Assist In Meeting

Midland area Girl Scout delegates, leaders and assistant leaders will attend a Council meeting Nov. 21 at 8 p. m. at the First Presbyterian Church in Beaver.

During a recent meeting of leaders at the home of Mrs. Richard Graham of Ohio Township, Mrs. Elmer Gifford was appointed day camp director.

Contest rules and prizes for naming the new Girl Scout camp site on the Fombell farm near Zelienople were discussed. Each girl in each troop or Brownie Troop may submit one name. Leaders will be responsible for sending names to the Girl Scout office at Beaver.

Mrs. Richard Carr, field director, announced that Feb. 4 will be "Adventures In The Arts Day" at the Grace Evangelical Lutheran Church in Rochester. Miss Nancy DeMarco of Cleveland will conduct the program in story form involving crafts in the theme.

Chicago Police Seeking To Link Girl Abductions

CHICAGO (AP) — Police today sought to determine if Chicago's second girl abduction in three days is connected with the first, which ended in the child's death.

Peggy McCarthy, 7, was pulled into an old car Tuesday, near her home on the northwest side by a man who drove up and asked her for directions. She was returning to school from lunch.

She was taken to Robinson Woods Forest Preserve on the far northwest side where her assailant forced her to remove her clothing.

Gloria Kowalewicz, 9, was abducted Saturday morning on her way to Mass at a southside church Her body was found in suburban Palos Hills Forest Preserve with two bullets in the head.

Peggy's abductor was described as being about 5 feet 10, weighing 140 pounds, 35 years old, wearing a tan jacket and blue denim pants, horn rimmed glasses, and smoking a pipe.

The two points in the United States farthest apart are Attu Island, Alaska, and Key Largo, Fla. There is 5,509 miles between them.

Helped Send 2 To Chair

Convicted Atom Bomb Spy Goes Free After 9½ Years

NEW YORK (AP) — David Greenglass, the convicted atom bomb spy who helped send his sister and her husband to the electric chair, went free today after 9½ years in prison.

The short, meek-appearing man emerged at 8:35 a.m. from the federal house of detention. He was accompanied by his attorney, O. John Rogge, who ruled out any statement.

Greenglass appeared terrified as he confronted 60 newsmen and photographers and heard derogatory shouts from longshoremen and truckers attracted to the scene.

"Drop dead, you lousy Communist," a voice in the hostile crowd yelled as Greenglass and his attorney got into a taxicab and left for an undisclosed destination.

Greenglass accepted the slurs in silence.

Greenglass, now 38, was sentenced to 15 years in prison in 1951 for his part in the spy plot. He got time off for good behavior.

He served his term in the Federal Penitentiary at Lewisburg, Pa., and was transferred to the Federal House of Detention here last weekend to facilitate his release.

What are his plans? Does he have a job? No one is saying.

It was Greenglass' testimony that helped send his brother-in-law, Julius Rosenberg, and his sister, Ethel Rosenberg, to the Sing Sing Prison death chair.

Greenglass, a former Brooklyn machinist and U.S. Army technician, pleaded guilty for his part in the theft of U.S. atomic secrets, which were passed on to the Soviets. He was the government's key witness at the Rosenbergs' trial.

A radar expert, Morton Sobell, joined the Rosenbergs in denying their guilt and stood trial with them. All three were convicted. Sobell was sentenced to 30 years. The Rosenbergs were executed in June 1953.

Another member of the ring, Harry Gold, a Philadelphia biochemist, pleaded guilty and was sentenced to from 8 to 30 years in prison.

Sobell and Gold are still in prison.

Why did Greenglass steal atomic information? He said it was because he felt the Soviet Union—wartime ally of the United States—was entitled to it.

Greenglass was born on New York's lower East Side, and in his youth belonged to the Young Communist League. In 1943, he was inducted into the Army and a year later sent to Los Alamos, N.M., where he worked on the atomic bomb.

Greenglass provided a sketch of the bomb—the type dropped on Nagasaki, an expert said—for Rosenberg for relay to the Soviet Union. Greenglass was arrested in 1950.

The spy ring allegedly was headed by Rosenberg, but mastermincled by Anatoli Yakovlev, a former Soviet vice consul in New York. He disappeared before the espionage ring was uncovered.

The ring also reputedly had connections with Klaus Fuchs, the British scientist, who served a prison term in England. Fuchs, after his release, disappeared behind the Iron Curtain.

Hancock Vote Totals 86.5%

Hancock County's turnout at the polls in the Nov. 8 general election was 86.5 per cent of the 22,395 registered voters, according to results of a canvass of the ballots by County Court Clerk Donald S. Stewart. A total of 19,377 voted.

The canvass did not affect any of the winners in the unofficial results. Only a few minor changes resulted.

Stewart recounted the ballots cast in Precinct 8 in Newell on request of Roy E. Hart and Alvin R. Mooney, both Democrats. The winners in the Grant District constable race were Harold Davis and J. Carl Durham, both Republicans.

The recound changed the precinct totals from 216 to 209 for Davis, 410 to 417 for Durham, 239 to 229 for Hart, and 294 to 298 for Mooney.

The official totals were: Davis, 2,096; Durham, 2,115; Hart, 1,929 and Mooney, 1,916.

9 Air Crash Victims Brought From Peak

MANILA, Philippines (AP) — U. S. Marine corps helicopters today brought the bodies of nine air crash victims down from Mount Mariveles. The nine died in successive crashes Tuesday.

Among them were Rear Adm. Arthur F. Spring, commander of Subic Bay naval base, and Mrs. Spring. There were also five other American servicemen and two Filipino soldiers.

Ohio Senate's Democrats To Name Leader

State Sen. Arthur Blake of Martins Ferry, ranking Democratic member of the upper house of the Ohio General Assembly, issued a call today for a Democratic caucus next Monday noon in the general hearing room at the Capitol to elect a minority leader for the next biennium.

Blake sent telegrams to all 18 Democratic members of the Senate advising them of the meeting. He said election of the minority leader will comprise the principal item of business.

Selection of pages and clerks and filling of other appointive jobs will wait until after the organization meeting of the Republican majority, he said.

Blake, as the oldest Democratic senator in point of service, is in line for the minority leader's post in the next biennium, but he said he "will not seek it actively." He indicated two or three other senators may be candidates for the post.

Blake represents Columbiana County as part of the four-county 20th-22nd District. He has served 14 years, with 2 years remaining in his present 4-year term. He was elected to 6 two-year terms, then was named for 4 years in 1953 when the tenure of most state offices was doubled.

In the new General Assembly, Republicans will outnumber Democrats 20-18 in the Senate. In the last Senate, the Democrats held the edge 20-13. Sen. Frank King of Toledo was majority leader of the Democrats in the last session.

The 20th-22nd District will have two senators at the next biennium. Entitled to elect a second member because of periodic reapportionment that occurs once in 10 years, the district named Atty. Edmund Sargus of Bellaire, Democrat, over Atty. Donald Elliott of Rogers, Republican, in the Nov. 8 general election.

County Included In Farm Survey

The 1960 sample survey of agriculture will be conducted in Columbiana County during the next several weeks, it was announced today by the Bureau of the Census, U. S. Department of Commerce.

The 1960 sample survey will collect information on ownership and size of farms, acreage and harvest of crops, and livestock production and inventories. Information will be collected also on farm equipment, farm income, construction of new farm buildings, farm contracts, and farm operator debts. This survey will supplement information collected in the 1959 Census of Agriculture.

Farms in the county which will be covered in the sample survey were selected at random under the Census Bureau's scientific sampling program to provide a representative cross-section of all farms in the country. Information collected locally will be combined with that collected in other areas of the country to provide national estimates.

Local interviews for the sample survey will be conducted by J. Richard Stamp.

Lisbon Board To Ask Special Vote On Bonds

LISBON — The Board of Education Tuesday night decided to ask for a special election after March 1 to submit a bond issue for a proposed addition to the McKinley School.

The project, estimated to cost $300,000, would provide 14 classrooms and 2 restrooms at the rear of the elementary school.

The board will check with the county auditor's office on the amount of millage estimated at about 3 mills. The special issue would require 60 per cent approval for passage. The election was estimated to cost $750.

In other business, the board accepted the resignation of Edwin (Bud) Bucher as head football coach at Lisbon High School. Bucher said after the East Palestine game that he would resign at the end of football season.

The board gave the 7 building custodians a salary raise of $120 each per year, beginning Jan. 1 A job description and board policies for custodians were approved. Custodians requested a raise at the October meeting and the board said it would check neighboring schools and work out an adjustment if Lisbon salaries were found low.

Expenditures for the Lisbon High School library will be increased to meet the requirements of the North Central Association. It was raised from $623 to $734, or $111 per year. A new formula requires $2.50 for each of the first 200 students and $1.50 for next 300.

Previously it was just $1.75 per pupil.

Rates set by the County Budget Commission for taxing purposes in 1961 were listed at $24.40 per $1,000. This year it was $25.20, making it 80 cents less next year.

Walter Taylor, member, discussed the Ohio School Boards Association meeting he attended recently in Columbus as a delegate, along with Supt. Russell Armitage.

The board authorized expenses of $50 for Theodore Greener, high school band director, to attend the Mid-West Band Directors' conference in Chicago Dec. 13-16. Band parents provided $75, making a total of $125.

Supt. Armitage reported on testing programs that are underway and others not being held this term.

He also reported on the geography maps for the elementary buildings and was authorized to have a survey made and find out how much it will cost to set up a three-year program to replace them with more modern maps. The board might get some state money to help with this project.

He also requested a survey to determine the cost of sound-proofing the band room. Drapes for the gymnasium will cost the board only $473 as the state will pay matching funds.

The board authorized purchase of two loads of slag for the Lincoln School playground.

Supt. Armitage said the schools will go back to semester examinations in upper elementary and high school this year but in lower grades it will be optional for the present time.

The board refused the request of the Lions Club to hold wrestling shows in the high school gymnasium one Wednesday each month. Basketball commitments for the winter months were cited by the board.

Members will appear on a panel at the Lincoln School Parent-Teacher Association meeting Jan. 9 and will also attend the joint meeting of Leetonia, Columbiana, Lisbon and East Palestine boards Jan. 24 in Columbiana.

The next regular meeting will be Dec. 13 at 7:30 p.m.

East End Legion Plans Christmas Fete For Children

James Wright, first vice commander, reported the membership now totals 227. Jack C. Swan was accepted as a new member.

The post approved requests for new American flags from the Second Christian Church and St. Ann Catholic Church. The post also agreed to purchase a new flag for the pole at City Hall. Milne, Americanism chairman, will present a flag to the Salvation Army Sunday night.

Abandoned Barn Set Afire In Practice Drill

A crowd of several hundred watched Glenmoor volunteer firemen conduct a practice drill by burning an abandoned barn on Route 267 between Glenmoor and LaCroft Tuesday night.

Two trucks from Glenmoor were present, while Lacroft sent its emergency truck and a pumper. The Civil Defense unit was on standby alert. About 29 firemen and CD workers participated.

Glenmoor firemen will attend a meeting of the Columbiana County Firemen's Association tonight at 7:30 in Negley, Chief Robert Jones reported.

Old - fashioned cooks sometime made French Toast differently from the way it is prepared today. Instead of beating together the egg and milk as the coating for the bread to be fried, they dipped the bread slices first into the milk, then into the beaten egg.

'Mail Early' Drive Set

City Post Office To Take Christmas Job Application

Preparing to handle the Christmas mail rush, Postmaster Samuel W. Brown said today applications will be accepted Friday, Nov. 25, only, but the chance of many securing extra work is very slim.

The applications must be submitted in person on the lone day they will be accepted, he warned.

However, Brown said the department is restricted to using men who took an examination for the Post Office and received a passing grade.

The next preference will go to veterans with 10 per cent disability after which veterans with 5 per cent disability will receive the priority. Veterans not included in any other list are next in line, he explained.

Meanwhile, faced with the possibility the 1960 season will set a holiday mailing record, Brown said he is starting his "Mail Early" campaign.

Co-operation will aid in seeing that Christmas mail is delivered in time for the holidays, the postmaster explained. He offered several aids to help insure delivery:

1.—Check your Christmas card list carefully, making certain each address is complete with full name, street and number, city, zone where applicable, and state.

2.—Secure your stock now of heavy wrapping paper, corrugated cartons, strong cord and paper adhesive tape.

3.—A Christmas card or letter can be included in a gift package by adding the appropriate first class postage to the package.

'Great Expense' Cited In Uniform Traffic Ticket

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — East Cleveland's police chief says the initial expense to communities to set up machinery for a uniform-throughout-the-state traffic ticket would more than offset the practicality of such a ticket.

Police Chief H. S. Weaver told the Ohio Association of Chiefs of Police Tuesday that "a uniform ticket would mean a great expense to many communities, especially the large ones." Weaver said many communities already have extensive machinery to process tickets, and the cost of installing new machinery or modifying the existing facilities could run into millions of dollars.

The Ohio State Bar Association has suggested establishing a uniform traffic ticket, and the suggestion is to be presented to the Ohio Supreme Court.

Weaver said the police chiefs' association meeting was held to again encourage chiefs to file briefs with the Supreme Court expressing their opinion on the uniform tickets idea.

Lisbon Board To Ask Special Vote On Bonds

LISBON — The Board of Education Tuesday night decided to ask for a special election after March 1 to submit a bond issue for a proposed addition to the McKinley School.

The project, estimated to cost $300,000, would provide 14 classrooms and 2 restrooms at the rear of the elementary school.

The board will check with the county auditor's office on the amount of millage estimated at about 3 mills. The special issue would require 60 per cent approval for passage. The election was estimated to cost $750.

In other business, the board accepted the resignation of Edwin (Bud) Bucher as head football coach at Lisbon High School. Bucher said after the East Palestine game that he would resign at the end of football season.

The board gave the 7 building custodians a salary raise of $120 each per year, beginning Jan. 1 A job description and board policies for custodians were approved. Custodians requested a raise at the October meeting and the board said it would check neighboring schools and work out an adjustment if Lisbon salaries were found low.

The custodians cited two teachers raises but nothing for them.

Expenditures for the Lisbon High School library will be increased to meet the requirements of the North Central Association. It was raised from $623 to $734, or $111 per year. A new formula requires $2.50 for each of the first 200 students and $1.50 for next 300.

Previously it was just $1.75 per pupil.

Rates set by the County Budget Commission for taxing purposes in 1961 were listed at $24.40 per $1,000. This year it was $25.20, making it 80 cents less next year.

Walter Taylor, member, discussed the Ohio School Boards Association meeting he attended recently in Columbus as a delegate, along with Supt. Russell Armitage.

The board authorized expenses of $50 for Theodore Greener, high school band director, to attend the Mid-West Band Directors' conference in Chicago Dec. 13-16. Band parents provided $75, making a total of $125.

Supt. Armitage reported on testing programs that are underway and others not being held this term.

He also reported on the geography maps for the elementary buildings and was authorized to have a survey made and find out how much it will cost to set up a three-year program to replace them with more modern maps. The board might get some state money to help with this project.

He also requested a survey to determine the cost of sound-proofing the band room. Drapes for the gymnasium will cost the board only $473 as the state will pay matching funds.

The board authorized purchase of two loads of slag for the Lincoln School playground.

Supt. Armitage said the schools will go back to semester examinations in upper elementary and high school this year but in lower grades it will be optional for the present time.

The board refused the request of the Lions Club to hold wrestling shows in the high school gymnasium one Wednesday each month. Basketball commitments for the winter months were cited by the board.

Members will appear on a panel at the Lincoln School Parent-Teacher Association meeting Jan. 9 and will also attend the joint meeting of Leetonia, Columbiana, Lisbon and East Palestine boards Jan. 24 in Columbiana.

The next regular meeting will be Dec. 13 at 7:30 p.m.

East End Legion Plans Christmas Fete For Children

James Wright, first vice commander, reported the membership now totals 227. Jack C. Swan was accepted as a new member.

The post approved requests for new American flags from the Second Christian Church and St. Ann Catholic Church. The post also agreed to purchase a new flag for the pole at City Hall. Milne, Americanism chairman, will present a flag to the Salvation Army Sunday night.

Abandoned Barn Set Afire In Practice Drill

A crowd of several hundred watched Glenmoor volunteer firemen conduct a practice drill by burning an abandoned barn on Route 267 between Glenmoor and LaCroft Tuesday night.

Two trucks from Glenmoor were present, while Lacroft sent its emergency truck and a pumper. The Civil Defense unit was on standby alert. About 29 firemen and CD workers participated.

Glenmoor firemen will attend a meeting of the Columbiana County Firemen's Association tonight at 7:30 in Negley, Chief Robert Jones reported.

Old - fashioned cooks sometime made French Toast differently from the way it is prepared today. Instead of beating together the egg and milk as the coating for the bread to be fried, they dipped the bread slices first into the milk, then into the beaten egg.

'Mail Early' Drive Set

City Post Office To Take Christmas Job Application

Preparing to handle the Christmas mail rush, Postmaster Samuel W. Brown said today applications will be accepted Friday, Nov. 25, only, but the chance of many securing extra work is very slim.

The applications must be submitted in person on the lone day they will be accepted, he warned.

However, Brown said the department is restricted to using men who took an examination for the Post Office and received a passing grade.

The next preference will go to veterans with 10 per cent disability after which veterans with 5 per cent disability will receive the priority. Veterans not included in any other list are next in line, he explained.

Meanwhile, faced with the possibility the 1960 season will set a holiday mailing record, Brown said he is starting his "Mail Early" campaign.

Co-operation will aid in seeing that Christmas mail is delivered in time for the holidays, the postmaster explained. He offered several aids to help insure delivery:

1.—Check your Christmas card list carefully, making certain each address is complete with full name, street and number, city, zone where applicable, and state.

2.—Secure your stock now of heavy wrapping paper, corrugated cartons, strong cord and paper adhesive tape.

3.—A Christmas card or letter can be included in a gift package by adding the appropriate first class postage to the package.

5.—Use only first class postage on Christmas cards. Cards sent first class or by air mail may include personal messages, and also receive full forwarding and return service. Include your return address on every envelope.

Brown said copies of Pamphlet No. 2 covering proper packaging and wrapping of parcels are available at the Post Office. Free labels marked for either local or out-of-town delivery also are available, he added.

AL Must Face New Growing Pains

By ED CORRIGAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—The American League goes into its expansion meeting Thursday with baseball Commissioner Ford Frick casting a skeptical eye on its plans and Congress threatening to take antimonopoly action if a club isn't placed in Los Angeles.

The league wants to place a team in Los Angeles next year and will work on an attempt to complete the proposal and put it to the joint major league meeting in St. Louis on Dec. 7.

Rule 1 of the major league agreement which prohibits the invasion of territory of one league by the other without the unanimous approval of both leagues, will come up for amendment. The American League is expected to propose the amendment and the National probably will veto it. That leaves the deciding vote in Frick's hands.

Frick said he would not vote for the amendment unless "a fair and workable plan is agreed upon by both leagues."

He obviously was referring to the Hank Greenberg syndicate which intends to operate in Los Angeles. Frick maintained that Walter O'Malley, who moved the Dodgers to Los Angeles, has spent about a million dollars for the shift and is entitled to get some of it back from any AL team that wishes to share the territory.

"Greenberg's outfit wants to pay nothing, do nothing," said Frick. "I won't stand for it."

If the matter cannot be resolved in time to open the '61 season, there is a possibility that the AL might operate with only nine teams—the old seven, plus the new franchise in Washington and the former Washington club in St. Paul-Minneapolis.

The specter of government action loomed. Sen. Estes Kefauver, D-Tenn., chairman of the antimonopoly committee, warned against any delay in expansion.

"Congress will regulate baseball as strictly a business in interstate commerce if the baseball people break faith with my committee and the public," he said.

Elks To Honor Purdue Star

Allen's Teammates Among Guests For Nov. 25 Event

The Elks Club will take on a football atmosphere Nov. 25 when Bernie Allen, the All-American candidate from Purdue, is honored.

Allen was the hero of two major upsets on the Big 10 front this season, leading Purdue to victories over Ohio State and Minnesota.

The victory over Minnesota knocked the Gophers from first place in the national standings and kept them from sailing through the Big 10 season undefeated.

The versatile Allen passes, runs, kicks field goals and extra points and does the punting for the Boilermakers.

Purdue will be well represented on Nov. 25. With Allen will be two teammates, fullback Tom Yakubowski of Adena, who scored one of the touchdowns against Minnesota, and Tom Bloom, a halfback from Weirton.

Allen's backfield coach, Bob DeMoss, a former quarterback at Purdue, will be guest speaker and will screen movies of the Purdue-Ohio State game.

Red Donley, sports director of WSTV-TV in Steubenville who also broadcasts Pittsburgh Steeler games, will be the master of ceremonies.

High school coaches from the district also will be guests and bring two of their senior players with them.

Local boys who are playing college football are also on the long guest list. They include Jim Potts, Bowling Green; Nick Musuraca, Denison; Pat Cooper, Washington & Jefferson; Joe Leigh, Hiram, and Bob Mackall, Northwestern.

Tops Among Small Colleges

Ohio U. Increases Lead

By The Associated Press

Ohio University's conquest of Bowling Green in a battle of the unbeatens solidified the Bobcats' hold on first place today in The Associated Press' rankings of small college football teams.

The Bobcats came from behind to win 14-7 Saturday for their ninth victory of the year. This earned them the Mid-American title. They close out their season Saturday against once-beaten Southern Illinois.

Four of the eight selectors on the Associated Press panel picked Ohio U. for first place. The Bobcats piled up 74 points on the usual scoring of 10 for first, 9 for second, etc.

Lenoir Rhyne (9-0) was second with two first placers and 43 points and Florida A & M (7-0) was third with one first placer and 32 points. Thus the first three teams of a week ago maintained their positions. Albright (Pa.) College (8-0) received one first place vote but didn't make the first ten.

Bowling Green (7-1) fell from fourth to eighth place. The Falcons at least have the distinction of being the only beaten club in the first ten.

Tufts, which lost 22-7 to Lafayette, fell clear out of the list. The Jumbos were sixth a week ago. The West Chester (Pa.) Teachers, (8-0) who closed out their season by trouncing Bloomsburg (Pa.) 42-13, movd into the select set in ninth position.

The other members of the top ten included 4th, Iowa State Teachers (9-0); 5th, Whitworth (9-0); 6th, Fresno State (8-0), 7th, Humboldt State (9-0), and 10th, Muskingum (8-0).

The top teams with first place votes and rating points:

1.	Ohio U. 4)	74
2.	Lenoir Ryne (2)	43
3.	Florida A & M (1)	32
4.	Iowa St. Teachers	30
5.	Whitworth	29
6.	Fresno State	24
7.	Humboldt State	22
8.	Bowling Green	21
9.	West Chester (Pa.)	17
10.	Muskingum	15

NEW YORK (AP)—The American League goes into its expansion meeting Thursday with baseball Commissioner Ford Frick casting a skeptical eye on its plans and Congress threatening to take antimonopoly action if a club isn't placed in Los Angeles.

The league wants to place a team in Los Angeles next year and will work on an attempt to complete the proposal and put it to the joint major league meeting in St. Louis on Dec. 7.

Rule 1 of the major league agreement which prohibits the invasion of territory of one league by the other without the unanimous approval of both leagues, will come up for amendment. The American League is expected to propose the amendment and the National probably will veto it. That leaves the deciding vote in Frick's hands.

Frick said he would not vote for the amendment unless "a fair and workable plan is agreed upon by both leagues."

He obviously was referring to the Hank Greenberg syndicate which intends to operate in Los Angeles. Frick maintained that Walter O'Malley, who moved the Dodgers to Los Angeles, has spent about a million dollars for the shift and is entitled to get some of it back from any AL team that wishes to share the territory.

"Greenberg's outfit wants to pay nothing, do nothing," said Frick. "I won't stand for it."

If the matter cannot be resolved in time to open the '61 season, there is a possibility that the AL might operate with only nine teams—the old seven, plus the new franchise in Washington and the former Washington club in St. Paul-Minneapolis.

The specter of government action loomed. Sen. Estes Kefauver, D-Tenn., chairman of the antimonopoly committee, warned against any delay in expansion.

"Congress will regulate baseball as strictly a business in interstate commerce if the baseball people break faith with my committee and the public," he said.

Tickets For Potter Grid Banquet Placed On Sale

A supply of 300 tickets has gone on sale for the annual East Liverpool High School football banquet to be sponsored by the Blue and White Nonpareil Club Dec. 5 at 6 p. m. in St. Aloysius Parochial School.

Al DeLuca, head grid coach of St. Vincent College, Latrobe, Pa., will be principal speaker. Toastmaster will be George F. Mueller, manager of the local J. C. Penney Co. store, noted for his humor at sports banquets.

Tickets at $2.50 each are on sale at the Travelers Hotel, Heimie's and Burbick Hardware store. Tickets also may be purchased from J. Allen Montgomery, Nonpareil vice president, and Ed Hester, banquet chairman. Reservations must be made by Dec. 1, Hester emphasized.

At the club's meeting Tuesday night in the YMCA, Coach Lou Venditti said third - ranked Alliance High's great halfback, Charlie King, will be the best runner Potter fans will see all year.

The Aviators, coached by Mel Knowlton, invade Patterson Field Friday night for East Liverpool's finale of the 1960 campaign. Discussing the Potter-Canton Central game Saturday, Venditti said the Crusaders presented the best defensive squad the Potters have met in two years. Movies of the canton game were screened.

Montgomery conducted brief business in the absence of Ralph Musuraca, president. Coach Bill Erlitz reported on his unbeaten football squad of Westgate Junior High School, pointing out there were 26 freshmen on the squad, and at least 15 should develop into fine varsity players. Next meeting will be Tuesday night at 8.

Muskingum Coach Due At Beaver Local Grid Fete

Ed Sherman, head football coach of Muskingum College, will be principal speaker for the annual banquet honoring Beaver Local High's varsity Nov. 29 at 6 p. m. in the school in Williamsport.

Muskingum, 10th ranked among the nation's small colleges, is leading the Ohio Conference with an undefeated record.

Highlighting the program will be the presentation of the first annual Most Valuable Player award to a member of the Beaver Local squad. Trophies also will be awarded to the "best" offensive and defensive backs and linemen.

The Beaver Local Boosters Club is sponsoring the banquet. The cheerleaders will be honored along with the football squad.

Selection of the most valuable player will be decided by Coach Jack O'Rourke, and his staff of Tom McCall, Flody Suarez and Walter Wolfe. Winners of the other trophies will be decided by the squadmen.

The Beavers finished this year's campaign with a 7-3 season record in O'Rourke's third year as head coach. It was the first winning season for the Beavers.

Syracuse University cross-country coach Bob Grieve calls junior Joe Francello of Arlington, N. J., one of the finest distance runners he has ever coached.

Elks To Honor Purdue Star

Allen's Teammates Among Guests For Nov. 25 Event

The Elks Club will take on a football atmosphere Nov. 25 when Bernie Allen, the All-American candidate from Purdue, is honored.

Allen was the hero of two major upsets on the Big 10 front this season, leading Purdue to victories over Ohio State and Minnesota.

The victory over Minnesota knocked the Gophers from first place in the national standings and kept them from sailing through the Big 10 season undefeated.

The versatile Allen passes, runs, kicks field goals and extra points and does the punting for the Boilermakers.

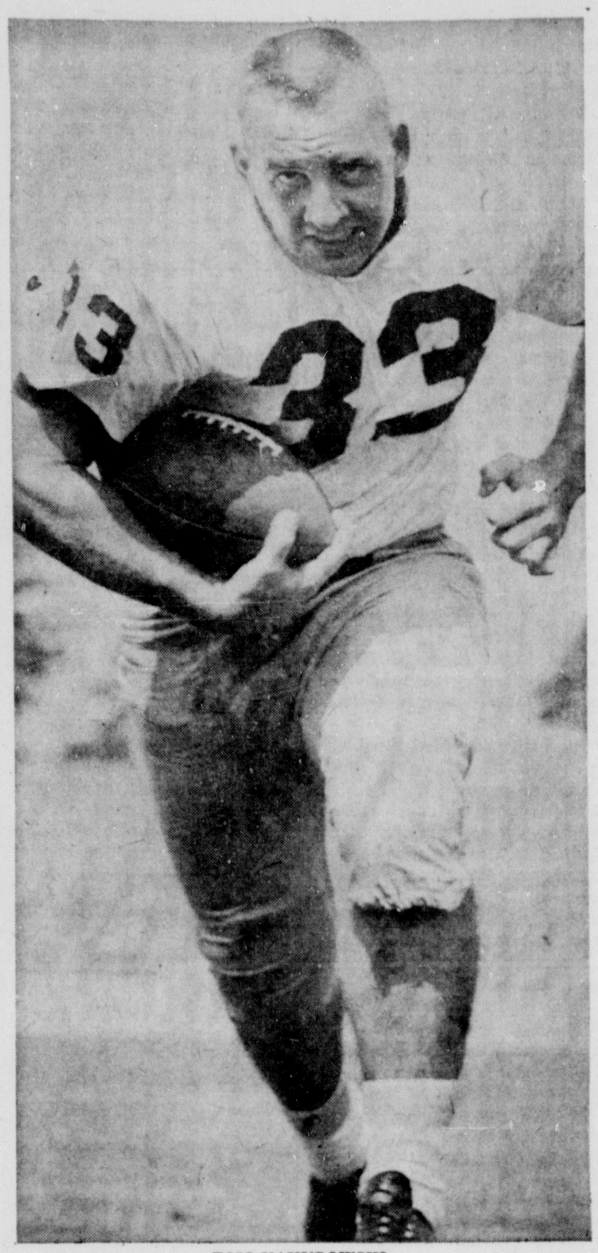
Purdue will be well represented on Nov. 25. With Allen will be two teammates, fullback Tom Yakubowski of Adena, who scored one of the touchdowns against Minnesota, and Tom Bloom, a halfback from Weirton.

Allen's backfield coach, Bob DeMoss, a former quarterback at Purdue, will be guest speaker and will screen movies of the Purdue-Ohio State game.

Red Donley, sports director of WSTV-TV in Steubenville who also broadcasts Pittsburgh Steeler games, will be the master of ceremonies.

High school coaches from the district also will be guests and bring two of their senior players with them.

Local boys who are playing college football are also on the long guest list. They include Jim Potts, Bowling Green; Nick Musuraca, Denison; Pat Cooper, Washington & Jefferson; Joe Leigh, Hiram, and Bob Mackall, Northwestern.



TOM YAKUBOWSKI
Purdue Star Will Appear At Dinner Here.

County Cage Officials Will Meet Tonight At 7

The Columbiana County Basketball Officials Assn. will meet tonight at 7 in East Liverpool High School. Ed Adkins is president. An organizational and charter meeting of a Columbiana County Football Officials Assn. will follow at 8. Any future grid officials are invited, Jerry Russell of Wellsville announced.

Giants Near Signing Of Two Jap Players

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)— Horace Stoneham, owner of the San Francisco Giants, said Tuesday the Giants are on the verge of signing a Japanese pitcher and third baseman.

Red Heads, All-Stars Clash At M-A Tonight

The "battle of the sexes" will take place tonight at Memorial Auditorium when the All-American Red Heads, a touring girls basketball team, meet the East Liverpool All-Stars.

Game time for the main event is 9 p. m. with a preliminary between ex-high school and college standouts from Wellsville and Midland meeting in a preliminary at 7:30. Tickets are $1 for adults and 50 cents for students.

The game is being sponsored by the East Liverpool Jaycees with proceeds going for the Youth Activities and Toys for Tots program.

The Red Heads, playing men's teams and men's rules, average over 125 victories a season playing all over the United States.

Tops Among Small Colleges

Ohio U. Increases Lead

By The Associated Press

Ohio University's conquest of Bowling Green in a battle of the unbeatens solidified the Bobcats' hold on first place today in The Associated Press' rankings of small college football teams.

The Bobcats came from behind to win 14-7 Saturday for their ninth victory of the year. This earned them the Mid-American title. They close out their season Saturday against once-beaten Southern Illinois.

Four of the eight selectors on the Associated Press panel picked Ohio U. for first place. The Bobcats piled up 74 points on the usual scoring of 10 for first, 9 for second, etc.

Lenoir Rhyne (9-0) was second with two first placers and 43 points and Florida A & M (7-0) was third with one first placer and 32 points. Thus the first three teams of a week ago maintained their positions. Albright (Pa.) College (8-0) received one first place vote but didn't make the first ten.

Bowling Green (7-1) fell from fourth to eighth place. The Falcons at least have the distinction of being the only beaten club in the first ten.

Tufts, which lost 22-7 to Lafayette, fell clear out of the list. The Jumbos were sixth a week ago. The West Chester (Pa.) Teachers, (8-0) who closed out their season by trouncing Bloomsburg (Pa.) 42-13, movd into the select set in ninth position.

The other members of the top ten included 4th, Iowa State Teachers (9-0); 5th, Whitworth (9-0); 6th, Fresno State (8-0), 7th, Humboldt State (9-0), and 10th, Muskingum (8-0).

The top teams with first place votes and rating points:

1.	Ohio U. 4)	74
2.	Lenoir Ryne (2)	43
3.	Florida A & M (1)	32
4.	Iowa St. Teachers	30
5.	Whitworth	29
6.	Fresno State	24
7.	Humboldt State	22
8.	Bowling Green	21
9.	West Chester (Pa.)	17
10.	Muskingum	15

Baylor Breaks All Records With 71

Lakers' Star Breaks Own Mark Of 64

By TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer

"Give it to Baylor. Give it to Baylor."

About six minutes were left to play and the fans wanted Baylor to break the NBA record high of 64 points for one game that Baylor himself had set little over a year ago, Nov. 8, 1959, against the Boston Celtics.

Break it the former Seattle All-America did. He finished with 71 points on 28 field goals on 48 attempts and 15 of 19 free throws. When he was taken out with 28 seconds left he received an ovation.

It was incidental that Los Angeles beat the Knicks 123-103 in the feature of the Garden doubleheader after the Detroit Pistons had wiped out a 20-point deficit to beat the Boston Celtics 115-114 in overtime.

Baylor's feat also overshadowed the 44 points scored by Oscar Robertson in Cincinnati's 124-115 victory over Philadelphia, the Warriors' second straight defeat after a nine-game winning streak.

"I got very nervous when they announced I had set a Garden record at 59 points," Baylor said in the dressing room. "They tried to feed me so much when the crowd started chanting that I asked the boys to let me make my own plays."

He scored 34 of his 71 points in the first half.

Brown Nears Rushing Mark Set By Motley

CLEVELAND (AP) — The 173 yards rolled up by Jim Brown of the Cleveland Browns against the St. Louis Cardinals puts the big fullback within shouting distance of the career ground-gaining record set by Marion Motley.

Motley's team record of 4,712 yards was set in the eight seasons from 1946 to 1953. Brown's 173 yards Sunday—the biggest total for a single game in the National Football League this season—boosted his career total to 4,492 yards. Brown is in his fourth year. With five games left this season, he seems a cinch to erase Motley's record.

Brown's total of 870 attempts already has passed Motley's career total of 826.

Jim leads the league this season both in total yards gained—694—and in yards per try—5.6.

He was bothered by injuries earlier in the season. First it was a shoulder bruise in an exhibition game, then he suffered an ankle sprain. Brown still was bothered by the sprain when he had his big day Sunday.

Asked about that performance, Brown said he got a big lift before the game when Coach Paul Brown told him he would be calling on Jim a lot during the game.

Said Jim: "You get keyed up when you know they're depending on you. It got me in just the right frame of mind. A lot of things enter into good days and bad days but that mental attitude probably is the big thing."

Red Sox Sign Coaches

BOSTON (AP)—The Boston Red Sox today announced that coaches Billy Herman, Sal Maglie and Rudy York have been signed for the 1961 season.

Dick Sisler, whose 1950 home run won the National League pennant for the Phils, will coach with Cincinnati in 1961.

Conerly Still Seen Doubtful

NEW YORK (AP) — Quarterbacks—the one he has to face and the one he may not have—are the bane of New York Giants Coach Jim Lee Howell today as he prepares his team for Sunday's crucial National Football League game here against Philadelphia.

The Giants trail the Eastern Conference-leading Eagles by a half game, and must play them again the following Sunday in Philadelphia. A double victory is almost a must if the Giants hope to win their third straight conference title.

The quarterback he must face is Norm Van Brocklin, the 11-year NFL veteran who has hustled the Eagles to six straight victories after an opening loss, later avenged, to Cleveland.

What worries Howell even more is the one he may not have—12-year veteran Charley Conerly, who twisted ligaments in his left knee in Sunday's 27-24 victory over Pittsburgh. Doctors were to determine later if Conerly might be fit to face the Eagles.

George Shaw will get the call if Conerly is unable to play.

Penn State Is Given Nod Over Pitt, Mules Picked

By DON WEISS
Associated Press Sports Writer

A 36-13-1 record last week made grandpa's over-all percentage a sprightly .729 on a 318-118 won-lost mark.

Well, someone once called persistence a virtue, so it'll be like this in college football this weekend:

Missouri over Kansas: The alumni association is still pressing for that dues check, but this one is based on merits. Any Tiger bunch that can beat Oklahoma can beat Kansas—at least 7-6.

Minnesota over Wisconsin: The goons who were after Murray Warmath's wig settle for an 8-1 season and a tie for the Big Ten title.

Iowa over Notre Dame: The guy who gets the Irish award is the one who had the foresight to schedule California for Notre Dame's opener. He shoulda quit there. Flashing Iowa makes it eight straight Notre Dame losses.

Duke over North Carolina: On to the Orange Bowl.

Washington over Washington State: Next to the Big Five title and a Rose Bowl bid, Washington likes beating State best.

Penn State over Pitt: Play-it-safe Pitt doesn't get a chance to tie this time.

EAST — Clemson over Boston College, Rutgers over Columbia, Princeton over Dartmouth, Villanova over Xavier (Ohio).

MIDWEST — Michigan State over Detroit, Illinois over Northwestern, Ohio State over Michigan, Oklahoma over Nebraska, Purdue over Indiana, Colorado over Oklahoma State, Miami (Ohio) over Cincinnati.

SOUTHWEST — Rice over Texas Christian, Baylor over Southern Methodist.

Hays Says Bucks Rebounding Well From Iowa Loss

Ken Johnson, a 160-pound sophomore, filled in for defensive safety man Ron Houck. Houck missed practice for the second straight day because of a deep thigh bruise, and Hayes said Johnson is a possible starter for Saturday's season finale.

Fullback Bob Ferguson appeared to be running at nearly full speed despite a thigh bruise suffered against Iowa, and Hayes said Ferguson probably will start Saturday.

No National Anthem? Players In The Band

NAPA, Calif. (AP)—The School Board was set to beat the band. How come, board members wanted to know, "The Star-Spangled Banner" wasn't played at St. Helena High School football games?

Supt. Melville O. Johns explained: Most of the football players are in the band. And when the varsity takes the field, the junior varsity takes showers.

Penn State Is Given Nod Over Pitt, Mules Picked

By DON WEISS
Associated Press Sports Writer

A 36-13-1 record last week made grandpa's over-all percentage a sprightly .729 on a 318-118 won-lost mark.

Well, someone once called persistence a virtue, so it'll be like this in college football this weekend:

Missouri over Kansas: The alumni association is still pressing for that dues check, but this one is based on merits. Any Tiger bunch that can beat Oklahoma can beat Kansas—at least 7-6.

Minnesota over Wisconsin: The goons who were after Murray Warmath's wig settle for an 8-1 season and a tie for the Big Ten title.

Iowa over Notre Dame: The guy who gets the Irish award is the one who had the foresight to schedule California for Notre Dame's opener. He shoulda quit there. Flashing Iowa makes it eight straight Notre Dame losses.

Duke over North Carolina: On to the Orange Bowl.

Washington over Washington State: Next to the Big Five title and a Rose Bowl bid, Washington likes beating State best.

Penn State over Pitt: Play-it-safe Pitt doesn't get a chance to tie this time.

MIDWEST — Michigan State over Detroit, Illinois over Northwestern, Ohio State over Michigan, Oklahoma over Nebraska, Purdue over Indiana, Colorado over Oklahoma State, Miami (Ohio) over Cincinnati.

Hunters, taking to the fields on the first day of the small game season, are the ones who have the best luck, according to observations.

Wild game, particularly this year's crop that has never heard the popping of guns, just sit tight and wait to be forced to move from their hiding places.

After the first two days of the season some of the smart bunnies take to groundhob holes and the cock pheasants take to their heels.

If you are approached by the game protector and he requests the eyeballs from the rabbit's head, don't think he has "flipped his lid".

It has been discovered in recent years that the age of a rabbit can be told by the weight of the eyeballs. Hence, the eyeballs will be preserved in a solution and then turned over to one of the game technicians who will endeavor to come up with some sort of an answer.

For the past two decades, game protectors have been relieved of law enforcement duties as of prime importance. Gathering information for game biologists has been an annual assignment along with other responsibilities.

HERE ARE some of the things game protectors have been doing over a period of time: making hunting bag checks, fishermen creel census, taking deer jaws and ovaries from the does, collecting blood samples from all wild animals, including rats and chipmunks, making game surveys both audio and visual, collecting wings and tails from grouse, wings from quail, paws from squirrels, waterfowl surveys, banding nesting doves, arrange land development on private lands for the benefit of wildlife, inspect plant survival, check all known cases of stream pollution, assist in test netting, rabbit trapping, removal of nuisance beavers, work with related conservation agencies, make speeches when asked to do so if he can't squirm out of it, secure sponsorship for teachers to the Conservation Laboratory, attend sportsmen meetings, district and state meetings, promote hunter safety programs, report all accidental shootings, collect fish or game tags, etc., make out yards of reports, take at least one day off each week although allowed two. And, in addition, he must still see that the fish and game laws are enforced.

Kicking Star Disappears? Takes Youths To Game

By REX THOMAS

AUBURN, Ala. (AP) — The night before he set a new collegiate field goal record, Ed Dyas disappeared from the Auburn campus.

Spectators at a high school football game spotted him later in the evening surrounded by seven small boys he had rounded up and taken to the game as his guests.

That's typical of the studious pre-med student whose spectacular performance against Georgia last Saturday won him acclaim as the Associated Press' Back of the Week.

The 205-pound fullback from Mobile, Ala., kicked three field goals to give the Tigers a 9-6 victory over Georgia and establish a national record for the most field goals in a college career—16.

Dyas has booted 12 of them this year, another collegiate record. He has kicked at least one in each of Auburn's eight games.

Despite his kicking accuracy, the mild-mannered gridiron hero, who turned 21 Friday, isn't essentially a field goal specialist. He has gained 393 yards rushing for a 5.2-yard average, and has scored two touchdowns.

Despite his success, Dyas is modest. When a mixup in records made it appear that he had broken the career field goal record earlier than he did, it was Dyas himself who corrected it.

Scholastically, he's as good as he is on the football field. His grade average is just shy of "A". He will complete his work in 3½ years instead of the usual four.

One Death, Two Woundings Bared As Hunting Opens

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—The opening of the hunting season brought one death and two woundings in Montgomery County Tuesday.

A muskrat trapper, John W. Rainer, 49, of near Dayton, drowned in the Miami River near his home when his homemade rowboat upset while he was crossing the river to check some of his traps.

A health physicist at Wright-Patterson Air Force Base—Adell Kirk, 33, of Dayton—was wounded seriously when he was shot in the head by hunters while he was taking water samples from a well on the bases. Officials said Kirk was out of sight of the two hunters at the time, and they were not held.

When a rabbit ran out of a bush, three hunters shot at it at the same time, and instead hit their companion in the legs. Officials said Harold D. Rhoades, 37, of Troy became separated from his fellows and was hidden in some brush when the three men fired, striking Rhoades. He was in good condition.

Total Offense, Passing Leaders Eye Final Games

By The Associated Press

Mel Melin of Washington State and Harold Stephens of Hardin-Simmons, the nation's total offense and passing leaders in major college football, play their final games of the season Saturday. Chances are neither will be on top when their rivals finish.

Melin, with gains of 1,487 yards to show for nine games, faces the task of piling up enough yardage to stand off Bill Kilmer of UCLA, now fourth with 1,340 yards, who will have two games to play after Melin is all through.

If Melin should make it, Stephens probably will lose his passing lead right there. Stephens has completed 113 of 206 passes for 1,039 yards. Melin is second with 104 completions for 1,450 yards.

Other individual offense leaders are Bob Gaiters of New Mexico State and Dick Fitzsimmons of Denver in punting. Gaiters has run for 1,071 yards in eight games. Fitzsimmons has averaged 44.3 yards on 24 kicks.

Grid Injuries Have Claimed 13 During '60

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Thirteen players have received fatal injuries as a direct result of 1960 football competition, compared with 16 at this time last season.

So says the annual mid season report of Dr. Floyd R. Eastwood of Los Angeles State College, reporting for the American Football Coaches Association's Committee on Injuries and Fatalities.

Dr. Eastwood said Tuesday night that one reason for the decline may be the delay his committee experiences in receiving reports of injuries sustained in sandlot games. Five sandlot fatalities had occurred at this time last year, but only one has been reported so far in 1960.

Five football deaths last year were due to heat stroke, while two have been reported this season.

Maryland End Named Lineman-Of-The-Week

By TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer

That play clinched Lineman of the Week honors today for the lanky Maryland end in the weekly Associated Press poll of sports writers and broadcasters.

The winning touchdown capped a tremendous game by Collins, a 6-3, 200-pound junior from Williamstown, Pa. He smeared North Carolina plays time and again. At one stage, when Maryland put on a goal-line stand, he made three of the four tackles that stopped the Tar Heels on the 2.

On another occasion he made five consecutive tackles, on three of them dumping the ball carrier for a loss. In addition he punted for a 36.5 yard average.

Other linemen nominated this week:

Tackles — Bob Lilly, Texas Christian; Jerry Mays, Southern Methodist; Jerry Beabout, Iowa.

Guards — Monte Lee, Texas, Bobby Lively, Rice; Dick Clocke, Arizona State Univ.

Centers—Wayne Harris, Arkansas; E. J. Holub, Texas Tech; Roy McKasson, Washington.

Brown Takes First Place In Rushing

The former Syracuse star enjoyed his best day of the season last Sunday when he clipped off 173 yards on 28 carries to boost his season's total to 694 yards on 123 carries for an average of 5.6 yards.

Jimmy Taylor of Green Bay, who led a week ago, has gained 661 yards on 143 attempts for a 4.6 average.

Green Bay's Paul Hornung needs only 39 points in five games to better the individual one-season scoring record. The former Notre Dame star has scored eight touchdowns, 25 successive extra points, and has booted 9 of 17 field goals for an even 100 points.

41-Year-Old Agajanian Not Planning To Retire

By BOB MYERS
Associated Press Sports Writer

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Considering that some of his teammates were only 3 or 4 years old when he started in professional football, Ben Agajanian must be regarded as an amazing article.

Now 41 and a trim 200 pounds, Ben is the place-kicking specialist for the Los Angeles Chargers of the American Football League.

He is the oldest player in pro ranks in the country, and in his 18 years he has played in every major and bush league in the U.S.

Aggie shrugged off reports he might retire.

"Quit? I'm having too much fun," he said Tuesday.

His greatest years, in widely separated stretches, were with the New York Giants in 1950-51-52 and 1955-56-57 and part of 1958.

The Philadelphia Eagles, Washington Redskins, the Rams and the Los Angeles Dons of the old All-America Conference, Pittsburgh, the Hollywood Bears (1942) — Agajanian has played for the best.

He decided early that he would last longer as a kicking specialist.

A father once asked him how to make a placekicker out of his son.

"Cut off his toes," answered Ben.

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—The opening of the hunting season brought one death and two woundings in Montgomery County Tuesday.

A muskrat trapper, John W. Rainer, 49, of near Dayton, drowned in the Miami River near his home when his homemade rowboat upset while he was crossing the river to check some of his traps.

A health physicist at Wright-Patterson Air Force Base—Adell Kirk, 33, of Dayton—was wounded seriously when he was shot in the head by hunters while he was taking water samples from a well on the bases. Officials said Kirk was out of sight of the two hunters at the time, and they were not held.

When a rabbit ran out of a bush, three hunters shot at it at the same time, and instead hit their companion in the legs. Officials said Harold D. Rhoades, 37, of Troy became separated from his fellows and was hidden in some brush when the three men fired, striking Rhoades. He was in good condition.

Total Offense, Passing Leaders Eye Final Games

By The Associated Press

Mel Melin of Washington State and Harold Stephens of Hardin-Simmons, the nation's total offense and passing leaders in major college football, play their final games of the season Saturday. Chances are neither will be on top when their rivals finish.

Melin, with gains of 1,487 yards to show for nine games, faces the task of piling up enough yardage to stand off Bill Kilmer of UCLA, now fourth with 1,340 yards, who will have two games to play after Melin is all through.

If Melin should make it, Stephens probably will lose his passing lead right there. Stephens has completed 113 of 206 passes for 1,039 yards. Melin is second with 104 completions for 1,450 yards.

Other individual offense leaders are Bob Gaiters of New Mexico State and Dick Fitzsimmons of Denver in punting. Gaiters has run for 1,071 yards in eight games. Fitzsimmons has averaged 44.3 yards on 24 kicks.

Grid Injuries Have Claimed 13 During '60

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Thirteen players have received fatal injuries as a direct result of 1960 football competition, compared with 16 at this time last season.

So says the annual mid season report of Dr. Floyd R. Eastwood of Los Angeles State College, reporting for the American Football Coaches Association's Committee on Injuries and Fatalities.

Dr. Eastwood said Tuesday night that one reason for the decline may be the delay his committee experiences in receiving reports of injuries sustained in sandlot games. Five sandlot fatalities had occurred at this time last year, but only one has been reported so far in 1960.

Five football deaths last year were due to heat stroke, while two have been reported this season.

Maryland End Named Lineman-Of-The-Week

By TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer

That play clinched Lineman of the Week honors today for the lanky Maryland end in the weekly Associated Press poll of sports writers and broadcasters.

The winning touchdown capped a tremendous game by Collins, a 6-3, 200-pound junior from Williamstown, Pa. He smeared North Carolina plays time and again. At one stage, when Maryland put on a goal-line stand, he made three of the four tackles that stopped the Tar Heels on the 2.

On another occasion he made five consecutive tackles, on three of them dumping the ball carrier for a loss. In addition he punted for a 36.5 yard average.

Other linemen nominated this week:

Tackles — Bob Lilly, Texas Christian; Jerry Mays, Southern Methodist; Jerry Beabout, Iowa.

Guards — Monte Lee, Texas, Bobby Lively, Rice; Dick Clocke, Arizona State Univ.

Centers—Wayne Harris, Arkansas; E. J. Holub, Texas Tech; Roy McKasson, Washington.

Brown Takes First Place In Rushing

The former Syracuse star enjoyed his best day of the season last Sunday when he clipped off 173 yards on 28 carries to boost his season's total to 694 yards on 123 carries for an average of 5.6 yards.

Jimmy Taylor of Green Bay, who led a week ago, has gained 661 yards on 143 attempts for a 4.6 average.

Green Bay's Paul Hornung needs only 39 points in five games to better the individual one-season scoring record. The former Notre Dame star has scored eight touchdowns, 25 successive extra points, and has booted 9 of 17 field goals for an even 100 points.

41-Year-Old Agajanian Not Planning To Retire

By BOB MYERS
Associated Press Sports Writer

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Considering that some of his teammates were only 3 or 4 years old when he started in professional football, Ben Agajanian must be regarded as an amazing article.

Now 41 and a trim 200 pounds, Ben is the place-kicking specialist for the Los Angeles Chargers of the American Football League.

He is the oldest player in pro ranks in the country, and in his 18 years he has played in every major and bush league in the U.S.

Aggie shrugged off reports he might retire.

"Quit? I'm having too much fun," he said Tuesday.

His greatest years, in widely separated stretches, were with the New York Giants in 1950-51-52 and 1955-56-57 and part of 1958.

The Philadelphia Eagles, Washington Redskins, the Rams and the Los Angeles Dons of the old All-America Conference, Pittsburgh, the Hollywood Bears (1942) — Agajanian has played for the best.

He decided early that he would last longer as a kicking specialist.

This year Aggie has kicked six field goals. His three field goals, one for 46 yards, beat the Denver Broncos.

He lost all but the little toe of his right-kicking-foot in a freight elevator accident in 1941. Today he can joke about such a tragedy.

A father once asked him how to make a placekicker out of his son.

"Cut off his toes," answered Ben.

Ohio's Juvenile Problems Termed Far From Solved

By PHIO GUNBY

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio has a long way to go in meeting its juvenile problems, even if future sessions of the legislature grant all that is requested for the program, Juvenile Division chief John R. Ferguson said today.

"But we'd have some of all the things you need to deal with the situation," Ferguson said.

Officials of the Department of Mental Hygiene and Correction—of which the Juvenile Division is a part—fear the number of youngsters involved in juvenile court actions may reach an all - time high this year.

In the first nine months of 1960, some 21,286 juveniles have been involved, although not all have been found guilty. This is a 7.4 per cent increase over the same period of 1959. Juvenile court commitments are up more than 5 per cent over 1959 (to 1,607).

Gov. Michael V. DiSalle is talking of establishing a youth commission, probably patterned along lines of a youth authority outlined in a model law by the American Law Institute 20 years ago.

Ferguson, on the other hand, has indicated he personally prefers a separate department for services to youth, headed by a director with cabinet status.

The upward trend in juvenile court cases slowed almost to a halt with a 1 per cent increase in 1958, then dropped 6 per cent in 1959 before resuming its climb toward what may be a 30,000 total this year.

Both the Boys' Industrial School at Lancaster and the Girls' Industrial School at Delaware are overcrowded, and boys are being released from BIS after five to six months on the average. Girls are leaving GIS after six or seven months on the average. Both are being taken off parole status after as little as five months, to allow supervision of those who need it more.

In Ohio, as in the nation, the delinquency rate in the 10-17 age group is increasing four to five times as rapidly as the population in that category.

Among other things, the Juvenile Division is recommending that the 1961 legislature consider authorizing money in the next two years for eight 20-bed institutions to allow youngsters to live in a community atmosphere in Cleveland, Dayton, Akron, Toledo, Columbus, Youngstown, Cincinnati and Athens.

Projected for construction by 1965 are facilities estimated to cost $23 million, including two 200-bed regional short-term treatment institutions for boys, one 100-bed training school for older girls, another 60-bed youth camp and 25 of the 20-bed institutions.

Planned for Cleveland—where a $55,000 residence formerly used to house nuns of the Sisters of Notre Dame order is being considered for purchase—is a so-called "Ohio Boys' Town" or state - operated community residential treatment unit for boys 10 to 13 whose delinquency may be headed off.

Ferguson says all these aspects of the program are important, but that a great many questions remain to be answered before Ohio can truly say it is effectively meeting the situation.

Southern County Park Discussion Scheduled

LISBON — A meeting of residents of the southern half of Columbiana County, interested in the state forest and parks, will be held Monday at 8 p. m. in the City Hall, according to Floyd Lower, county extension agent in agriculture.

O. A. Alderman, chief of the Ohio Division of Forestry, and V. W. Flickinger, chief of the Division of parks, both of the Ohio Department of Natural Resources, along with a representative of the Division of Wildlife, will be present.

The purpose of the meeting is to discuss the situation in regard to the Beaver Creek State Forest Park, the Yellow Creek Forest and the Highlandtown dam, and to promote interest in further development of these areas, Lower said.

Cleveland Hearing Continues

Blue Cross Points To Loss If Increase Isn't Granted

CLEVELAND (AP)—If its request for a rate increase is not granted by the Ohio insurance superintendent, Blue Cross of Northeast Ohio claims it will lose $1.5 million in 1960.

John R. Mannix, executive vice president of Blue Cross, said also at a public hearing conducted Tuesday by Edward A. Stowell, state insurance superintendent, that if the increase is not granted:

Blue Cross will lose $1 million a month beginning in 1961, and by next April 30 will exhaust its reserves.

Another hearing was set for today.

Blue Cross is seeking a rate increase of 22.4 per cent for subscribers in Cuyahoga, Geauga, Lake, Lorain, Medina, Portage and Summit counties. It is to cover increased hospital costs and use, Mannix said.

In addition, Blue Cross wants a 5 per cent increase for subscribers in those seven counties, plus the same 5 per cent boost for subscribers in Ashtabula, Ashland, Huron, Richland and Wayne counties. This would be to finance a plan to provide progressive discounts for subscribers reaching age 65.

Jerome Pollock of Detroit, United Auto Workers union insurance expert, attending the hearing with Patrick J. O'Malley, president of the Cleveland AFL-CIO; Leo Fenster, secretary of the Cleveland District Auto Council; and Ralph S. Locher, Cleveland law director.

Pollock requested that reasonable time be given his organization to study the 30 exhibits presented by Mannix. A final hearing was set by Stowell tentatively for Nov. 22.

Locher recommended that Gov. Michael V. DiSalle set up a hospital study commission to examine the organization and operation of Ohio hospitals.

Replying to suggestions that action on the rate increase be deferred, Stowell said:

"Such deferral would run into the statutory requirement that says the department must act on such a request within 90 days. Otherwise, the requested rate becomes lawful by inaction.

"Also, the degree to which the reserves continue to be reduced imposes a responsibility to pass on the fairness of the rates requested, for we are concerned with the solvency of this program."

Fenster indicated that doctors are responsible for some of the mounting costs of health care. He said their incomes are 744 per cent higher than in 1935. Fenster said he had figures which, projected, put the average doctor's net income for 1960 at $27,500.

Samuel D. Gunning of Cleveland Heights, who termed himself an unemployed executive, said he attended the hearing to speak "for myself and all faceless individual subscribers."

He advocated the elimination of the rate differential making individual insurance more expensive than group insurance. He added that Blue Cross was trying to squeeze the second golden egg out of the goose. He wants the insurance plan "turned back to the subscribers."

Lawsuit Seeks Ban On Stark County Jail

CANTON, Ohio (AP)—A lawsuit was filed here Tuesday aimed at preventing the three present Stark County Commissioners from building a county jail to house more than 300 prisoners near churches, a college and a park.

The petition seeks an injunction restraining the commissioners from advertising for bids or awarding contracts on the county-owned land in northwest Canton. A hearing will be held Nov. 25 on the suit filed by Mrs. Helen E. Mohr of Canton and David Cowan of Alliance. The county jail is estimated to cast $2,226,000.

Warm Weather Prompts Start On Downtown Yule Trim

Taking advantage of the unseasonably warm weather, a contractor's crews started work Tuesday on installing lights and other decorations in the East Liverpool business district for the Christmas season.

The lights will be switched on for the first time Friday, Nov. 25, after the traditional parade welcoming Santa Claus to town and marking the opening of the holiday season.

There are five new huge cross-street decorations that will be erected on E. and W. 5th Sts. They are made up of a pair of stars, fringed silvery aluminum foil and lights. They will be placed on E. 5th St. near Cherry Alley, near Washington St., near Crook Alley and near Market St., with another on W. 5th west of Market.

Forty-eight stylized Christmas trees, used for the first time in 1959, form the bulk of the downtown decorations. In a hollow triangle shape about 7 feet high, they are mounted on utility poles well above the heads of pedestrians. The trees are made up of red and white plastic fringes and miniature light bulbs.

Huge plastic replicas of Santa's face also will be mounted on brackets on utility poles. Other cross-street decorations include lighted plastic figures of Santa in a gift-laden sleigh, pulled by reindeer.

The decorations are a project of the East Liverpool Merchants Association. The parade on the day after Thanksgiving is being arranged by the Junior Chamber of Commerce. It will begin at 5:30 p. m. Downtown stores will be open that night until 8:30 to give shoppers a preview of gift merchandise.

Elected As Moderator

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—The Rev. F. Bruce Johnston, pastor of Monroe Presbyterian Church, Akron, has been elected by the Cleveland Presbytery as its moderator for 1961. He will succeed Dr. Harry B. Taylor of Cleveland as presiding head of the governing body for the 69 Presbyterian churches in a seven-county area.

Even With Legislature Grants

By PHIO GUNBY

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio has a long way to go in meeting its juvenile problems, even if future sessions of the legislature grant all that is requested for the program, Juvenile Division chief John R. Ferguson said today.

"But we'd have some of all the things you need to deal with the situation," Ferguson said.

Officials of the Department of Mental Hygiene and Correction—of which the Juvenile Division is a part—fear the number of youngsters involved in juvenile court actions may reach an all - time high this year.

In the first nine months of 1960, some 21,286 juveniles have been involved, although not all have been found guilty. This is a 7.4 per cent increase over the same period of 1959. Juvenile court commitments are up more than 5 per cent over 1959 (to 1,607).

Gov. Michael V. DiSalle is talking of establishing a youth commission, probably patterned along lines of a youth authority outlined in a model law by the American Law Institute 20 years ago.

Ferguson, on the other hand, has indicated he personally prefers a separate department for services to youth, headed by a director with cabinet status.

The upward trend in juvenile court cases slowed almost to a halt with a 1 per cent increase in 1958, then dropped 6 per cent in 1959 before resuming its climb toward what may be a 30,000 total this year.

Both the Boys' Industrial School at Lancaster and the Girls' Industrial School at Delaware are overcrowded, and boys are being released from BIS after five to six months on the average. Girls are leaving GIS after six or seven months on the average. Both are being taken off parole status after as little as five months, to allow supervision of those who need it more.

In Ohio, as in the nation, the delinquency rate in the 10-17 age group is increasing four to five times as rapidly as the population in that category.

Among other things, the Juvenile Division is recommending that the 1961 legislature consider authorizing money in the next two years for eight 20-bed institutions to allow youngsters to live in a community atmosphere in Cleveland, Dayton, Akron, Toledo, Columbus, Youngstown, Cincinnati and Athens.

Projected for construction by 1965 are facilities estimated to cost $23 million, including two 200-bed regional short-term treatment institutions for boys, one 100-bed training school for older girls, another 60-bed youth camp and 25 of the 20-bed institutions.

Planned for Cleveland—where a $55,000 residence formerly used to house nuns of the Sisters of Notre Dame order is being considered for purchase—is a so-called "Ohio Boys' Town" or state - operated community residential treatment unit for boys 10 to 13 whose delinquency may be headed off.

Ferguson says all these aspects of the program are important, but that a great many questions remain to be answered before Ohio can truly say it is effectively meeting the situation.

Southern County Park Discussion Scheduled

LISBON — A meeting of residents of the southern half of Columbiana County, interested in the state forest and parks, will be held Monday at 8 p. m. in the City Hall, according to Floyd Lower, county extension agent in agriculture.

O. A. Alderman, chief of the Ohio Division of Forestry, and V. W. Flickinger, chief of the Division of parks, both of the Ohio Department of Natural Resources, along with a representative of the Division of Wildlife, will be present.

The purpose of the meeting is to discuss the situation in regard to the Beaver Creek State Forest Park, the Yellow Creek Forest and the Highlandtown dam, and to promote interest in further development of these areas, Lower said.

Cleveland Hearing Continues

Blue Cross Points To Loss If Increase Isn't Granted

CLEVELAND (AP)—If its request for a rate increase is not granted by the Ohio insurance superintendent, Blue Cross of Northeast Ohio claims it will lose $1.5 million in 1960.

John R. Mannix, executive vice president of Blue Cross, said also at a public hearing conducted Tuesday by Edward A. Stowell, state insurance superintendent, that if the increase is not granted:

Blue Cross will lose $1 million a month beginning in 1961, and by next April 30 will exhaust its reserves.

Another hearing was set for today.

Blue Cross is seeking a rate increase of 22.4 per cent for subscribers in Cuyahoga, Geauga, Lake, Lorain, Medina, Portage and Summit counties. It is to cover increased hospital costs and use, Mannix said.

In addition, Blue Cross wants a 5 per cent increase for subscribers in those seven counties, plus the same 5 per cent boost for subscribers in Ashtabula, Ashland, Huron, Richland and Wayne counties. This would be to finance a plan to provide progressive discounts for subscribers reaching age 65.

Request for a delay in granting the increase came from three sources:

Jerome Pollock of Detroit, United Auto Workers union insurance expert, attending the hearing with Patrick J. O'Malley, president of the Cleveland AFL-CIO; Leo Fenster, secretary of the Cleveland District Auto Council; and Ralph S. Locher, Cleveland law director.

Pollock requested that reasonable time be given his organization to study the 30 exhibits presented by Mannix. A final hearing was set by Stowell tentatively for Nov. 22.

Locher recommended that Gov. Michael V. DiSalle set up a hospital study commission to examine the organization and operation of Ohio hospitals.

Replying to suggestions that action on the rate increase be deferred, Stowell said:

"Such deferral would run into the statutory requirement that says the department must act on such a request within 90 days. Otherwise, the requested rate becomes lawful by inaction.

"Also, the degree to which the reserves continue to be reduced imposes a responsibility to pass on the fairness of the rates requested, for we are concerned with the solvency of this program."

Fenster indicated that doctors are responsible for some of the mounting costs of health care. He said their incomes are 744 per cent higher than in 1935. Fenster said he had figures which, projected, put the average doctor's net income for 1960 at $27,500.

Samuel D. Gunning of Cleveland Heights, who termed himself an unemployed executive, said he attended the hearing to speak "for myself and all faceless individual subscribers."

He advocated the elimination of the rate differential making individual insurance more expensive than group insurance. He added that Blue Cross was trying to squeeze the second golden egg out of the goose. He wants the insurance plan "turned back to the subscribers."

Lawsuit Seeks Ban On Stark County Jail

CANTON, Ohio (AP)—A lawsuit was filed here Tuesday aimed at preventing the three present Stark County Commissioners from building a county jail to house more than 300 prisoners near churches, a college and a park.

The petition seeks an injunction restraining the commissioners from advertising for bids or awarding contracts on the county-owned land in northwest Canton. A hearing will be held Nov. 25 on the suit filed by Mrs. Helen E. Mohr of Canton and David Cowan of Alliance. The county jail is estimated to cast $2,226,000.

Warm Weather Prompts Start On Downtown Yule Trim

Taking advantage of the unseasonably warm weather, a contractor's crews started work Tuesday on installing lights and other decorations in the East Liverpool business district for the Christmas season.

The lights will be switched on for the first time Friday, Nov. 25, after the traditional parade welcoming Santa Claus to town and marking the opening of the holiday season.

There are five new huge cross-street decorations that will be erected on E. and W. 5th Sts. They are made up of a pair of stars, fringed silvery aluminum foil and lights. They will be placed on E. 5th St. near Cherry Alley, near Washington St., near Crook Alley and near Market St., with another on W. 5th west of Market.

Forty-eight stylized Christmas trees, used for the first time in 1959, form the bulk of the downtown decorations. In a hollow triangle shape about 7 feet high, they are mounted on utility poles well above the heads of pedestrians. The trees are made up of red and white plastic fringes and miniature light bulbs.

Huge plastic replicas of Santa's face also will be mounted on brackets on utility poles. Other cross-street decorations include lighted plastic figures of Santa in a gift-laden sleigh, pulled by reindeer.

The decorations are a project of the East Liverpool Merchants Association. The parade on the day after Thanksgiving is being arranged by the Junior Chamber of Commerce. It will begin at 5:30 p. m. Downtown stores will be open that night until 8:30 to give shoppers a preview of gift merchandise.

Elected As Moderator

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—The Rev. F. Bruce Johnston, pastor of Monroe Presbyterian Church, Akron, has been elected by the Cleveland Presbytery as its moderator for 1961. He will succeed Dr. Harry B. Taylor of Cleveland as presiding head of the governing body for the 69 Presbyterian churches in a seven-county area.

Keep In Trim

By IDA JEAN KAIN

Overweight Bridesmaid Wakes Up, Slims Down

It's never fun to be fat, particularly when you're young. But to be so heavy in your youth as to be ashamed to tell your weight can be a tragedy.

By Ida Jean Kain

One girl, who made up her mind to take action, reports how happy she is to have triumphed over her enemy — fat. She was a good - natured, pretty girl, and her friends were always asking her to be their bridesmaid. But she recognized that to be a bride herself she would have to lose a "load of weight." That's today's inspiring story.

"I've just got to let you know about my huge and maryelous success as a dieter! I've been on a doctor's diet for five months...and I'm still on it. My goal is to weigh 150 pounds in another six weeks.

AFTER READING your column and seeing in print what others have done, I was prompted to write and report my progress.

"My weight before dieting this time was 221 pounds. But before that I had weighed 246 pounds! I reduced 25 pounds on my own, then I went to the doctor and he has supervised my reducing. I am on a good diet now and will never again let myself go.

"I am 21 years old and decided that if I wanted to have a husband and a future in that direction I had to do something about the awful fat. I have! And now to keep my muscles from getting flabby, I take exercises and do a lot of walking.

"If my letter will help other overweight girls to take action, please print it. I would like the pictures back as they serve as a reminder for me!"

In a second letter, the young lady reports, "My dress size went from a 24½ or Junior Plenty 25 to a Junior size 15. Right now I'm in the process of acquiring a new fall and winter wardrobe.

"Believe me, as I look back, I realize it was just this summer that I 'woke up' to my real self, and to fun. I never knew before of so much! I guess the most fun I've had has come through dieting — watching the 'real me' emerge.

Bringing Up A Family

By GARRY C. MEYERS

College Students Should Write

For a parent to talk occasionally to a son or daughter in college by long distance telephone may prove a wholesome experience. But when this becomes a constant substitute for letters, it can be a heavy, needless expenditure. Even if it's no financial sacrifice to the parent, it encourages both parent and child to escape the effort of writing a letter rather regularly. Moreover, by writing a letter one can communicate more of an'e meaningful experiences than by telephoning.

Dr. Garry Meyers

As it works out, it's the student who is more inclined to put off writing and to telephone instead, thus escaping practice in responsibility and in demonstrating appreciation to his parents.

—:—

EVEN WHEN the student operates on a budget, he finds it easy to call home and have the charges reversed. Not many parents would refuse to accept such a call.

A few wise parents, in supplying a budgeted allowance for the son or daughter, deduct the collect telephone messages from each succeeding allowance-amount they send.

Such needless expenditures not only may become a financial burden to the parents with limited funds, but may use up funds of financially privileged parents which they might well devote to providing scholarships for bright but poor boys and girls.

Any student who spends excessively on long distance calls in lieu of writing home, or who spends excessively for mere luxuries at college, loses in sense of values and in reasonable self-discipline.

Wise are parents, regardless of their income, who train their growing children to keep their expenditures within a reasonable budgeted allowance.

My bulletin "Allowances" may be had by sending a self - addressed, stamped envelope to me in care of this newspaper.

Keep In Trim

By IDA JEAN KAIN

Overweight Bridesmaid Wakes Up, Slims Down

It's never fun to be fat, particularly when you're young. But to be so heavy in your youth as to be ashamed to tell your weight can be a tragedy.

By Ida Jean Kain

One girl, who made up her mind to take action, reports how happy she is to have triumphed over her enemy — fat. She was a good - natured, pretty girl, and her friends were always asking her to be their bridesmaid. But she recognized that to be a bride herself she would have to lose a "load of weight." That's today's inspiring story.

"I've just got to let you know about my huge and maryelous success as a dieter! I've been on a doctor's diet for five months...and I'm still on it. My goal is to weigh 150 pounds in another six weeks.

AFTER READING your column and seeing in print what others have done, I was prompted to write and report my progress.

"My weight before dieting this time was 221 pounds. But before that I had weighed 246 pounds! I reduced 25 pounds on my own, then I went to the doctor and he has supervised my reducing. I am on a good diet now and will never again let myself go.

"I am 21 years old and decided that if I wanted to have a husband and a future in that direction I had to do something about the awful fat. I have! And now to keep my muscles from getting flabby, I take exercises and do a lot of walking.

"If my letter will help other overweight girls to take action, please print it. I would like the pictures back as they serve as a reminder for me!"

Driver Jailed When Car Hits Radio Cruiser

A 49-year-old East Liverpool man was given a 10-day jail term and a fine of $250 and costs Tuesday in Municipal Court on a drunken driving charge filed after he allegedly backed his auto into a parked police radio car Monday at 7:30 on Dresden Ave.

Wayne M. Defenbaugh, 215 E. 3rd St., pleaded guilty before Judge Samuel M. Chertoff, who also suspended his driver's license for a year.

Police charged that Defenbaugh backed his 1949 four-door sedan off the Pennsylvania Railroad Co.'s Horn Switch property and struck a 1960 model police cruiser which had been parked by Patrolman W. E. Nott, damaging the right rear fender.

Officer Nott reported that Defenbaugh then attempted to drive away, but struck another parked car owned by Wilmer Bryson of Glenmoor. There was no damage to the Bryson auto.

Judge Chertoff dismissed a second charge alleging that Defenbaugh used "abusive and profane language" and "threatened a police officer." The defendant told the court he had "no recollection" of an argument with police. The judge dropped the second charge after declaring that both arose out of the same set of circumstances.

After sentence was imposed, Defenbaugh told the judge he is disabled as a result of an accident about 18 months ago and is attending a rehabilitation school. He said his only income is in the form of state aid. He demonstrated that his left arm is stiff.

The judge lectured Defenbaugh, asserting: "If your only income is state aid, you should not be driving a car and you shouldn't be drinking. The people of East Liverpool don't want to pay their tax money to be turned over to you for such purposes."

Driver Jailed When Car Hits Radio Cruiser

A 49-year-old East Liverpool man was given a 10-day jail term and a fine of $250 and costs Tuesday in Municipal Court on a drunken driving charge filed after he allegedly backed his auto into a parked police radio car Monday at 7:30 on Dresden Ave.

Wayne M. Defenbaugh, 215 E. 3rd St., pleaded guilty before Judge Samuel M. Chertoff, who also suspended his driver's license for a year.

Police charged that Defenbaugh backed his 1949 four-door sedan off the Pennsylvania Railroad Co.'s Horn Switch property and struck a 1960 model police cruiser which had been parked by Patrolman W. E. Nott, damaging the right rear fender.

Officer Nott reported that Defenbaugh then attempted to drive away, but struck another parked car owned by Wilmer Bryson of Glenmoor. There was no damage to the Bryson auto.

Judge Chertoff dismissed a second charge alleging that Defenbaugh used "abusive and profane language" and "threatened a police officer." The defendant told the court he had "no recollection" of an argument with police. The judge dropped the second charge after declaring that both arose out of the same set of circumstances.

After sentence was imposed, Defenbaugh told the judge he is disabled as a result of an accident about 18 months ago and is attending a rehabilitation school. He said his only income is in the form of state aid. He demonstrated that his left arm is stiff.

The judge lectured Defenbaugh, asserting: "If your only income is state aid, you should not be driving a car and you shouldn't be drinking. The people of East Liverpool don't want to pay their tax money to be turned over to you for such purposes."

Strip Mining Bid Discussed At Salineville

SALINEVILLE — A recommendation from a Glenmoor man that coal stripping be permitted at a site in the eastern part of Salineville received no action by Council at a meeting Monday night.

Council authorized Heydrick (Pete) Growall, street supervisor, to purchase up to $50 worth of concrete blocks for construction of a chimney at the village garage. Growall said a furnace had been donated for the garage, which lacks a chimney.

Council again discussed the cost of operating the Village Hall, but took no action on any policy revisions.

County Heads Urge CD Plan

The resolution will be mailed to mayors of county communities and chairmen of trustees in the 18 townships for presentation to the individual councils and boards.

Col. Leo F. McCarthy of Youngstown, 3rd Area Civil Defense director, outlined steps in forming a county unit.

The cost would be 12½ cents per capita. Participating subdivisions would pay 5 cents per capita into the county treasury for administration by a fulltime CD director with office and equipment.

The remaining 7½ cents would remain in the participating groups for their operation on a local level.

Only county CD units are eligible to purchase surplus government property such as radio equipment, generators, life jackets, emergency vehicles, Col. McCarthy said.

He noted that several county communities have CD organizations of their own, and urged a county-wide unit with a direct link to the 3rd Area Headquarters through a county director.

Mayors attending were Dean Stockman of Lisbon, Dean B. Cranmer of Salem, Erwood Calvin of Columbiana, Ralph B. Kennedy of Leetonia and Kenneth Leishman of Salineville.

Also present were Commissioners Walter A. Hunston of East Palestine, Frank Wilson of Wellsville and R. Max Gard of Lisbon; Mrs. Violet Peterson, chairwomen of the East Palestine CD unit; Prosecuting Atty. G. William Brokaw, Atty. George H. Bowman Jr. of Salem and Virginia Shetler of the Trumbull County CD headquarters.

Cincinnati Police Due To Cite Man On Dope Charges

CINCINNATI (AP) — Cincinnati police expected to file narcotics law violation charges today against a man from whom they confiscated four pounds of marijuana after a 10-minute fight in a hallway at his home.

The marijuana, swept up off the floor after it had been hurled at detectives, was valued by officers at $8,000 to $10,000 on the black market. Police said it would have made 5,000 to 10,000 cigarettes.

The man taken into custody Tuesday night was Homer (Big Hands) Wilson, 46.

Detectives Elmer Robisch, William Withworth and John Wilson, who had been watching his home, approached the man when they saw him enter the house carrying a shopping bag.

"You're not going to take me, I'm not going back to the pen," they said Wilson shouted as they approached.

Police said Wilson has a record of six narcotics law convictions since 1948.

Sky Diver Drops Near Own Home For Dinner

KINGSTREE, S. C. (AP) — Douglas James, 19, dropped in at his home for dinner one day recently from 2,500 feet above via a stawberry pink parachute.

The youthful sky diver had meant to land in a field a considerable distance from home and had his mother, Mrs. A. K. James, stationed there to drive him home for the mid-day meal.

WILLIAMSBURG, Va. (AP) — The Associated Press Managing Editors Association awarded 43 citations today for outstanding participation in news and newsphoto coverage. The awards were announced at the opening session of the annual APME convention in this historic city.

The citations were signed by John H. Colburn of the Richmond (Va.) Times-Dispatch, APME president; and Richard L. Young Jr. of the Charlotte (N.C.) News, chairman of the membership citations committee.

C&O's Exchange Offer For B&O Shares Extended

CLEVELAND (AP)—The Chesapeake and Ohio Railway has extended to Dec. 14 its exchange offer for Baltimore and Ohio Railroad shares.

The extension Tuesday makes the deadline the same as that set by the New York Central System, which has made a rival offer to B & O shareholders.

This is the second time C&O has extended its exchange offer, but President Walter J. Touhy said there definitely will be no further extension.

At the same time, Tuohy announced that more than 8,000 B&O shareholders now have submitted 942,954 shares for exchange on the basis of one share of C&O common for each 1¾ shares of B&O common and one share of C&O common for each share of B&O preferred.

Tuohy said the 30 per cent of all B&O shares submitted includes 37.8 per cent of the preferred stock and 28.1 per cent of the common stock.

"Our contacts with other shareowners make us believe they have been waiting for two things before they act: The setting of an absolute final date, and the assurance that the terms of the offer are final" the C&O president declared.

He said a price advantage of almost $9 in New York Central's offer when it was made several months ago has steadily diminished and now the price advantage favors C&O's offer.

Only 30% Of Bulk Fleet Is In Operation

CLEVELAND (AP) — Only 30 per cent of the American bulk fleet still is in operation on the Great Lakes and the entire fleet will be laid up by a week from Thursday.

The M. A. Hanna Co. vessel department reported this Tuesday, saying the 1960 lakes shipping season is virtually ended with only 60 ships of 230 in operation. On the same day a year ago, 220 of the 241 ships were operating as part of a drive to ship iron ore to make up for time lost during the steel strike.

County Heads Urge CD Plan

The resolution will be mailed to mayors of county communities and chairmen of trustees in the 18 townships for presentation to the individual councils and boards.

Col. Leo F. McCarthy of Youngstown, 3rd Area Civil Defense director, outlined steps in forming a county unit.

The cost would be 12½ cents per capita. Participating subdivisions would pay 5 cents per capita into the county treasury for administration by a fulltime CD director with office and equipment.

The remaining 7½ cents would remain in the participating groups for their operation on a local level.

Only county CD units are eligible to purchase surplus government property such as radio equipment, generators, life jackets, emergency vehicles, Col. McCarthy said.

He noted that several county communities have CD organizations of their own, and urged a county-wide unit with a direct link to the 3rd Area Headquarters through a county director.

Mayors attending were Dean Stockman of Lisbon, Dean B. Cranmer of Salem, Erwood Calvin of Columbiana, Ralph B. Kennedy of Leetonia and Kenneth Leishman of Salineville.

Also present were Commissioners Walter A. Hunston of East Palestine, Frank Wilson of Wellsville and R. Max Gard of Lisbon; Mrs. Violet Peterson, chairwomen of the East Palestine CD unit; Prosecuting Atty. G. William Brokaw, Atty. George H. Bowman Jr. of Salem and Virginia Shetler of the Trumbull County CD headquarters.

Cincinnati Police Due To Cite Man On Dope Charges

CINCINNATI (AP) — Cincinnati police expected to file narcotics law violation charges today against a man from whom they confiscated four pounds of marijuana after a 10-minute fight in a hallway at his home.

The marijuana, swept up off the floor after it had been hurled at detectives, was valued by officers at $8,000 to $10,000 on the black market. Police said it would have made 5,000 to 10,000 cigarettes.

The man taken into custody Tuesday night was Homer (Big Hands) Wilson, 46.

Detectives Elmer Robisch, William Withworth and John Wilson, who had been watching his home, approached the man when they saw him enter the house carrying a shopping bag.

"You're not going to take me, I'm not going back to the pen," they said Wilson shouted as they approached.

He hurled the shopping bag at the officers and started fighting. Another resident at the house called other police.

Police said Wilson has a record of six narcotics law convictions since 1948.

Sky Diver Drops Near Own Home For Dinner

KINGSTREE, S. C. (AP) — Douglas James, 19, dropped in at his home for dinner one day recently from 2,500 feet above via a stawberry pink parachute.

The youthful sky diver had meant to land in a field a considerable distance from home and had his mother, Mrs. A. K. James, stationed there to drive him home for the mid-day meal.

Managing Editors Group Announces 43 Citations

WILLIAMSBURG, Va. (AP) — The Associated Press Managing Editors Association awarded 43 citations today for outstanding participation in news and newsphoto coverage. The awards were announced at the opening session of the annual APME convention in this historic city.

Thirty-eight of the citations went to newspapers, five to broadcasting stations. Those honored turned in exceptional jobs in the coverage of news events in behalf of all AP members. As usual, many members supplied details and photos before they were able to use the information themselves.

The citations were signed by John H. Colburn of the Richmond (Va.) Times-Dispatch, APME president; and Richard L. Young Jr. of the Charlotte (N.C.) News, chairman of the membership citations committee.

C&O's Exchange Offer For B&O Shares Extended

CLEVELAND (AP)—The Chesapeake and Ohio Railway has extended to Dec. 14 its exchange offer for Baltimore and Ohio Railroad shares.

The extension Tuesday makes the deadline the same as that set by the New York Central System, which has made a rival offer to B & O shareholders.

This is the second time C&O has extended its exchange offer, but President Walter J. Touhy said there definitely will be no further extension.

At the same time, Tuohy announced that more than 8,000 B&O shareholders now have submitted 942,954 shares for exchange on the basis of one share of C&O common for each 1¾ shares of B&O common and one share of C&O common for each share of B&O preferred.

Tuohy said the 30 per cent of all B&O shares submitted includes 37.8 per cent of the preferred stock and 28.1 per cent of the common stock.

"Our contacts with other shareowners make us believe they have been waiting for two things before they act: The setting of an absolute final date, and the assurance that the terms of the offer are final" the C&O president declared.

He said a price advantage of almost $9 in New York Central's offer when it was made several months ago has steadily diminished and now the price advantage favors C&O's offer.

School For Alaskans

ANCHORAGE, Alaska (AP) — After 15 years of proposing, planning, fund-raising and building, the Methodist Church has opened its new Alaska Methodist University on the outskirts of Anchorage, with an enrollment of 150 students. President Dr. Fred P. McGinnis heads a faculty of 15 full-time professors and 11 part - time instructors.

Only 30% Of Bulk Fleet Is In Operation

CLEVELAND (AP) — Only 30 per cent of the American bulk fleet still is in operation on the Great Lakes and the entire fleet will be laid up by a week from Thursday.

The M. A. Hanna Co. vessel department reported this Tuesday, saying the 1960 lakes shipping season is virtually ended with only 60 ships of 230 in operation. On the same day a year ago, 220 of the 241 ships were operating as part of a drive to ship iron ore to make up for time lost during the steel strike.

Midland Heights Man Hurt In Auto Wreck

James William Noah of Midland Heights, Midland, is in "fairly good" condition at Rochester General Hospital with injuries sufferedn when his car hit a bridge abutmen on Route 68 in Industry about midnight Monday.

He was admitted unconscious at 12:55 a. m. Tuesday at the hospital. He suffered concussion and multiple contusions and abrasions of his left knee. The bridge is over Wolf's Run near Craft's Service Station.

Police Chief Guy St. Esprit is investigating.

Heart Massage Fails

NORWALK, Ohio (AP)—Emergency heart surgery in the cornfield where he collapsed failed to save the life of Harry Weimer, 67, Tuesday. Dr. Thomas H. Eaton cut open Weimer's chest and massaged his heart. The doctor had accompanied the Greenwich rescue squad to the field.

City Man Forfeits In Hancock Case

A city man forfeited $108 bond when he failed to appear for a hearing Monday afternoon on charges of drunk driving and a Midland motorist was jailed in default of his fine on a similar charge at hearings before Squire John D. Herron of New Cumberland.

Carl Edwin Beagle, 38, of 436 Maryland Ave., forfeited when he failed to appear for a hearing at 4 p. m. on the charge filed by Hancock County sheriff's deputies after his car struck two parked autos in Newell Saturday night.

Alex Delacruz, 25, of 460 Ohio Ave., Midland was jailed for 30 days in default of a $100 and costs fine meted by Squire Herron for drunk driving.

Delacruz was cited by sheriff's deputies after a two-car accident on the Route 30 Chester Hill Sunday afternoon.

Squire Herron said the driving priviliges of Beagle and Delacruz were revoked for six months.

How Can I?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. How can I remove some grease spots from wallpaper?

A. Cover the spots with a paste of cornstarch and water. When dry, brush off, and in most cases the stain will brush off, too. Often, a lump of dry starch is enough to absorb the grease from the wallpaper.

Q. How can I "dirt-proof" my brick fireplace?

A. Keep it clean easily (and better-looking) by brushing the surface with liquid wax. When dust gathers it can be readily wiped off.

Q. How can I, through my decorating, give a very small room the illusion of greater size?

A. Try wallpapering three walls of this room in a plain, modest pattern, and the fourth wall in a predominant, bold pattern.

Q. How can I shorten a plastic raincoat?

Q. How can I remove some grease spots from wallpaper?

A. Cover the spots with a paste of cornstarch and water. When dry, brush off, and in most cases the stain will brush off, too. Often, a lump of dry starch is enough to absorb the grease from the wallpaper.

Q. How can I "dirt-proof" my brick fireplace?

A. Keep it clean easily (and better-looking) by brushing the surface with liquid wax. When dust gathers it can be readily wiped off.

Q. How can I, through my decorating, give a very small room the illusion of greater size?

A. Try wallpapering three walls of this room in a plain, modest pattern, and the fourth wall in a predominant, bold pattern.

Q. How can I shorten a plastic raincoat?

A. One very good way to accomplish this is to turn up the hem and stick it into place with some adhesive tape.
